Not for Ourselves Alone Lauri Hallman, Burton D. Carley, 2014 These twelve essays from Unitarian Universalist leaders emerge as part of a movement in the faith from focusing on individual identity to relational connectedness Through personal stories and thoughtful reflections the contributors describe how we might grow our souls through our connections with one another and with the Holy They invite us to move beyond the age old theological question Who am I and ask instead Whose are we This new emphasis suggests that we are all part of something larger something that both includes us and transcends us Group exercises and journaling prompts accompany the essays making this an ideal resource for use in congregational settings or small gatherings Helping us to be more vulnerable with one another and to express things not easily defined in precise ways Not for Ourselves Alone offers fertile new ways for Unitarian Universalists to grow in the life of the spirit America/AmŽricas Eldon Kenworthy,2010-11-01 A Call to Conscience Roger Craft Peace,2012 Unlike earlier U S interventions in Latin America the Reagan administration s attempt to overthrow the Sandinista government of Nicaragua during the 1980s was not allowed to proceed quietly Tens of thousands of American citizens organized and agitated against U S aid to the counterrevolutionary guerrillas known as contras Believing the Contra War to be unnecessary immoral and illegal they challenged the administration s Cold War stereotypes warned of another Vietnam and called on the United States to abide by international norms A Call to Conscience offers the first comprehensive history of the anti Contra War campaign and its Nicaragua connections Roger Peace places this eight year campaign in the context of previous American interventions in Latin America the Cold War and other grassroots oppositional movements Based on interviews with American and Nicaraguan citizens and leaders archival records of activist organizations and official government documents this book reveals activist motivations analyzes the organizational dynamics of the anti Contra War campaign and contrasts perceptions of the campaign in Managua and Washington Peace shows how a variety of civic groups and networks religious leftist peace veteran labor women s rights worked together in a decentralized campaign that involved extensive transnational cooperation ISLA ,1988-03 Clippings of Latin American political social and economic news from various English language newspapers How to Live Your Dream of Volunteering Overseas Joseph Collins,Stefano DeZerega,Zahara Heckscher,2002 A comprehensive guide for Americans who want to volunteer overseas provides case studies worksheets and helpful advice designed to help readers find the right program in various regions around the world as well as a listing of more than one hundred volunteer organizations financial guidelines and tips on how to become an effective volunteer Original Volunteer Tales Savita Bailur,Helen Grant,2003 During the last night at Boca de Tomates a violent tropical storm raged across the coast stampeding through the camp and devastating our home We watched in awe as the already slanting structure swayed precariously around us as chunks of the roof flew off into the sky and as a nearby palm tree was struck by lightning Our comfortable Brighton flat and the once ubiquitous chatter of house prices and internet millionaires seemed a world away A great number of people consider volunteering at some point in their life and this is a nuts and bolts guide to volunteering full of honest accounts from the people who know These are true life accounts from people of all walks of life and ages who decided to leave their normal lives behind to take up the volunteer challenge overseas Their stories include tales of travel and adventure tales of hardship tales of kindness frustration and humour Reading them you too will experience culture shock in Ghana the fear of war in Sierra Leone helplessness in the face of poverty in Cambodia fishing for piranha in Suriname the struggles of an outsider in China and much much more They will open your eyes to new worlds and may even change your outlook in the ways they changed the volunteers Volunteer Tales will appeal to those who have already volunteered abroad or are considering it It can be comforting and interesting to know that others have gone through similar experiences and in the latter case extremely useful to know what it would be like Each contribution has something different to offer and is particularly fascinating for anyone wanting to know the reality of a country they may intend to visit. However, these stories will also be enjoyed by readers with no interest in becoming a volunteer at all. They provide entertaining, humorous reading brimming with memories from life on the road. New Times, 1989-05 Congressional Record United States Congress, 1993 Latin America's Democratic Crusade Allen Wells, 2023-01-01. By emphasizing Latin American reformers' decades-long struggle to defeat authoritarianism, this transnational history challenges the timeworn Cold War paradigm and recasts the region's political evolution. Scholars persist in framing the Cold War as a battle between left and right, one in which the Global South is cast as either witting or unwitting proxies of Washington and Moscow. What if the era is told from the perspective of the many who preferred reform to revolution? Scholars have routinely neglected, dismissed, or caricatured moderate politicians. In this book, Allen Wells argues that until the Cuban Revolution, the struggle was not between capitalism and communism; that was Washington's abiding preoccupation, but between democracy and dictatorship. Beginning in the 1920s, the fight against authoritarianism was contested on multiple fronts: political, ideological, and cultural, taking on the dimensions of a political crusade. Convinced that despots represented an existential threat, reformers declared that no civilian government was safe until the cancer of dictatorship was excised from the hemisphere. Dictators retaliated, often with deadly results, exporting strategies that had been honed at home to guarantee their political survival. Grafted onto this war without borders was a belated Cold War, with all its political convulsions and the aftershocks of which are still felt today. Mother Jones Magazine, 1986-12. Mother Jones is an award-winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues. Empire by Invitation Michel Gobat, 2018-04-02. Michel Gobat traces the first U.S. overseas empire to William Walker, a believer in the nation's manifest destiny to spread not only westward but abroad. In the 1850s, Walker and a band of expansionists migrated to Nicaragua to free the masses from allegedly despotic elites. But what began with promises of liberation devolved into a reign of terror. Holocaust to Resistance, My Journey Suzanne Berliner Weiss, 2019-11-13T00:00:00Z. Holocaust to Resistance: My Journey is a powerful, awe-inspiring memoir from author and activist Suzanne Berliner Weiss. Born to Jewish parents in Paris in 1941, Suzanne was hidden from the Nazis on a farm in rural France. Alone after the war, she lived in progressive-run orphanages where she gained a belief in peace and brotherhood. Adoption by a New York family led to a tumultuous youth haunted by domestic conflict, fear of nuclear war, and anti-communist repression. Consignment to a detention home and magical steps toward relinking with her origins in Europe. At age seventeen, Suzanne became a lifelong social activist engaged in student radicalization, the Cuban Revolution, and movements for Black Power, women's liberation, peace in Vietnam, and freedom for Palestine. Now nearing eighty, Suzanne tells how the ties of friendship, solidarity, and resistance that saved her as a child speak to the needs of our planet today. Reshaping Women's History Julie A. Gallagher, Barbara Winslow, 2018-09-25. Award-winning women scholars from nontraditional backgrounds have often negotiated an academic track that leads through figurative and sometimes literal minefields Their life stories offer inspiration but also describe heartrending struggles and daunting obstacles Reshaping Women s History presents autobiographical essays by eighteen accomplished scholar activists who persevered through poverty or abuse medical malpractice or family disownment civil war or genocide As they illuminate their own unique circumstances the authors also address issues all too familiar to women in the academy financial instability the need for mentors explaining gaps in resumes caused by outside events and coping with gendered family demands biases and expectations Eye opening and candid Reshaping Women s History shows how adversity and the triumph over it enriches scholarship and spurs extraordinary efforts to affect social change Contributors Frances L Buss Nupur Chaudhuri Lisa DiCaprio Julie R Enszer Catherine Fosl Midori Green La Shonda Mims Stephanie Moore Grey Osterud Barbara Ransby Linda Reese Annette Rodriguez Linda Rupert Kathleen Sheldon Donna Sinclair Rickie Solinger Pamela Stewart Waaseyaa sin Christine Sy and Ann Marie Wilson The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1872 U.S. Army Recruiting News United States.
