Making Trouble Dr Jeff Ferrell,Neil Websdale, In Making Trouble leading scholars in criminology sociology criminal justice womens studies and social history explore the mediated cultural dynamics that govern image construction and understanding of a wide range of contemporary controversies for instance drug dealing freight train graffiti anti abortion violence etc Edited within unifying central themes such as situated media the evolution of policing and social control and the gendered construction of crime deviance and control Making Trouble marks a significant expansion within this field Sourcebook on Violence Against Women Claire M. Renzetti, Jeffrey L. Edleson, Raquel Kennedy Bergen, 2011 Jonathan Letterman was an outpost medical officer serving in Indian country in the years before the Civil War responsible for the care of just hundreds of men But when he was appointed the chief medical officer for the Army of the Potomac he revolutionized combat medicine over the course of four major battles Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville and Gettysburg that produced unprecedented numbers of casualties He made battlefield survival possible by creating the first organized ambulance corps and a more effective field hospital system He imposed medical professionalism on a chaotic battlefield Where before 20 percent of the men were unfit to fight because of disease squalid conditions and poor nutrition he improved health and combat readiness by pioneering hygiene and diet standards Based on original research and with stirring accounts of battle and the struggle to invent and supply adequate care during impossible conditions this new biography recounts Letterman's life from his small town Pennsylvania beginnings to his trailblazing wartime years and his subsequent life as a wildcatter and the medical examiner of San Francisco At last here is the missing portrait of a key figure of Civil War history and military medicine His principles of battlefield care continue to be taught to military commanders and first responders The SAGE Encyclopedia of Terrorism, Second Edition Gus Martin, 2011-06-15 Six years after publication of the first edition of the best selling Encyclopedia of Terrorism much has changed on the national security scene Despite the dark promises of Osama bin Laden following the 9 11 attacks the United States has not experienced any major domestic terror incidents Al Qaeda itself is believed to be a severely crippled organization But while U S wars in Afghanistan and Iraq not to mention the arrival of the Obama administration a new balance of power within Congress and an increasingly fragile economic picture have significantly affected the national security picture the threat of economic chaos and massive loss of life due to terror attacks has not abated Indeed in July 2008 analysts pointed out that even a relatively small terrorist organization could present a dire threat with some experts arguing that a biological chemical or even nuclear attack on a major U S city is all but inevitable In this highly charged rapidly shifting environment we are pleased to present the The SAGE Encyclopedia of Terrorism Second Edition a thoroughly updated and expanded edition of the original highly regarded reference work Nearly 100 000 words of new material will be added along with fully updated original entries and expanded coverage New introductory essays will explore the impact of terrorism on economics public health religion and even pop culture Ethical issues such as the role of torture in interrogations competing notions of security versus liberty and the debates over FISA legislation and Guantanamo Bay will also be covered Two dozen entries on significant recent events such as the London bombings Chechen attacks on Russian interests and the rescue of Ingrid Bettancourt and some 60 additional new entries will restore the work as an up to the minute natural first stop for researchers

Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2010-02-25 Ideal for use in either crime theory or race and crime courses this is the only text to look at the array of explanations for crime as they relate to racial and ethnic groups Each chapter begins with a historical review of each theoretical perspective and how its original formulation and more recent derivatives account for racial ethnic differences The theoretical perspectives include those based on religion biology social disorganization strain subculture labeling conflict social control colonial and feminism This new Second Edition includes discussions of Deadly Symbiosis critical race theory criminology comparative conflict theory maximization and abortion race and crime In the closing chapter the author considers which perspectives have shown the most promise in the area of race ethnicity and crime

Family Violence and Men of Color Ricardo Carrillo, Jerry Tello, 2008-08-15 This innovative book examines an important timely topic The content will greatly enhance practitioners and students understanding and skills in working with men of color Elaine P Congress DSW Fordham University Graduate School of Social Service Family Violence and Men of Color is the best book in cross cultural issues and domestic violence that I have ever read It is a good combination of literature review clinical interventions and cultural imagery Daniel Sonkin PhD Marriage Family and Child Counselor Family violence is an international epidemic that knows no cultural boundaries but for years research has overlooked the historical political and cultural factors that often lead men toward violent behavior The first edition of Family Violence and Men of Color broke new ground by closely examining the relationship between race and family violence This revised edition offers an even broader cross cultural analysis of male violence and more specialized treatment methods and approaches Key Features Chapters analyzing violent behavioral patterns in each major community of color Three new chapters on the African American and Maori communities in addition to the Latino Native American Asian and South American communities Culturally based strategies and models that enhance the efficacy of existing intervention programs for men who batter Integrates clinical experiential and narrative approaches to family violence This text calls for a critical evaluation and transformation of cultural practices that promote violence against women and will be pivotal in the development of more effective prevention and intervention programs in the years to come

Debates in British Politics Today Lynton J. Robins, Bill Jones, 2000 The contents focus directly on the dynamics of political argument in order to reveal how rival politicians and political scientists practice their persuasive art Each contributor explores a disputed viewpoint showing how differences of attitude and ideology structure the contemporary debate Students should learn how an argument is constructed and develop the skills necessary for separating rhetoric from political reality Further guidance is provided by summary boxes and suggested additional reading

Elder Abuse Work Jacki Pritchard, 1999-01-01 The abuse neglect and exploitation of older people in community and residential care settings is increasingly being recognised and addressed as a serious social concern in Britain and Canada Elder Abuse Work gives an overview of the developments and issues in both countries and draws out good
