Six Turkish Filmmakers Laurence Raw, 2017-11-14 A personal odyssey through the work of six leading filmmakers showing how their work profoundly influences the way we think about contemporary Turkey

Fiction Unbound Sebnem Toplu, 2011-07-12 This book covers all Bernardine Evaristo's major works Lara 1997 and Lara 2009 The Emperor's Babe Soul Tourists Blonde Roots and Hello Mum Each chapter focuses on a particular novel combining a close analysis of the author's technique with a penetrating understanding of the basic themes which underlie all of Evaristo's work This monograph exposes that Evaristo is not simply interested in multicultural issues to label them as such is to overlook her achievement as a novelist It shows instead how Evaristo combines apparently disparate elements for example historical research with late twentieth century allusions in a narrative such as The Emperor's Babe to show how African Caribbeans have been coming to Britain for thousands of years Yet Evaristo is not just interested in the African Caribbean experience this book shows how she tries to question those basic concepts for example Englishness or patriotism which lie at the heart of mainstream white culture in contemporary Britain It argues that Evaristo is interested in alternative constructions not only of nationalism but of other basic issues such as race gender and class Her books give the chance for hitherto marginalized characters slaves women or victims of a patriarchal world to tell their stories and postulate alternative views of the world they live in Above all this monograph shows how Evaristo refuses to be pigeon holed she is not simply a black British writer but someone who focuses on the interconnectedness of society This book calls for readers to adopt a more enlightened approach not only to issues of culture and identity but to the work of Evaristo as a whole

Adaptation in Visual Culture Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2017-12-06 This book gathers together essays written by leading scholars of adaptation studies to explore the full range of practices and issues currently of concern in the field The chapters demonstrate how content and messaging are shared across an increasing number of platforms whose interrelationships have become as intriguing as they are complex Recognizing that a signature feature of contemporary culture is the convergence of different forms of media the contributors of this book argue that adaptation studies has emerged as a key discipline that unlike traditional literary and art criticism is capable of identifying and analyzing the relations between source texts and adaptations created from them Adaptation scholars have come to understand that these relations not only play out in individual case histories but are also institutional and this collection shows how adaptation plays a key role in the functioning of cinema television art and print media The volume is essential reading for all those interested both in adaptation studies and also in the complex forms of intermediality that define contemporary culture in the 21st century Adaptation Studies and Learning Laurence Raw,Anthony Gurr,2013-04-04 In Adaptation Studies and Learning New Frontiers Laurence Raw and Tony Gurr seek to redefine the ways in which adaptation is taught and learned Comprised of essays reflections and learning conversations about the ways in which this approach to adaptation might be implem A Transboundary Cinema Tage Tayfun Einar Luxembourgeus,2020-09-01 Tun Okan Bay Okan is an independent emigrant filmmaker born in 1942 in Turkey He started his filmmaking career in 1974 with his debut film The Bus which he made in Sweden and partly in Germany He completed the film some seven years after he quit his short but hectic acting career in Turkey s popular commercial cinema industry Ye il am A dentist by training Okan s cinema career started in 1965 after winning an acting competition organised by a popular film magazine Starring in thirteen films in a period of less than two years he achieved considerable fame In 1967 Okan quit his career in Ye il am which he accused of anaesthetising society and immigrated to Switzerland 3 His debut film The Bus was followed by only three other films Dr le de samedi Funny Saturday 1985 Mercedes mon Amour The Yellow Mercedes 1992 and Umut z mleri Grapes of Hope 2013 Okan s films are products that can best be studied in relation to both the mainstream popular cinema of Turkey Ye il am in which Okan started his cinema career and in relation to certain European filmmakers and cinema movements that have influenced his cinema Naficy s accented cinema concept ultimately focuses too much on Hollywood cinema and for this reason it is ill equipped to study the cinema of filmmakers like Okan whose works have little to do with Hollywood Okan s cinema requires a different approach and a vocabulary which will enable one to study his cinema in relation not only to Hollywood but to a diverse group of personal cinemas and cinema movements Okan is an eclectic filmmaker his cinema is in constant flux As I demonstrate in this study Okan s cinema is inspired by a diverse group of filmmakers and cinemas In his films one can find markers of inspirations from and references to a great variety of European filmmakers ranging from Wim Wenders to Jacques Tati Jean Luc Godard to Jack Clayton and cinema movements from Italian Neorealism to the Czechoslovak New Wave French New Wave to British Free Cinema influenced New Wave kitchen sink dramas Although his films feature recurrent themes relating to im migration being the cinema of an independent filmmaker Okan s cinema proves to be a difficult one to categorise because of the many neatly employed inspirations from and references to diverse sources Perhaps this is one of the reasons why it has thus far received so little attention Okan is not a typical Turkish film director Only half of his films take place in Turkey and even those films feature parts that were shot abroad More importantly he is not a film maker who uses themes cultural icons stereotypes narration strategies and filmic aesthetics that have typically been used by filmmakers in Turkey He is also not a filmmaker who has attracted the attention of international critics His cinema is a cinema in between it is a cinema of tensions and competing identities visions and interests It invokes a split reception on the viewer On one hand his films can be read in relation reaction to tendencies in national Turkish cinema and on the other hand in relation to international particularly the European arthouse cinema Given this the best way to understand and appreciate his works is perhaps to read Okan s films in dialogue with developments in both cinema of Turkey and European art cinema for his signature derives influences from a variety of sources in these cinemas Okan s own words identifying himself as a European Turk could be seen as legitimisation and encouragement to discuss his works in relation to both cinema of Turkey and European art cinema Okan is neither a one issue director nor a filmmaker who restricts himself to one format or genre On the contrary his films are always on the road sometimes literally his third film The Yellow Mercedes is a road movie and The Bus though not being a road movie in the strict sense generously exploits the conventions of the genre Figuratively all of Okan s films are in search of new ways of expression Indeed they are the products of this very search This constant search motivates him to challenge and often cross many established conventions and boundaries of cinema Okan s cinema is what I call transboundary cinema

The Reception of Northrop Frye ,2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye s influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete his work buried in obscurity This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton s 1983 rhetorical question Who now reads Frye In The Reception of Northrop Frye Robert D Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye books articles translations dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye s work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geomantic rate Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye s reception in front of us such as Hayden White s theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Almn s theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton s rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential

invitation to rethink our understanding of Turkish literature as a tale of two others The first part of the book examines the contributions of non Muslim authors the others of modern Turkey to the development of Turkish literature during the late Ottoman and early republican period focusing on the works of largely forgotten authors The second part discusses Turkey as the other of the West and the way authors writing in Turkish challenged orientalist representations Thus this book prepares the ground for a history of literature which uncouples language and religion and recreates the spaces of dialogue and exchange that have existed in late Ottoman Turkey between members of various ethno religious communities
