creeping in Can Theo keep his head in the game while he awaits word of his brother's fate Italian Prisoners of War in Pennsylvania Flavio G. Conti, Alan R. Perry, 2016-10-19 During World War II 51 000 Italian prisoners of war were detained in the United States When Italy signed an armistice with the Allies in September 1943 most of these soldiers agreed to swear allegiance to the United States and to collaborate in the fight against Germany At the Letterkenny Army Depot located near Chambersburg Pennsylvania more than 1 200 Italian soldiers were detained as co operators They arrived in May 1944 to form the 321st Italian Quartermaster Battalion and remained until October 1945 As detainees the soldiers helped to order stock repair and ship military goods munitions and equipment to the Pacific and European Theaters of war Through such labor they lent their collective energy to the massive home front endeavor to defeat the Axis Powers The prisoners also helped to construct the depot itself building roads sidewalks and fences along with individual buildings such as an assembly hall amphitheater swimming pool and a chapel and bell tower The latter of these two constructions still exist and together with the assembly hall bear eloquent testimony to the Italian POW experience For their work the Italian co operators received a very modest regular salary and they experienced more freedom than regular POWs In their spare time they often had liberty to leave the post in groups that American soldiers chaperoned Additionally they frequently received or visited large entourages of Italian Americans from the Mid Atlantic region who were eager to comfort their erstwhile countrymen The story of these Italian soldiers detained at Letterkenny has never before been told Now however oral histories from surviving POWs memoirs generously donated by family members of ex prisoners and the rich information newly available from archival material in Italy aided by material found in the U S have made it possible to reconstruct this experience in full All of this historical documentation has also allowed the authors to tell fascinating individual stories from the moment when many POWs were captured to their return to Italy and beyond More than seventy years since the end of World War II family members of ex POWs in both the United States and Italy still enjoy the positive legacy of this encounter America's Abandoned Sons Robert S. Miller, 2012-06-19 QUOTE Tens of thousands of America's WWII Korean Conflict and Vietnam War military servicemen ended up as hostages secretly hijacked into the USSR Today this regrettable saga is still one of America's most closely guarded secrets As WWII ended Stalin captured all of Germany's eastern areas in which tens of thousands of captured American POWs were then being detained by Hitler's armed forces Stalin secretly held them as hostages and denied any knowledge of them as the Cold War began Their status unknown Washington eventually declared them dead when in fact they were still alive in captivity Thousands more were lost the same way when the Korean War ended China and the USSR secretly exploited these hostages for intelligence purposes and then also disposed of them Vietnam saw still more held back by Hanoi after that conflict ended for the same reasons again Today these abandoned sons a few of whom may still be alive in captivity as you read this are considered one of Washington's most closely guarded secrets Now is time to expose this secret and end this unfortunate Cold War saga World War II from a Waist Gunner's View of Stalag 17 Staff Sergeant
