Person-Centered Politics Eamonn O'Higgins, 2024-04-09 What accounts for the widespread disillusionment with politics Person centered Politics suggests that politics today through its structures processes and institutions tends to presuppose and to impose a certain caricature of the human person that inhibits and frustrates a real sense of personal participation in an authentic common good of politics and society In 12 chapters that touch on fundamental themes of political philosophy Person centered Politics proposes the social and transcendent dimensions of personal existence and their application to the renewal of politics today The themes explore the commonly accepted assumptions of politics today and how a renewed understanding of the person can invigorate political discourse and action In Person centered Politics the author is in continuous dialogue with some of the major contemporary philosophers and thinkers such as Eric Voegelin David Walsh Robert Sokolowski Vaclav Havel Pierre Manent Peter Simpson and Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI Detailed footnotes in each chapter provide reference to further sources of enlightenment and research Person centered Politics proposes an outline for a renewed vision of politics that is centered on the truth of human existence and not a politics that distorts and suffocates the human spirit because in the words of E Voegelin the right order of the soul through philosophy furnishes the standard for the right order of society and not the other way round
