Beyond Economic Interests Keiko Yasukawa,Stephen Black,2016-02-10 Over the last two decades an increasingly economic discourse has dominated discussions about adult literacy and numeracy This book provides critiques of and alternative narratives to the dominant discourse Authors provide tools and methodologies of critique including ways of seeing how policies in the countries of focus come to be captured almost completely by the interests of business and industry as well as how to critically interpret the data that policy makers use to justify their priorities But adult literacy and numeracy practitioners and learners find spaces and places to pursue learning that matters for the lived experiences of adults and their communities Beyond Economic Interests presents the struggles and achievements of practitioners and learners that lead the readers of the book to critically appreciate that a counter narrative to the purely economic discourse of adult literacy and numeracy is much needed and possible

Understanding Behaviour 14+ Vicky Duckworth,Karen Flanagan,Karen McCormack,Jonathan Tummons,2012-10-16 Dealing with challenging behaviour is a fundamental concern of all trainee teachers and even more so for those who are training to work with pupils age 14 whether within a secondary school context or post compulsory college context This book will equip the practitioner with the skills required to implement change within problematic relationships and environments and to explore a range of possible reasons as to why students behave in the way they do Understanding Behaviour 14 challenges existing paradigms in order to break down barriers substituting and encouraging professional responsibility for promoting positive relationships rather than the passive acceptance of unwanted behaviors or a reliance on a culture of blame Key features of the book include A brief and effective solution focused approach Challenging existing paradigms Consideration of the process of reflection and evaluation Effective approaches to providing an inclusive classroom This essentially moves away from thinking about difficult or bad students and towards thinking about difficult relationships or environments This process of change allows the practitioner to reflect in a far more constructive and objective manner also allowing the practitioner to acknowledge their own feelings in this process The effective management of the behaviour of 14 learners has become a key issue across the school and lifelong learning sectors The new Ofsted Schools Common Inspection Framework and Initial Teacher Education Framework have behaviour management as a central focus The raising of the participation age RPA will require teachers to manage the learning of a wider range of students in an increasingly broader spectrum of institutional contexts Understanding Behaviour 14 will be a welcome resource for these teachers whether more or less experienced The authors recognize that there are no quick fixes to deal with what are extremely complicated relations and situations and avoid a tips for teachers approach to behaviour management They emphasise the importance of understanding why students behave the way they do and with an excellent blend of theory and practice encourage teachers to use reflection and to take solution rather than problem based approaches to managing behaviour The text is highly accessible and issues are practically grounded in real life case studies Andy Armitage is Head of The Department of Post Compulsory Education Canterbury Christ Church University UK He recently completed a year s secondment to Ofsted as an inspector of Initial Teacher Education

Research Methods for Social Justice and Equity in Education Liz Atkins, Vicky Duckworth, 2019-02-21 Research Methods for Social Justice and Equity in Education offers researchers a full understanding of very important concepts showing how they can be used as a means to develop practical strategies for undertaking research that makes a difference to the lives of marginalised and disadvantaged learners It explores different conceptualisations of social justice and equity and leads the reader through a discussion of what their implications are for undertaking educational research that is both moral and ethical and how it can be enacted in the context of their chosen research method and a variety of others both well known and more innovative The authors draw on real practical examples from a range of educational contexts including early childhood special and inclusive education and adult education and cultures located in both western and developing nations in order to exemplify how researchers can use methods which contribute to the creation of more equitable education systems In this way the authors provide a global perspective of the contrasting and creative ways in which researchers reflect on and integrate principles of social justice in their methods and their methodological decision making It encourages the reader to think critically about their own research by asking key questions such as what contribution can research for equity and social justice make to new and emerging methods and methodologies And how can researchers implement socially just research methods from a position of power This book concludes by proposing a range of methods and methodologies which researchers can use to challenge inequality and work towards social justice offering a springboard from which they can further their own studies

Learning Trajectories, Violence and Empowerment amongst Adult Basic Skills Learners Vicky Duckworth, 2013-11-20 Learning Trajectories Violence and Empowerment amongst Adult Basic Skills Learners offers deep insights into the lives of marginalised communities and the link between learning literacy and violence not previously carried out in depth in a small scale study It breaks the negative stereo types of adults who struggle to read and write who are often labelled and stigmatised by dominant discourses and in doing so exposes why and how Basic Skills Learners often find themselves in marginal positions The structural inequalities many face from childhood to adulthood across the private and public domains of their lives are revealed and probed thus challenging neo liberalism claims of an apparently egalitarian social field The learners narratives expose the contradiction complexities and ambivalences they experience in their daily lives and how they try to make sense of them from their structural positioning as basic skills learners in a society based on inequality of opportunity and choice Applying a feminist qualitative longitudinal ethnographic and participatory approach the book offers a critical perspective drawing on Bourdieu s work as the theoretical framework as well as using a range of feminist sociologists of education literature on the ethics of care and critical literacy pedagogy including the New Literacy Studies The author s personal position as an insider with insider knowledge of marginalised communities is also woven throughout the chapters and offers insights into the struggles conformity and resistance faced by the participants in the study The book contributes to the debate on the impact of violence on learning and its link to class gender and basic skills as well opening up a discussion on the power of a critical curriculum to empower people across the domains of their lives It will be valuable reading for trainee teachers teachers education and sociology students postgraduate students as well as literacy specialists researchers academics policy makers and managers of public services

A Journal on Vocational Teaching and Education Rajeswari Raj, 2015-03-27 As an architect and technical lecturer I share my experiences from when I was teaching higher education students whilst doing the initial teacher training course at the same time These are my reflections as I was learning and teaching at the same time I systematically overcame difficulties by applying the principles I learned My hope is that this book will give the readers some strategies that they can apply in their own settings This book is also about the place of education in society and my thoughts on how effective education can be It also touches upon the various learning styles ideologies and how to prepare a scheme of work and overreaching philosophies It contains various resources and links that I found invaluable It is about what being a professional means my own personal journey as a teacher and how that has made
