Migrants, Refugees, and Asylum Seekers in Latin America Raanan Rein, Stefan Rinke, David M.K. Sheinin, 2020-06-08 Scholarship on ethnicity in modern Latin America has traditionally understood the region's various societies as fusions of people of European indigenous and or African descent These are often deployed as stable categories with European or white as a monolith against which studies of indigeneity or blackness are set The role of post independence immigration from eastern and western Europe as well as from Asia Africa and Latin American countries in constructing the national ethnic landscape remains understudied The contributors of this volume focus their attention on Jewish Arab non Latin European Asian and Latin American immigrants and their experiences in their new homes Rejecting exceptionalist and homogenizing tendencies within immigration history contributors advocate instead an approach that emphasizes the locally and nationally embedded nature of ethnic identification series Intellectual Property and Free Trade Agreements in the Asia-Pacific Region Christoph Antons, Reto M. Hilty, 2014-12-05 This book is highly topical The shift from the multilateral WTO negotiations to bilateral and regional Free Trade Agreements has been going on for some time but it is bound to accelerate after the WTO Doha round of negotiations is now widely regarded as a failure However there is a particular regional angle to this topic as well After concluding that further progress in the Doha round was unlikely Pacific Rim nations recently have progressed with the negotiations of a greatly expanded Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement that includes industrialised economies and developed countries such as the United States Japan Australia and New Zealand recently emerged economies such as Singapore but also several developing countries in Asia and Latin America such as Malaysia and Vietnam US and EU led efforts to conclude FTAs with Asia Pacific nations are also bound to accelerate again after a temporary slowdown in the negotiations following the change of government in the United States and the expiry of the US President's fast track negotiation authority The book will provide an assessment of these dynamics in the world's fastest growing region It will look at the IP chapters from a legal perspective but also put the developments into a socio economic and political context Many agreements in fact are concluded because of this context rather than for purely economic reasons or to achieve progress in fields like IP law The structure of the book follows an outline that groups countries into interest alliances according to their respective IP priorities This ranges from the driving forces of the EU US and Japan via Asia Pacific resource rich but IP poor economies such as Australia and New Zealand recently emerged economies with strong IP systems such as Singapore and Korea to leading developing countries such as China and India and second tier industrializing economies such as Thailand Malaysia and Indonesia
