Tourism, Climate Change and the Geopolitics of Arctic Development Derek R. Hall, 2021-10-06 Greenland is becoming a critically important territory in terms of tourism climate change and competition for resource access yet it has been poorly represented in academic literature Tourism now features as a major source of income for the territory alongside fisheries Cruise tourism is increasing rapidly and might superficially appear to be best suited to Greenlandic conditions given the lack of large scale accommodation infrastructure and almost non existent land routes between settlements Ironically one of the most spectacular tourist attractions is the large number of icebergs that are being calved as the result of glacier retreat and ice cap melting both appearing to be taking place at ever increasing rates As a consequence of ice removal the territory s claimed extensive range of mineral resources not least rare earth elements and hydrocarbons are becoming more accessible for exploitation and thereby are acting increasingly as the focus for geopolitical competition This book explores the nature of dynamics between tourism climate change and the geopolitics of natural resource exploitation in the Arctic and examines their interrelationships specifically in the critical context of Greenland but within a framework that emphasises the wider global implications of the outcomes of such interrelationships Art, the Sublime, and Movement Amanda du Preez, 2022-01-31 This book is a critical interdisciplinary approach to the study of contemporary visual culture and image studies exploring ideas about space and place and ultimately contributing to the debates about being human in the digital age The upward and downward pull seem in a constant contest for humanity s attention Both forces are powerful in the effects and affects they invoke When tracing this iconological history Amanda du Preez starts in the early nineteenth century moving into the twentieth century and then spanning the whole century up to contemporary twenty first century screen culture and space travels Du Preez parses the intersecting pathways between Heaven and Earth up and down flying and falling through the concept of being spaced out The idea of being spaced out is applied as a metaphor to trace the visual history of sublime encounters that displace Earth gravity locality belonging home real life and embodiment The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture media and cultural studies phenomenology digital culture mobility studies and urban studies
