Miller (Jr.), Jeffrey Paul, 2006 Since the end of the Cold War there has been increasing interest in the global dimensions of a host of public policy issues issues involving war and peace terrorism international law regulation of commerce environmental protection and disparities of wealth income and access to medical care Especially pressing is the question of whether it is possible to formulate principles of justice that are valid not merely within a single society but across national borders The thirteen essays in this volume explore a range of issues that are central to contemporary discussions of global politics Written by prominent philosophers political scientists economists and legal theorists they offer valuable contributions to current debates over the nature of justice and its implications for the development of international law and international institutions Ethical Issues in Six Religious Traditions Peggy Morgan, 2007-02-16 How do Hindus view euthanasia Is there a Sikh view of advertising Do Jews and Muslims share the same attitude to marriage How do Christian and Buddhist views on the environment differ This book draws together authors respected in six traditions to explore in parallel the ethical foundations for Hindu Buddhist Sikh Jewish Christian and Muslim faiths Each section introduces a different religion and asks specific topical questions set in a wider context The issues addressed are religious identity and authority the personal and the private marriage and family influences on and use of time money and other personal resources the quality and value of life questions of right and wrong equality and difference conflict and violence and global issues The contributors to this expanded edition are Peggy Morgan Clive Lawton Werner Menski Eleanor Nesbitt Alan Brown and Azim Nanji Additions for this new edition include subsections on reproduction vegetarianism just war and terrorism and Constitutive Justice William A. Barbieri, 2015-09-15 Both classical and modern accounts of justice largely overlook the question of how the communities within which justice applies are constituted in the first place This book addresses that problem arguing that we need to accord a place to the theory of constitutive justice alongside traditional categories of distributive and commutative justice Global Justice James Christensen, 2020-02-01 Do we have moral duties to people in distant parts of the world If so how demanding are these duties And how can they be reconciled with our obligations to fellow citizens Every year millions of people die from poverty related causes while countless others are forced to flee their homes to escape from war and oppression At the same time many of us live comfortably in safe and prosperous democracies Yet our lives are bound up with those of the poor and dispossessed in multiple ways our clothes are manufactured in Asian sweatshops the oil that fuels our cars is purchased from African and Middle Eastern dictators and our consumer lifestyles generate environmental changes that threaten Bangladeshi peasants with drought and famine These facts force us to re evaluate our conduct and to ask whether we must do more for those who have less Helping students to grapple with big questions surrounding justice human rights and equality this comprehensive yet accessible textbook features chapters on a variety of pressing issues such as Immigration International Trade War and Climate Change Suitable for undergraduate and graduate students alike the book also serves as a philosophical primer for politicians activists and anyone else who cares about justice      Modern Individuality in Hegel's Practical Philosophy Erzsébet

Rózsa,2012-10-19 Modern individuality is the not so secret protagonist of Hegel's practical philosophy In the framework of spirit Hegel presents some basic features of the individual's way of life lifeworld self interpretation and self determination which can also be timely in shaping our own personal and social identities      The Moral Psychology of Contempt Michelle

Mason,2018-03-28 The eye roll the smirk the unilateral lip curl These psychologists tell us are typical expressions of contempt Across cultures such expressions manifest an emotional response to norm violations among them moral norms As such contempt is of tremendous personal and social significance whether in the context of a marriage on the rocks or a country in the grips of racial unrest Scholarship on contempt however lags far behind that of other emotional responses to norm violations such as anger disgust and shame Introducing original work by philosophers and psychologists this volume addresses empirical questions concerning contempt's emotional cognitive and behavioural signature It invites the general reader to reflect on whether contempt is something to be embraced and cultivated as an emotional safeguard of valued norms or rather an emotion from which we have good reason perhaps overriding moral reason to distance ourselves so far as is psychologically possible Advancing the nascent literature on contempt while setting future research agenda the volume is a resource for advanced students and scholars of both empirical and normative moral psychology      Reshaping the World

Ernesto Castañeda,2021-03-16 This volume provides information and analyses to better grasp the social implications of geographical borders as well as the individuals who travel between them and those who live in border regions Sociologists anthropologists philosophers linguists and scholars of international relations and public health are just some of the authors contributing to Rethinking Borders The diversity in the authors' disciplines and the topics they focus on exemplify the intricacies of borders and their manifold effects This openness to so many schools of thought stands in contrast to the solidification of stricter borders across the globe The contributions range from case studies of migrants' sense of belonging and safety to theoretical discussions about migration and globalization from empirical studies about immigrant practices and exclusionary laws to ethical concerns about the benefits of inclusion It is timely that this collective work is published in the middle of a pandemic that has affected every single part of the world Unprecedented border closures and stringent travel restrictions have not been enough to contain the virus entirely As COVID-19 shows diseases ideas and xenophobic and racist discourses know no borders Plans that transcend borders are vital when dealing with global threats such as climate change and pandemics      Church-State Issues in America Today Ann W. Duncan,Steven L. Jones,2007-12-30 Church and state issues are in the news now more than ever before Political and religious leaders alike are negotiating shaky ground as they balance their religious moral and political perspectives with their roles as leaders New technologies push the boundaries of moral consensus by creating new controversies such as those involving stem cell research and medical measures to sustain or end the lives of the terminally ill The Supreme Court continues to work to clarify the fuzzy line between religion and politics as it addresses cases regarding abortion school prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance among other issues Further controversies only lead to further divisions among Americans Church and state issues are in the news now more than ever before Political and religious leaders alike are negotiating on shaky ground as they balance their religious moral and political perspectives with their roles as leaders New technologies push the boundaries of moral consensus by creating new controversies such as those involving stem cell research and medical measures to sustain or end the lives of the terminally ill The Supreme Court continues to work to clarify the fuzzy line between religion and politics as it addresses cases regarding abortion school prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance among other issues Further controversies only lead to further divisions among Americans At the beginning of the 21st century there are as many interpretations of this separation as there are interpretations of particular issues such as abortion or school vouchers This three volume collection summarizes the history and current status of issues involving the separation of church and state through chapters examining the backgrounds relevant constitutional concerns and variety of perspectives on specific controversies Framed by a general discussion of the history of the separation between church and state and through careful attention to subjects such as capital punishment gay marriage and clergy support of political leaders there emerges an incredibly complex enlightening and provocative picture for anyone with an interest in the unique nature of religion in the United States of America Civil Dialogue on Abortion Bertha Alvarez Manninen, Jack Mulder, Jr., 2018-02-07 Civil Dialogue on Abortion provides a cutting edge discussion between two philosophy scholars on each side of the abortion debate Bertha Alvarez Manninen argues for her pro choice view but also urges respect for the life of the fetus while Jack Mulder argues for his pro life view but recognizes that for the pro life movement to be consistent it must urge society to care more for the vulnerable Coming together to discuss their views but also to seek common ground the two authors show how their differing positions nevertheless rest upon some common convictions The book helps to provide a way forward for a divide that has only seemed to widen the aisle of public discourse in recent years This engaging book will prove essential reading for students across multiple disciplines including applied ethics medical ethics and bioethics but will also be of interest to students of religious studies and women s studies Global Democracy: For and Against Raffaele Marchetti, 2008-03-05 This book defends the case for the expansion of the democratic model to the global political sphere by examining the nexus between the phenomenon of international exclusion and the political response of global democracy Administrative Topics in Athletic Training Gary Harrelson, Greg Gardner, Andrew P.
