Class Lives Stories From Across Our Economic Divide:

Class Lives Chuck Collins, Jennifer Ladd, Maynard Seider, Felice Yeskel, 2014-12-18 Class Lives is an anthology of narratives dramatizing the lived experience of class in America. It includes forty original essays from authors who represent a range of classes, genders, races, ethnicities, ages, and occupations across the United States. Born into poverty, working class, the middle class, and the owning class, and every place in between, the contributors describe their class journeys in narrative form, recounting one or two key stories that illustrate their growing awareness of class and their place changing or stable within the class system. The stories in Class Lives are both gripping and moving. One contributor grows up in hunger and as an adult becomes an advocate for the poor and homeless. Another acknowledges the truth that her working class father's achievements afforded her and the rest of the family access to people with power. A gifted child from a working class home soon understands that intelligence is a commodity but finds his background incompatible with his aspirations and so attempts to divide his life into separate worlds. Together, these essays form a powerful narrative about the experience of class and the importance of learning about classism, class cultures, and the intersections of class, race, and gender. Class Lives will be a helpful resource for students, teachers, sociologists, diversity trainers, activists, and a general audience. It will leave readers with an appreciation of the poignancy and power of class and the journeys that Americans grapple with on a daily basis.

Class Lives: Stories from Across Our Economic Divide Jennifer Ladd, Narratives on Becoming Emilie Clucas Leaderman, Jennifer S. Jefferson, Jo Ann Gammel, Sue L. Motulsky, Amy Rutstein-Riley, 2021-07-01 Learning and identity development are lifetime processes of becoming. The construction of self of interest to scholars and practitioners in adult development and adult learning is an ongoing process with the self both forming and being formed by lived experience in privileged and oppressive contexts. Intersecting identities and the power dynamics within them shape how learners define themselves and others and how they make meaning of their experiences in the world. The series I Am What I Become: Constructing Identities as Lifelong Learners is an insightful and diverse collection of empirical research and narrative essays in identity development, adult development, and adult learning. The purpose of this series is to publish contributions that highlight the intimate and intricate connections between learning and identity. The series aims to assist our readers to understand and nurture adults who are always in the process of becoming. We hope to promote reflection and research at the intersection of identity and adult learning at any point across the adult lifespan. The rich array of qualitative research designs, as well as autobiographic and narrative essays, transform and expand our understanding of the lived experience of people both like us and unlike us from the U.S. and beyond. Narratives on Becoming: Identity and Lifelong Learning, Volume Three of the series explores a myriad of ways that authors' personal and professional growth has influenced identity development. These chapters provide insights into the intersectional identities and learning of writers. Drawing from the multiple paths that comprise the journey of lifelong learning, these authors present powerful stories that identify the ways relationships environments culture travel and values shape their identities use literacy teaching and learning as vehicles for experimenting with new identities negotiate multiple identities contexts and transitions involved in becoming and construct meaning Through their narrative essays and ethnographic autobiographical accounts the authors in this volume illuminate the power of transformational learning during life changing events and transitions Praise for Narratives on Becoming Identity and Lifelong Learning The third volume in the I Am What I Become series Narratives on Becoming Identity and Lifelong Learning invites readers into the lives of educators from around the world This book includes important narratives from students secondary educators and post secondary educators alike highlighting how race class gender and a wide range of other intersectional identities shape the diverse lived experiences of educators and their students This volume also serves as an important reminder for all of us that the learning process continues across a lifetime and transcends the limits of the traditional classroom Brian Bicknell President Manchester Community College We all pay lip service to the importance of lifelong learning but what is it exactly and how does it come about The connections between identity and learning are intriguing and complex especially when it comes to adult learners In this very thoughtfully organized collection researchers present qualitative and narrative studies along with personal narratives to explore identity development in formal and informal learning environments Contributions from varied cultural contexts most with powerful and moving stories to tell provide insight into how identity meaning making and adult learning and development intersect and influence each other Psychologists scholars and educators interested in identity development and meaning making will find inspiration and fresh understanding in this innovative and enlightening series Ruthellen Josselson Author Paths to Fulfillment Women's Search for Meaning and Identity This innovative series on adult development is inspiring and substantive We hear voices from the margins and stories of courage We read identity formation narratives by young adults and experienced professionals who share impressive capacities for transparency vulnerability and self reflection Many of the narratives are embedded in rigorous qualitative research that highlights diverse ways that identity is shaped through social positionality lived experience the quest for individuation and willingness to encounter life as a dynamic learning process Jared D Kass Lesley University Author A Person Centered Approach to Psychospiritual Maturation Mentoring Psychological Resilience and Inclusive Community in Higher Education Working in Class Allison L. Hurst, Sandi Kawecka Nenga, 2016-01-18 More students today are financing college through debt but the burdens of debt are not equally shared The least privileged students are those most encumbered and the least able to repay All of this has implications for those who work in academia especially those who are themselves from less advantaged backgrounds Warnock argues that it is difficult to reconcile the goals of facilitating upward mobility for students from similar backgrounds while being aware that the goals of many colleges and universities stand in contrast to the recruitment and support of these students This combined with the fact that campuses are increasingly reliant on adjunct labor makes it difficult for the contemporary tenure track or tenured working class academic to reconcile his or her position in the academy

Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education Nana Osei-Kofi, Bradley Boovy, Kali Furman, 2021-08-04 Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education is a book for anyone with an interest in teaching and learning in higher education from a social justice perspective and with a commitment to teaching all students This text offers a breadth of disciplinary perspectives on how to center difference power and systemic oppression in pedagogical practice arguing that these elements are essential to knowledge formation and to teaching Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education is structured as an ongoing conversation among educators who believe that teaching from a social justice perspective is about much more than the type of readings and assignments found on course syllabi Drawing on the broadest possible definition of curriculum transformation the volume demonstrates that social justice education is about both educators social locations and about course content It is also about knowing students and teaching beyond the traditional classroom to meaningfully include local communities social movements archives and colleagues in student and academic affairs Premised on the notion that continuous learning and growth is critical to educators with deep commitments to fostering critical consciousness through their teaching Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education offers interdisciplinary and innovative collaborative approaches to curriculum transformation that build on and extend existing scholarship on social justice education Newly committed and established social justice pedagogues share their experiences taking up the many difficult questions pertaining to what it means for all of us to participate in shaping a more just shared future

Narratives of Marginalized Identities in Higher Education Santosh Khadka, Joanna Davis-McElligatt, Keith Dorwick, 2018-07-27 This book features theorized narratives from academics who inhabit marginalized identity positions including among others academics with non normative genders sexualities and relationships nontenured faculty racial and ethnic minorities scholars with HIV depression and anxiety and other disabilities immigrants and international students and poor and working class faculty and students The chapters in this volume explore the ways in which marginalized identities fundamentally shape and impact the academic experience thus the contributors in this collection demonstrate how academic outsiderism works both within the confines of their college or university systems and a broader matrix of community state and international relations With an emphasis on the inherent intersectionality of identity positions this book addresses the broad matrix of ways academics navigate their particular locations as marginalized subjects

Mapping Inequality in an Era of Neoliberalism Stephen Valocchi, 2024-09-20 Offering a unique comprehensive and critical introduction to increasingly visible social inequalities this textbook examines the political and economic causes and cultural consequences of a stratifying system that allocates material resources and human dignity on the basis of private profit and labor exploitation Mapping Inequality in an Era of Neoliberalism foregrounds capitalism as the major source of the power relations in the United States as a class system that serves the dominant vector of inequality and sets the parameters of social mobility The book starts with racialized capitalist power and shows how this power is constituted in structures of opportunity and constraint It also uses ethnographic accounts to flip the script to show how individuals in the class structure construct identities Providing students with tools for understanding Valocchi engagingly introduces many of the crucial concepts in this area of sociology power opportunity structures ideology social and cultural capitals and intersectional class identities connecting them as part of a uniquely critical approach

Working-Class Rhetorics ,2021-09-06 As the recent pandemic illustrated many folks are only one or two paychecks away from bankruptcy The economic disparities made starkly clear in the wake of shutdowns have brought home the need for thinking critically about class in ways that many U S citizens have traditionally resisted This collection of memoirs and cultural analyses by established and newer scholars from a variety of disciplines seeks to reintroduce class in sophisticated yet accessible ways so that students may increase their critical literacy and consider the power of rhetoric to fight for equitable distribution of income and class power Contributors are Sarah Attfield Jennifer Beech Phil Bratta Ryan Cooper Carl Christina V Cedillo Jos M Cortez William DeGenaro David Engen Kelli R Gill Abby Graves Matthew Wayne Guy Katherine Highfill Nancy Mack Heather Palmer Irvin Peckham Valerie Murrenus Pilmaier Philip L Simpson William Thelin and Edward J Whitelock
