Contesting the Gothic

This book by James Watt goes so far as to argue that the Gothic genre is a modern invention, but that back in the Romantic period, readers and writers did not think of it as a single genre. Instead, they saw it as several distinct genres of the “terrorist” fiction and also “romance” fiction in general.

Some wrote gothic tales for Conservative ends. Watt labels these “Loyalist” works, especially those by Clara Reeves. These were opposed by Lewis’s more subversive The Monk. Ironically Lewis’s novel is taken to be a quintessential gothic work today.

Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre,2016-01-01 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction

Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism

The Dispute of the New World Antonello Gerbi, 2010-06-20 Translated by Jeremy Moyle When Hegel described the Americas as an inferior continent he was repeating a contention that inspired one of the most passionate debates of modern times Originally formulated by the eminent natural scientist Georges Louis Leclerc Comte de Buffon and expanded by the Prussian encyclopedist Cornelius de Pauw this provocative thesis drew heated responses from politicians philosophers publicists and patriots on both sides of the Atlantic The ensuing polemic reached its apex in the latter decades of the eighteenth century and is far from extinct today Translated into English in 1973 The Dispute of the New World is the definitive study of this debate Antonello Gerbi scrutinizes each contribution to the debate unravels the complex arguments and reveals their inner motivations As the story of the polemic unfolds moving through many disciplines that include biology economics anthropology theology geophysics and poetry it becomes clear that the subject at issue is nothing less than the totality of the Old World versus the New and how each viewed the other at a vital turning point in history
