for parents and other adults who seek to foster children's faith. This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children's faith formation including our day to day interactions with children, the images of God we share with them, how we pray together, the rituals we create, service opportunities we provide, music we share together, the stories we tell and listen to, our celebration of the sacraments, and more. While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation, much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience. Lastly, but perhaps most importantly, this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with, and that we hope to foster our children's relationship with, is one who is infinitely loving, welcoming, and always yearning for deeper connection with us.

Discovering Programs for Talent Development Beverly N. Parke, 2003. This resource is an indispensable tool for all educators who want to fill the gaps in gifted education and provide their gifted and talented students with the educational opportunities they need to reach their full potential.

The Big Book of Picture-Book Authors and Illustrators James Preller, 2001. Introduce children to 75 favorite authors and illustrators with this all-in-one resource. The lively profiles in this collection provide insight into the lives, work, inspiration, and creative process of these talented writers and artists. Share these fascinating mini biographies with students to enhance author studies and help your students read with greater enthusiasm and understanding.

Book jacket: Models for Teaching Writing-Craft Target Skills Marcia Sheehan Freeman, 2005. Writing is best taught through models. Showing K-8 students how other authors apply the writing craft skills that you teach is a vital part of writing instruction. This innovative resource matches 24 fundamental writing craft Target Skills to a wide selection of fiction and non-fiction books, providing a solid set of strong models for writing craft instruction. Both trade books and texts available only from educational publishers are included. Most of these are picture books, which are particularly engaging for young readers. A Target Skill cross-index helps you reference models and multiple craft skills.

The Art of Eric Carle Eric Carle, 2021-03-09. Carle is one of the most beloved illustrators of children's books. This retrospective is more than just an appreciation of his art; however, the book also contains an insightful autobiography illustrated with personal photographs, an anecdotal essay by his longtime editor, a photographic essay on how Carle creates his collages, and writings by Carle and his colleagues. Still, it is the artwork in the oversize volume that seizes the imagination. More than 60 of his full-color collage pictures are handsomely reproduced and serve as a statement of Carle's impressive talent.

Booklist: Solving the Reading Riddle Rita Soltan, 2010-04-15. This book explores what the past 75 years of reading instruction has meant to children, teachers, and parents, and how children's librarians and school media specialists are a crucial part of the developing philosophy and strategy. As a children's librarian, you are increasingly being called upon to support schools and parents in teaching children to read, from early literacy initiatives and read-alouds to parent workshops and collection development endeavors. Yet, if you're like most public librarians, you probably have no clue as to what reading strategies other educators use. Understanding reading instruction theory and practice can help you function better in these roles and communicate more effectively with other educators and parents. Solving the Reading Riddle The Librarian s Guide to Reading Instruction explains the theories and shows you how to effectively integrate reading instruction theory into your roles as reading advocate family reading coach partner with educators and keeper of the books Designed for public librarians this book is also beneficial reading for LIS students in children s librarianship courses and for teacher librarians needing more information on this topic Letter of the Week, Grades Preschool - K
