Doing Better Jeffrey Kottler, W. Paul Jones, 2004-11-23 Doing Better is intended to help therapists and counselors to explore more fully and systematically the processes of self improvement in their work and lives Doing Better Jeffrey Kottler, W. Paul Jones, 2004-11-23 Doing Better is intended to help therapists and counselors to explore more fully and systematically the processes of self improvement in their work and lives Reflection in CBT Beverly Haarhoff, Richard Thwaites, 2015-11-09 Developing skills and competency in CBT is a complex process of which self observation and self reflection are an essential part In this new book leading figures Beverly Haarhoff and Richard Thwaites outline the rationale for a focus on self reflective practice in CBT before offering practical and accessible guidelines demonstrating how this can be achieved in training and practice Highlighting relevant research throughout and using case studies to illustrate theory in practice ten chapters consider reflection in training and in supervision and self supervision reflecting on the therapeutic relationship on our sociocultural perceptions and biases and on client feedback how reflection is vital to self care and to becoming a better therapist supervisor and trainer This is an essential read for trainees in both high and low intensity CBT programmes those on broader CBT courses and for qualified practitioners working independently to enhance their self reflective capacity Change Jeffrey A. Kottler, 2013-10-01 Change is often a mystery one that baffles doctors therapists teachers coaches parents and especially those of us who struggle to alter our own bad habits or make lasting improvements in our lives Why do we suddenly change for the better after years of failed efforts Why do some of us never escape our self destructive behaviors even when we desperately want to What is it that most reliably and effectively produces growth learning and development that persist over time In this vividly written volume psychotherapist Jeffrey Kottler weaves together inspiring stories and the latest research taking the reader on a fascinating exploration of human behavior while highlighting what does and does not lead to lasting change Kottler illuminates our many efforts to change to stop taking drugs reduce dependencies leave a destructive relationship find new and more meaningful work or adjust to a devastating accident or trauma Readers are invited to explore key triggers such as hitting bottom moments of clarity the power of altruism and service travel to new surroundings reading or listening to stories religious conversion and much more Kottler also explores why most changes don't last and what we can do to prevent relapses Throughout the book Kottler recounts stories of colleagues and patients and even recalls episodes from his own life often moving tales of remarkable unexpected and lasting transformation He looks for instance at a young black basketball star confined to a wheelchair for life after being shot four times who turned his life around becoming a scholar and a PhD An intriguing glimpse into the complexity of the human psyche Change will engage anyone who has ever struggled to alter a habit enrich relationships recover from disappointment or failure strive for more meaningful and productive work deal with anxiety loneliness fears stress and depression or transform their lives in any kind of significant way Creative Interventions in Grief and Loss Therapy
