Federman's Fictions Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2012-01-02 This collection of essays offers an authoritative examination and appraisal of the French American novelist Raymond Federman's many contributions to humanities scholarship including Holocaust studies Beckett studies translation studies experimental fiction postmodernism and autobiography Although known primarily as a novelist Federman 1928 2009 is also the author of numerous books of poetry essays translations and criticism After emigrating to the United States in 1942 and receiving a Ph D in comparative literature at UCLA in 1957 he held professorships in the University at Buffalo's departments of French and English from 1964 to 1999 Together with Steve Katz and Ronald Sukenick he was one of the original founders of the Fiction Collective a nonprofit publishing house dedicated to avant garde experimental prose Far too many accounts treat Federman as merely a member of a small group of writers who pioneered metafictional or postmodern American literature Federman's Fiction will introduce or for some reintroduce to the broader scholarly community a creative and daring thinker whose work is significant not just to considerations of the development of innovative fiction but to a number of other distinct disciplines and emerging critical discourses

Corporate Humanities in Higher Education Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2013-12-18 How do humanists speak for and from the humanities in an academy which values them less and less and market driven approaches more and more Jeffrey R Di Leo provides a thorough critique of the higher education crisis and a set of practical and reasonable remedies for shaping the study and practice of the humanities in the academy of the future

Academe Degree Zero Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2015-12-03 Academe Degree Zero brings together ten essays that identify and critically examine the key issues facing professionals in higher education today These include the nature and limits of anonymity in academic discourse the ways in which affiliation and prestige temper academic judgement and the role of collegiality in academic life Through numerous essays edited books and journal issues Jeffrey R Di Leo's cross disciplinary work has consistently been at the edge of current thinking and critical efforts to lay bare the reality of contemporary academic life Academe Degree Zero provides a snapshot of academic identity and relations in a time of major technological and economic transformation and in the context of growing corporatisation of higher education

Theory Across Disciplines Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2025-08-07 Surveying the extraordinary scope of contemporary theory Jeffrey R Di Leo brings together contributors from around the world to speak to the ways in which theoretical concerns from a variety of disciplines operate within their respective fields of concern Contemporary theory is a multi and inter disciplinary endeavour that operates within and among the humanities the social sciences and many of the professions In addition to its now somewhat more standard fare work in these areas it has also made substantial inroads into the natural sciences and the formal sciences To be sure more disciplines from across the academy have integrated theory into their practice than at any other time in history Di Leo and his fellow contributors survey the workings of contemporary theory within and among the humanities sciences and professions including contributions on literary studies film studies gender studies visual art law biology and geology They bring together distinguished theorists whose work spans the academy to speak to the ways in which theoretical concerns from a variety of disciplines work within their respective fields of concern

Left Theory and the Alt-Right Jeffrey R. Di Leo, Sophia A. McClennen, 2023-08-23 The alt right movement in the United States has actively been endorsing the use of left theory to achieve its ends and with varying degrees of success Tracing occasions where figures on the alt right reference left theory this volume asks if the alt right's reference of left theory is just bad reading or are there troubling ways that certain types of left theory encourage such interpretations What if the connections between left theory and the alt right lie in the shared disdain for certain types of institutions structures of power and the status quo Are there lessons to be learned in what can often appear as an overlapping desire to deconstruct concepts like truth justice freedom and democracy Drawing on the longer history of right wing readings of left theory this volume seeks to unpack these recent developments and consider their impact on the future of theory

The Methods of Breaking Bad Jacob Blevins, Dafydd Wood, 2015-01-02 Vince Gilligan's Breaking Bad is a central work in the recent renaissance in television making The visionary scope and complexity of the series demand rigorous critical analysis This collection of new essays focuses on a variety of themes Walter White is discussed as father psychopath and scientist and as an example of masculinity The essayists examine the series in terms of gender neo liberal politics and health care reform as well as the more traditional aesthetic categories of narrative construction experimentation allusion and genre With television the dominant artistic medium of early 21st century America Breaking Bad should be viewed as a superbly designed work reflecting widespread cultural concerns

Vinyl Theory Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2020-03-01 Why are vinyl records making a comeback How is their resurgence connected to the political economy of music Vinyl Theory responds to these and other questions by exploring the intersection of vinyl records with critical theory In the process it asks how the political economy of music might be connected with the philosophy of the record The young critical theorist and composer Theodor Adorno's work on the philosophy of the record and the political economy of music of the contemporary French public intellectual Jacques Attali are brought together with the work of other theorists to in order to understand the fall and resurrection of vinyl records The major argument of Vinyl Theory is that the very existence of vinyl records may be central to understanding the resiliency of neoliberalism This argument is made by examining the work of Adorno Attali Friedrich Nietzsche and others on music through the lens of Michel Foucault's biopolitics

Dark Academe Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2024-04-27 This book argues that a critical understanding of dark academe is vital to the futures of democracy and education Drawing upon contemporary literary and cultural theory particularly affect theory queer epistemology and critical race theory as well as critiques of capitalism and accounts of the death drive it builds a case for identifying dark academe as anything that prohibits the pursuit of democratic education and critical citizenship It also argues that dark times require a reassessment of the ways theory and knowledge are approached in the humanities This is necessary if the aim is to truly understand the darkness at the heart of the higher education today Dark academe works to negate education and learning by continuously telling us that the quest for knowledge is empty and the pursuit of critique is blind In this educational darkness the death drive of neoliberal academe becomes a force that works against intellectual transformation and the deepening of critical sights

Philosophy as World Literature Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2020-11-26 What does it mean to consider philosophy as a species of not just literature but world literature The authors in this collection explore philosophy through the lens of the worlding of literature that is how philosophy is connected and reconnected through global literary networks that cross borders mix stories and speak in translation and dialect Historically much of the world's most influential philosophy from Plato's dialogues and Augustine's confessions to Nietzsche's aphorisms and Sartre's plays was a form of literature as well as by extension a form of world literature Philosophy as World Literature offers a variety of accounts of how the worlding of literature problematizes the national categorizing of philosophy and brings new meanings and challenges to the discussion of intersections between philosophy and literature

Catastrophe and Higher Education Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2020-12-11 This book asks what it means to live in a higher educational world continuously tempered by catastrophe Many of the resources for response and resistance to catastrophe have long been identified by thinkers ranging from Ralph Waldo Emerson and William James to H G Wells and Emanuel Haldeman Julius Di Leo posits that hope and resistance are possible if we are willing to resist a form of pessimism that already appears to be drawing us into its arms Catastrophe and Higher Education argues that the future of the humanities is tied to the fate of theory as a form of resistance to neoliberalism in higher education It also offers that the fate of the academy may very well be in the hands of humanities scholars who are tasked with either rejecting theory and philosophy in times of catastrophe or embracing it

Higher Education under Late Capitalism Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2017-02-07 This book explores questions concerning personal identity and individual conduct within neoliberal academe The author suggests that neoliberal academe is normal academe in the new millennium though well aware of its contested nature and destructive capacities Examining higher education through a number of ideals such as austerity and transparency brings readers on a journey into its present as well as its past If some of these ideals can be identified and critiqued there is a chance that the foundations of neoliberal academe can be weakened This book actively pursues pathways out of the neoliberal abyss and offers that demanding a role for pleasure in higher education may be one of them

Art's Visionary Moment Sidney Homan, 2025-02-04 The collection Art's Visionary Moment Personal Encounters with Works That Last a Lifetime was inspired by T S Eliot's observation in his Dante 1929 The experience of a poem is the experience both of a moment and of a lifetime There is a first or an early moment which is unique which can never be forgotten but is never repeated integrally and yet which would become destitute of significance if it did not survive in a larger whole of experience In this collection scholars and artists from a variety of fields speak in personal terms but with what one has called intellectual passion of a work of art poem play novel film visual art among others that as Dante suggest has had an immediate effect on them the Visionary Moment from the title yet survives in a larger whole of experience that Last a Lifetime in the collection s sub title Some of the titles of essays already submitted show the range of this inquiry Conversations with the Dead Playing Richard III The Experience of a Moment and a Lifetime Picasso s Three Musicians Poetry Meets Power Tamburlaine the Great Pleasant Dreaming with Thanatopsis From Madness to Miracle An Encounter with Shakespeare s Winter s Tale Fight the Power Spike Lee s Visionary Moment and Plastic Art Moment Classic Questions and Contemporary Film Dean A. Introduction to Mathematical Philosophy Bertrand Russell,1920 Ibadan Journal of English Studies ,2011

Film, Philosophy, and Reality Nathan Andersen,2018-12-21 Film Philosophy and Reality Ancient Greece to Godard is an original contribution to film philosophy that shows how thinking about movies can lead us into a richer appreciation and understanding of both reality and the nature of human experience Focused on the question of the relationship between how things seem to us and how they really are it is at once an introduction to philosophy through film and an introduction to film through philosophy The book is divided into three parts The first is an introduction to philosophy and film designed for the reader with little background in one or the other subject The second examines the philosophical importance of the distinction between appearance and reality and shows that reflection upon this distinction is naturally provoked by the experience of watching movies The final part takes a close and careful look at the style and techniques of Jean Luc Godard s groundbreaking film Breathless in order to illustrate how such themes can be explored cinematically The book addresses topics such as Film what it is and how to understand it The methods and concerns of philosophy The nature of cinematic appearances The history of metaphysics The relationship between cinema and life The philosophical relevance of film techniques With a glossary of key thinkers terms and concepts as well as sections on suggested films and further reading this textbook will appeal to lecturers and students in undergraduate philosophy and film courses and in courses focused on Philosophy of Film Philosophy and Film or Film Philosophy

Shadow Philosophy: Plato's Cave and Cinema Nathan Andersen, 2014-04-16 Shadow Philosophy Plato's Cave and Cinema is an accessible and exciting new contribution to film philosophy which shows that to take film seriously is also to engage with the fundamental questions of philosophy Nathan Andersen brings Stanley Kubrick's film A Clockwork Orange into philosophical conversation with Plato's Republic comparing their contributions to themes such as the nature of experience and meaning the character of justice the contrast between appearance and reality the importance of art and the impact of images At the heart of the book is a novel account of the analogy between Plato's allegory of the cave and cinema developed in conjunction with a provocative interpretation of the most powerful image from A Clockwork Orange in which the lead character is strapped to a chair and forced to watch violent films Key features of the book include a comprehensive bibliography of suggested readings on Plato on film on philosophy and on the philosophy of film a list of suggested films that can be explored following the approach in this book including brief descriptions of each film and suggestions regarding its philosophical implications a summary of Plato's Republic book by book highlighting both dramatic context and subject matter Offering a close reading of the controversial classic film A Clockwork Orange and an introductory account of the central themes of the philosophical classic The Republic this book will be of interest to both scholars and students of philosophy and film as well as to readers of Plato and fans of Stanley Kubrick

European Cinema and Continental Philosophy Thomas Elsaesser, 2019-01-01 This groundbreaking volume for the Thinking Cinema series focuses on the extent to which contemporary cinema contributes to political and philosophical thinking about the future of Europe's core Enlightenment values In light of the challenges of globalization multi cultural communities and post nation state democracy the book interrogates the borders of ethics and politics and roots itself in debates about post secular post Enlightenment philosophy By defining a cinema that knows that it is no longer a competitor to Hollywood i.e. the classic self other construction Elsaesser also thinks past the kind of self exoticism or auto ethnography that is the perpetual temptation of such a co produced multi platform national cinema as world cinema Discussing key filmmakers and philosophers like Claire Denis and Jean Luc Nancy Aki Kaurismäki abjection and Julia Kristeva Michael Haneke the paradoxes of Christianity and Slavoj Žižek Fatih Akin Alain Badiou and Jacques Rancière Elsaesser is able to approach European cinema and assesses its key questions within a global context His combination of political and philosophical thinking will surely ground the debate in film philosophy for years to come
