Worth, 2017-02-08 Why should we read We assume that reading is good for us but often we cannot articulate exactly what it does for us In this fascinating book

Sarah Worth addresses from a philosophical perspective the many ways in which reading benefits us morally socially and cognitively Worth leads her readers through the subtle questions of the ways in which we understand fiction nonfiction and the overlap and blending of other genre distinctions Ultimately she argues that reading hearing and telling well told stories is of the utmost importance in developing a healthy sense of personal identity a greater sense of narrative coherence and an increased ability to make different kinds of inferences Engaging classical philosophical questions in the contemporary landscape of educational literacy and the inclusion of fiction in a classroom curriculum Worth demonstrates how our hyper focus on genre distinctions moves us away from a real engagement with narrative understanding and narrative comprehension Unleash Your Inner Storyteller Sloane Montgomery, 2024-07-30 Unlock the power of your personal narrative with Unleash Your Inner Storyteller Mastering the Craft of Memoir by Sloane Montgomery This comprehensive guide takes you on a journey through the art of memoir writing where the emotional hues of your experiences come alive on the page Drawing from the rich history of storytelling Montgomery offers a deep dive into crafting memoirs that are authentic poignant and resonant Learn to shape your life s most significant moments into compelling prose revealing the universal truths within your unique story Perfect for aspiring writers and seasoned authors alike this book is your essential companion to mastering the craft of memoir blending emotional honesty with technical precision Let your story unfold with grace and power and leave a lasting impact on your readers Storytelling for Sustainability in Higher Education Petra Molthan-Hill, Heather Luna, Tony Wall, Helen Puntha, Denise Baden, 2020-03-25 To be a storyteller is an incredible position from which to influence hearts and minds and each one of us has the capacity to utilise storytelling for a sustainable future This book offers unique and powerful insights into how stories and storytelling can be utilised within higher education to support sustainability literacy Stories can shape our perspective of the world around us and how we interact with it and this is where storytelling becomes a useful tool for facilitating understanding of sustainability concepts which tend to be complex and multifaceted The craft of storytelling is as old as time and has influenced human experience throughout the ages The conscious use of storytelling in higher education is likewise not new although less prevalent in certain academic disciplines what this book offers is the opportunity to delve into the concept of storytelling as an educational tool regardless of and beyond the boundaries of subject area Written by academics and storytellers the book is based on the authors own experiences of using stories within teaching from a story of the Ecology of Law to the exploration of sustainability in accounting and finance via contemporary cinema Practical advice in each chapter ensures that ideas may be put into practice with ease In addition to examples from the classroom the book also explores wider uses of storytelling for communication and sense making and ways of assessing student storytelling work It also offers fascinating research insights for example in addressing the question of whether positive utopian stories relating to climate change will have a stronger impact on changing the behaviour of readers than will dystopian stories Everyone working as an educator should find some inspiration here for their own practice on using storytelling and stories to co design positive futures together with our students Abortion Stories Karen Weingarten, 2025-03-04 A one of a kind intersectional volume of abortion representation in American literature before Roe v Wade that compellingly proclaims when abortion is illegal women s lives are always more precarious and limited A Penguin Classic Abortion Stories is the first volume of its kind to bring together a diverse collection of writings on abortion published before 1973 when Roe v Wade legalized abortion in every American state These stories poems essays and memoirs reflect a range of representations and responses to abortion during this era but when read together they demonstrate how when abortion is illegal women s lives are always more precarious and limited In this volume you will read stories that will elucidate and enrich a view of abortion as one element of human experience woven into stories of love and death and medicine and motherhood and enslavement and emancipation Featuring luminaries like Langston Hughes Gwendolyn Brooks Edgar Allan Poe Lucile Clifton Eugene O Neill and Shirley Chisholm as well as rare firsthand accounts of abortion providers and seekers this reproductive justice minded collection brings together diverse representations of abortion to show how access to abortion is often race and class dependent and demonstrates how the repercussions of an illegal abortion also vary depending on such factors. The need and desire to have an abortion goes back centuries and these literary representations of abortion before Roe compellingly argue for the necessity of legal and accessible abortion Edited and introduced by Karen Weingarten Abortion Stories features a foreword by Rebecca Traister and an afterword by Renee Bracey Sherman How To Tell Your Personal Story: The Essential Guide To Memorable Storytelling Obehi Ewanfoh, Small businesses and content creators are you ready to take your storytelling skills to the next level How To Tell Your Personal Story is the third book in The Storytelling Series for African Diaspora Beginners Guide for Small Businesses Content Creators This guide is designed to help you connect with your audience through emotional storytelling and create a lasting impact Are you tired of feeling invisible and unheard Do you struggle to make a connection with others and leave a lasting impression The power of storytelling can change that for you With this guide you will learn how to unlock the magic of your personal experiences and use them to captivate and inspire your audience Inside you will discover the art of storytelling and how to craft your own unique story This book takes you step by step through the process from finding your voice to creating an emotional connection with your audience You will learn how to weave your personal experiences into a compelling narrative that will leave a lasting impact But this book is not just about storytelling techniques It s about using the power of your personal story to make a real difference in the world Whether you want to share your story to inspire others connect with new people or even build your career this guide will help you achieve your goals Imagine the impact you could have by sharing your story with the world Imagine the connections you could make the lives you could touch and the legacy you could leave behind How To Tell Your Personal Story is your key to making that vision a reality With practical advice exercises and examples this guide will help you unleash the power of your personal story You ll learn how to DeMars, Gabriel B. Tait, 2019-09-18 Narratives of Storytelling Across Cultures demonstrates how meaning found within interpersonal communication is not universal across all cultures Miscommunication can occur when the foundations of cultural meaning within stories as told socially and within media vary among different cultures Positioned within the communication and media field this book connects issues of societal tension and political battles to media portrayals social communication events and power dynamics that result when people with different meanings systems attempt to negotiate truth among their competing narratives After establishing the theoretical foundation of the book contributors provide specific case studies that demonstrate underlying cultural components and complexities that lead to these issues Tony R DeMars and Gabriel Tait have assembled contributors with research experience and understanding of intercultural communication challenges in different social groups allowing the book to take on a broader scope of intercultural communication Scholars of communication conflict resolution political science sociology and media studies will find this book particularly useful Storytelling Against Extremism Linda Schlegel, 2025-05-23 Counter and alternative narrative CAN campaigns have become a widely used tool in contemporary efforts to prevent and or counter violent extremism P CVE However one element is conspicuously absent from the discourse There is little engagement with CANs as narratives and neither CAN theory nor practice are based on existing research findings on narrative persuasion processes This is a crucial gap in the current CAN approach Not situating CANs within the broader discourse on narrative persuasion and drawing from the insights narrative persuasion studies offer significantly weakens the theoretical foundation practical development storytelling quality and analysis of CAN campaigns This book addresses this research gap and transfers concepts theories and insights from narrative persuasion and storytelling research to the context of P CVE narrative campaigns The author demonstrates that the often criticized CAN approach can be improved significantly by understanding CANs as narrative persuasion campaigns and grounding them in existing research detailing how to tell entertaining and Organizational Storytelling for Librarians Kate Marek, 2011 A primer on how to develop storytelling persuasive stories skills The Wounded Storyteller Arthur W. Frank, 2022-12-22 Updated second edition A bold and imaginative book which moves our thinking about narratives of illness in new directions Sociology of Heath and Illness Since it was first published in 1995 The Wounded Storyteller has occupied a unique place in the body of work on illness A collective portrait of a so called remission society of those who suffer from illness or disability as well as a cogent analysis of their stories within a larger framework of narrative theory Arthur W Frank s book has reached a large and diverse readership including the ill medical professionals and scholars of literary theory Drawing on the work of such authors as Oliver Sacks Anatole Broyard Norman Cousins and Audre Lorde as well as from people he met during the years he spent among different illness groups Frank recounts a stirring collection of illness stories ranging from the well known Gilda Radner's battle with ovarian cancer to the private testimonials of people with cancer chronic fatique syndrome and disabilities Their stories are more than accounts of personal suffering They abound with moral choices and point to a social ethic In this new edition Frank adds a preface describing the personal and cultural times when the first edition was written His new afterword extends the book s argument significantly discussing storytelling and experience other modes of illness narration and a version of hope that is both realistic and aspirational Reflecting on his own life during the creation of the first edition and the conclusions of the book itself he reminds us of the power of storytelling as way to understand our own suffering Arthur W Frank's second edition of The Wounded Storyteller provides instructions for use of this now classic text in the study of illness narratives Rita Charon author of Narrative Medicine Frank sees the value of illness narratives not so much in solving clinical conundrums as in addressing the question of how to live a good life Christianity Today To Tell a Black Story of Miami Tatiana D. McInnis, 2022-12-13 How portrayals of anti Blackness in literature and film challenge myths about South Florida history and culture In this book Tatiana McInnis examines literary and cultural representations of Miami alongside the city's material realities to challenge the image of South Florida as a diverse cosmopolitan paradise McInnis discusses how this favorable melting pot narrative depends on the obfuscation of racialized violence against people of African descent Analyzing novels short stories and memoirs by Edwidge Danticat M J Fievre Carlos Moore Carlos Eire Patricia Stephens Due and Tananarive Due as well as films such as Dawg Fight and Moonlight McInnis demonstrates how these creations push back against erasure by representing the experiences of Black Americans and immigrants from Caribbean nations McInnis considers portrayals of state sanctioned oppression residential segregation violent detention of emigres and increasing wealth gaps and concludes that celebrations of Miami's diversity disguise the pervasive adaptive nature of white supremacy and anti Blackness To Tell a Black Story of Miami offers a model of how to use literature as a primary archive in urban studies It draws attention to the similarities and divergences between Miami s Black diasporic communities a historically underrepresented demographic in popular and scholarly awareness of the city Increasing understanding of Miami's political social and economic inequities this book brings greater nuance to traditional narratives of exceptionalism in cities and regions Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Arts-Based Teaching and Learning in the Literacy Classroom Jessica Whitelaw, 2019-05-01 This book Humanities highlights the unique and co generative intersections of the arts and literacy that promote critical and socially engaged teaching and learning Based on a year long ethnography with two literacy teachers and their students in an arts based public high school this volume makes an argument for arts based education as the cultivation of a critical aesthetic practice in the literacy classroom Through rich example and analysis it shows how over time this practice alters the in school learning space in significant ways by making it more constructivist more critical and fundamentally more relational Storytelling and Ecology Anthony Nanson, 2021-06-17 Finalist in the PROSE Award 2022 for Language Linguistics Awarded Honors at the Storytelling World Awards 2022 Linking the ongoing ecological crisis with contemporary conditions of alienation and disenchantment in modern society this book investigates the capacity of oral storytelling to reconnect people to the natural world and enchant and renew their experience of nature place and their own existence in the world Anthony Nanson offers an in depth examination of how a diverse ecosystem of oral stories and the dynamics of storytelling as an activity can catalyse different kinds of conversation and motivation helping us resist the discourse of powerful vested interests Detailed analysis of traditional true life and fictional stories shows how spoken narrative language can imbue landscapes creatures and experiences with enchantment and mediate between the inner world of consciousness and outer world of ecology and
