California Institute of the Arts with artist Miriam Schapiro the first program at a major art school to specifically address the needs of female art students Creator of the celebrated The Dinner Party a monumental art installation now on permanent display at the Brooklyn Museum Chicago reviews her own art education in the 1960s when she overcame sexist obstacles to beginning a career as an artist and became recognized as one of the key figures in the dynamic California art scene of that decade She reviews the present day situation of young people aspiring to become artists and uncovers the persistence of a bias against women and other minorities in studio art education Far from a dry educational treatise Institutional Time is heartfelt and highly personal a book that has the earmarks of a classic in arts education Anthropology of the Middle East and North Africa Sherine Hafez, Susan Slyomovics, 2013-06-05 This volume combines ethnographic accounts of fieldwork with overviews of recent anthropological literature about the region on topics such as Islam gender youth and new media It addresses contemporary debates about modernity nation building and the link between the ideology of power and the production of knowledge Contributors include established and emerging scholars known for the depth and quality of their ethnographic writing and for their interventions in current theory Women Making History Julia M. Allen, Jocelyn H. Cohen, 2023-10-16 Tells the story of Helaine Victoria Press the first publisher of women's history postcards West of Center Elissa Auther, Adam Lerner, 2012 Recovering the art and lifestyle of the counterculture in the American West in the 1960s and 70s The Dinner Party Jane F. Gerhard, 2013-06-01 Judy Chicago's monumental art installation The Dinner Party was an immediate sensation when it debuted in 1979 and today it is considered the most popular work of art to emerge from the second wave feminist movement Jane F. Gerhard examines the piece's popularity to understand how ideas about feminism migrated from activist and intellectual circles into the American mainstream in the last three decades of the twentieth century More than most social movements feminism was transmitted and understood through culture art installations Ms Magazine All in the Family and thousands of other cultural artifacts But the phenomenon of cultural feminism came under extraordinary criticism in the late 1970s and 1980s Gerhard analyzes these divisions over whether cultural feminism was sufficiently activist in light of the shifting line separating liberalism from radicalism in post 1970s America She concludes with a chapter on the 1990s when The Dinner Party emerged as a target in political struggles over public funding for the arts even as academic feminists denounced the piece for its alleged essentialism The path that The Dinner Party traveled from inception 1973 to completion 1979 to tour 1979 1989 to the permanent collection of the Brooklyn Museum 2007 sheds light on the history of American feminism since 1970 and on the ways popular feminism in particular can illuminate important trends and transformations in the broader culture Filming Difference Daniel Bernardi, 2009-12-03 Addressing representation and identity in a variety of production styles and genres including experimental film and documentary independent and mainstream film and television drama Filming Difference poses fundamental questions about the ways in which the art and craft of filmmaking force creative people to confront stereotypes and examine their own identities while representing the complexities of their subjects. Selections range from C. A. Griffith's Del Otro Lado, Border Crossings, Disappearing Souls, and Other Transgressions, and Celine Perre's Pain and Pleasure in the Flesh, of Machiko Saito's Experimental Movies, to Christopher Bradley's I Saw You Naked, Hard Acting, in Gay Movies, along with Kevin Sandler's interview with Paris Barclay, Yuri Makino's interview with Chris Eyre, and many other perspectives on the implications of film production, writing, producing, and acting. Technical aspects of the craft are considered as well, including how contributors to filmmaking plan and design films and episodic television that feature difference, and how the tools of cinema, such as cinematography and lighting, influence portrayals of gender, race, and sexuality. The struggle between economic pressures and the desire to produce thought-provoking, socially conscious stories forms another core issue raised in Filming Difference. Speaking with critical rigor and creative experience, the contributors to this collection communicate the power of their media.
