crisis and very few of us if any are able to understand what is wrong with our lives and the world at large How did this happen and how did humans become so disconnected with humanity Why are psychological disorders such as depression anxiety fear and suicide on the increase and why are conventional Western therapies unable to stem the tide To approach this we must first look inside ourselves to explore our own purpose in life and extend that principle to the rest of humanity Despite the advances of modern Western psychology and the development of therapies that do help many one area that is largely unexplored is that of the human spirit and spirituality since it is more convenient to consider the human mind as machine that responds to external stimuli In this powerful exploration into the human mind and its relationship with the human spirit Malik Badri invites the reader to open the door to self discovery purpose and spirituality through the practice of contemplation reflection and meditation understanding the true meaning and experience of spirituality as well as one s own place in Creation Whilst central to worship in Islam this will also be of great interest to and help any reader wishing to explore the notion of spirituality whether as part of worship or simply as part of self development and inner healing

American Journal of Islam and Society (AJIS) - Volume 39 Issues 1-2 Ali Altaf Mian, Emily Goshey, Aasim Padela, Thahir Jamal Kiliyamannil, Suheil Laher, Ismail Hashim Abubakar, Martin Jiajun He, Ali Cebeci, Max Dugan, Abdallah Rothman, Alisha Ahmed, Rania Awaad, 2022-08-01 The four articles two review essays various book reviews and obituary contained in this issue all revolve around contestations of Islamic authority Notably two of these articles are drawn from the AJIS symposium on Maq'id whose first set of essays were featured in the previous issue 38 3 4 dedicated to the topic In the first article Agents of Grace Ali Altaf Mian develops a sophisticated and nuanced reading of intentionality in the work of the moral theologian al Ghazali Mian reads the latter's work to disclose ethical action as a site of contingency and ambivalence indeed of the subject's non-sovereignty He contributes this theorization of intentionality as a constructive critique of accounts of ethical agency in the anthropology of Islam In the second article No Scholars in the West Emily Goshey carefully unpacks the ostensible paradox by which Western Salafis who studied in the Muslim world are not seen as scholars by the very communities they

lead What then comprises religious authority and scholarship within these models of knowledge transmission Goshey tracks the dynamics of scholarship and community leadership based on fieldwork with African American Salafi affiliate communities in Philadelphia In the third article Maq idi Models for an Islamic Medical Ethics Aasim Padela presents a typology of maq id based approaches to medical ethics Whether requiring a field based redefinition a conceptual extension or a text based postulation of the classical maq id theory however Padela shows that these frameworks remain woefully underdeveloped to offer appropriate and sufficient guidance for pressing bedside cases In the fourth article Developing an Ethic of Justice Thahir Jamal Kiliyamannil offers a creative rereading of new Muslim movements in South India Rather than relying on old typologies about political Islam or secularized activists he considers the Solidarity Youth Movement to articulate an Islamic ethic of justice inspired by Abul A la Maududi This case study shows not only how the maq id framework may inform discourses well beyond the domains of legal practice but also how this specific articulation of political justice is based in the praxis of the Indian Muslim minority These four articles and the remaining elements of the issue foreground contemporary contestations of Islamic authority Read together they also offer a set of terms for thinking productively about its contours limits affordances and possibilities

Culture and Islamic Adaptation Psychology Malik Badri, Humanology, 2018-03-15 The indiscriminate exportation of Western psychology to Muslim and third world countries can pose serious cultural and ideological dilemmas When the exported commodity from North to South is physical in nature the harm done can easily be identified for example the quick detection of the life threatening birth defects caused by the drug thalidomide when taken during pregnancy or the flaws in the braking system of a Japanese car However when the exported product is ideas and beliefs and ways of life the indirect and sneaky damage is often much more malevolent and long lasting because it attacks the worldview of the recipients and it shakes their cherished beliefs Because of its technological supremacy Islamic and developing countries got used to wholeheartedly accepting any information coming from the West if it is under the tag of science By presenting itself under this prestigious mantra of science students in Muslim countries swallow the kernel of psychology with its nutshell the baby with its filthy water The danger of this approach is greatly augmented by the shortcomings of our educational systems that discourages critical thinking and encourages the submissive acceptance of the words of the teacher and that of printed material
