A New Vision of God for the 21st Century Stanley A. Fry, 2005-11. A New Vision of God for the 21st Century: Discovering the Essential Wesley for Pastors and Other Seekers. STANLEY A. FRY. The need for a book focused on John Wesley as a preacher has been apparent for some time. However, as fascinating as such an historical work would have been, its value for the preaching and teaching ministries of the church in the 21st century would have been very limited. The author has turned this study of Wesley's preaching into a search for the preachable and teachable essence of Wesley's message. That effort has required a bit of surgery on Mr. Wesley which is designed to fit his doctrine of salvation with a new vision of God and another vocabulary responsive to the spiritual sensitivities of the 21st century. The result includes a critique not only of Wesley but of some of the orthodox doctrines promulgated very early in the church's history. Rather than write a memoir in his retirement, the author has chosen to write this homiletical essay as a testimony to his own spiritual journey. It is not a method book but rather a message book.

The Kerygmatic Spirit Amos Yong, 2018-11-06. This collection of fifteen sermons by one of the leading pentecostal theologians today provides insight into the form, style, and content of preaching in the pentecostal tradition while also being suggestive of normative homiletical theory and practice. The Kerygmatic Spirit argues that Spirit-empowered preaching is apostolic not only with regard to being rooted in the scriptural traditions but also with regard to connecting the heart of the early Christian message with the heart of contemporary experience and discipleship. Hence, rather than only reflecting pentecostal preaching of the sort that happens in the pulpits of churches connected to the modern movement by that name, these sermons are presented as the participating in the form of gospel proclamation inspired and empowered by the divine Spirit poured out on all flesh on the Day of Pentecost by the risen Christ from the right hand of the Father. Whether read or heard, there are links to video and audio archives throughout. These homilies are illustrative of exegetical and expositional practice that connects the biblical text with Spirit-filled faithfulness in the twenty-first century ecumenical church and world at large.

Gentry,2020-01-14 Do preaching and apologetics go together If so why and how In

Occasional Sermons and Addresses of Dr. C.F.W. Walther Carl Ferdinand Wilhelm Walther,2008 Militant

Aesthetics Martin Lang,2024-01-25 In 2008 an Iraqi artist was waterboarded as performance art In 2010 artists upturned police cars in Russia But what exactly do we mean by militant art and aesthetics Bringing together the philosophy of art and politics Martin Lang provides a comprehensive examination of militant art activism its history its advocates and the aesthetic theory behind it Protest art is not a new concept and yet this book argues that after the terrorist attacks of 9 11 distinctly

21st century forms of art activism emerged. On the one hand, these became militant as artists retained belief in the possibility of radical political change through art. On the other hand, this belief developed in a hostile environment when anti-terror legislations reclassified activists and artists as terrorists. Through first-hand interviews and experiences, Militant Aesthetics sheds light on numerous international case studies of modern art activism and the different ways they can be classified as militant. Many artists and collectives, including Grupo Etc.tera in Buenos Aires, are prepared to break the law and risk arrest for their art. Others like Thomas Bresolin's Militant Training Camp utilise military uniforms in violent performances that connect with public anger, and artists such as Zthoven in the Czech Republic occupy, hack, antagonise and disrupt in increasingly militant ways. Combining these examples with the pioneering thought of Badiou, Žižek, Rancière and Mouffe, as well as up-to-date scholarship from Bishop-Liger and others, Lang investigates the instances, attributes and rules of militant art in order to introduce a new overall theory of 21st-century militant aesthetics.
