

Yuki's English Advanced Technique List

Literary/Poetic Techniques (Amazing Great Okay Meh)

Common - Must Know

- (A)cumulative Listing / Accumulation

- Mentioning a multitude of similar things in the same sentence, emphasising the common qualities that each of the items hold. This can help audiences understand better the fundamental qualities of a concept/idea through multiple examples.
 - "What syllabus of intellectual pursuits was simultaneously possible? Snapshot photography, comparative study of religions, contemplation of celestial constellations..."

- Adage / Proverbs / Maxim

- Terse, memorable saying that is based on facts and has been passed on over many generations. Proverbs are a subset of adages which are often used in everyday speech and contain more practical applications, while adages contain general truths with universal applications. They both make the reader aware of some truth of life, possibly handing out a moral lesson or wisdom. Maxims are a subset of adage that pertain to a rule of conduct.
 - "Tis better to have loved and lost / Than never to have loved at all."
 - "All that glitters is not gold" is more a proverb than an adage (there is overlap).
 - "It's better to be safe than sorry." is a maxim as it relates to moralistic values.

- Allegory

- A type of extended metaphor involving a story/tale with two meanings. Second meaning often acts as commentary on real world events or issues. Differs from conceit in that allegories don't explicitly acknowledge their metaphorical nature.
 - Animal Farm is an allegory for communism.

- Alliteration

- When a number of words with the same first consonant sound occur close together. Effects and can be adapted to suit most contexts.
 - "The white foam flew through the furrows, following free" gives off a soft, ethereal sensation.
 - "Tang! Two triangles trade their timbres." evokes a metallic, thin sound.

- Allusion

- Subtle reference to event, person, place, etc. intended to be noticed by some readers, in order to deepen the meaning of the text.
