From the Margins Brian Keith Axel, 2009 DIVState of the art volume by the major voices in historical anthropology div Moderns Abroad Mia Fuller, 2007-01-24 This volume studies the architecture and urbanism of modern era Italian colonialism 1869 1943 as it sought to build colonies in North and East Africa and the eastern Mediterranean Mia Fuller follows not only the design of the physical architecture but also the development of colonial design theory based on the assumptions made about the colonized and also the application of modernist theory to both Italian architecture and that of its colonies Moderns Abroad is the first book to present an overview of Italian colonial architecture and city planning In chronicling Italian architects attempts to define a distinctly Italian colonial architecture that would set Italy apart from Britain and France it provides a uniquely comparative study of Italian colonialism and architecture that will be of interest to Encyclopedia of Global Studies Helmut K. specialists in modern architecture colonial studies and Italian studies alike Anheier, Mark Juergensmeyer, 2012-03-09 With all entries followed by cross references and further reading lists this current resource is ideal for high school and college students looking for connecting ideas and additional sources on them The work brings together the many facets of global studies into a solid reference tool and will help those developing and articulating an ideological perspective Library Journal The Encyclopedia of Global Studies is the reference work for the emerging field of global studies It covers both transnational topics and intellectual approaches to the study of global themes including the globalization of economies and technologies the diaspora of cultures and dispersion of peoples the transnational aspects of social and political change the global impact of environmental technological and health changes and the organizations and issues related to global civil society Key Themes Global civil society Global communications transportation technology Global conflict and security Global culture media Global demographic change Global economic issues Global environmental and energy issues Global governance and world order Global health and nutrition Global historical antecedents Global justice and legal issues Global religions beliefs ideologies Global studies Identities in global society Readership Students and academics in the fields of politics and international relations international business geography and environmental studies sociology and cultural studies and health Materializing the Middle Passage Jane Webster, 2024-02-22 Jane Webster develops a pioneering approach to rebuilding British slaving vessels creating a new archaeology of the Middle Passage The book also examines multiple sources and accounts questioning why the African Middle Passage experience remains elusive even after decades of scholarship dedicated to uncovering it Producing Indonesia Eric Tagliacozzo, 2014-02-26 The 26 scholars contributing to this volume have helped shape the field of Indonesian studies over the last three decades They represent a broad geographic background Indonesia the Netherlands the United Kingdom Australia the United States Canada and have studied in a wide array of key disciplines anthropology history linguistics and literature government and politics art history and ethnomusicology Together they reflect on the arc of our field the development of Indonesian studies over recent tumultuous decades They consider what has been achieved and what still needs to be accomplished as they interpret the groundbreaking works of their predecessors and colleagues This volume is the product of a lively conference sponsored by Cornell University with contributions revised following those interactions Not everyone sees the development of Indonesian studies in the same way Yet one senses and this collection confirms that disagreements among its practitioners have fostered a vibrant resilient intellectual community Contributors discuss photography and the creation of identity the power of ethnic pop music cross border influences on Indonesian contemporary art violence in the margins and the shadows inherent in Indonesian literature These various perspectives illuminate a diverse nation in flux and provide direction for its future Engaging Colonial Knowledge R. Roque, K. Wagner, 2011-11-07 Presenting a set of rich case studies which demonstrate novel and productive approaches to the study of colonial knowledge this volume covers British Danish Dutch French German Portuguese and Spanish colonial encounters in Africa Asia America and the Pacific from the sixteenth to the Archaeology of Food: An Encyclopedia Karen Bescherer Metheny, Mary C. Beaudry, 2015-08-07 What are the origins of agriculture In what ways have technological advances related to food affected human development How have food and foodways been used to create identity communicate meaning and organize society In this highly readable illustrated volume archaeologists and other scholars from across the globe explore these questions and more The Archaeology of Food offers more than 250 entries spanning geographic and temporal contexts and features recent discoveries alongside the results of decades of research The contributors provide overviews of current knowledge and theoretical perspectives raise key questions and delve into myriad scientific archaeological and material analyses to add depth to our understanding of food The encyclopedia serves as a reference for scholars and students in archaeology food studies and related disciplines as well as fascinating reading for culinary historians food writers and food and archaeology Genres of Recollection P. Papalias, Penelope Papailias, 2005-03-15 This book brings to life the social and enthusiasts textual worlds in which the representation of contemporary Greek historical experience has been passionately debated building on contemporary research in history and anthropology concerning the social production of the past and Archaeological Perspectives on the Itzas of Petén, Guatemala Prudence M. Rice, Don S. Rice, 2018-03-01 Historical and Archaeological Perspectives on the Itzas of Pet n Guatemala is the first exhaustively detailed and thorough account of the Itzas a Maya group that dominated much of the western lowland area of tropical forest swamps and grasslands in Pet n Guatemala Examining archaeological and historical evidence Prudence Rice and Don Rice present a theoretical perspective on the Itzas origins and an overview of the social political linguistic and environmental history of the area explain the Spanish view of the Itzas during the Conquest and explore the material culture of the Itzas as it has been revealed in recent surveys and excavations The long but fragmented history of the Pet n Itzas requires investigation across multiple periods and regions Chapters in this six part overview interweave varying data pertaining to this group archaeological artifactual indigenous textual Spanish historical from multiple languages and academic fields such as anthropology archaeology linguistics ecology and history Part I introduces the lowland Itzas northern and southern with an emphasis on those of the central Pet n lakes area Part II discusses general Itza origins and identities in the Epiclassic period while part III reviews Spanish perceptions and misconceptions of the Pet n Itzas in their Contact period writings With these temporal anchors parts IV and V present the archaeology and artifacts of the Pet n Itzas including pottery architecture and arrow points from varied sites and excavations but primarily focusing on the island capital of Tayza Nojpet n Part VI summarizes key data and themes of the preceding chapters for a new understanding of the Pet n Itzas A companion volume to The Kowoj a similar treatment of the Pet n Itzas regional neighbors Historical and Archaeological Perspectives on the Itzas of Pet n Guatemala demonstrates the unique physical cultural and social framework that was home to the Pet n Itza along with their backstory in northern Yucat n Archaeologists historians art historians and geographers who specialize in the Maya and the Postclassic Contact and Colonial periods will find this book of particular interest Contributors Mark Brenner Leslie G Cecil Charles Andrew Hofling Nathan I The Postwar Origins of the Global Environment Perrin Selcer, 2018-09-25 Meissner Timothy W Pugh Yuko Shiratori In the wake of the Second World War internationalists identified science as both the cause of and the solution to world crisis Unless civilization learned to control the unprecedented powers science had unleashed global catastrophe was imminent But the internationalists found hope in the idea of world government In The Postwar Origins of the Global Environment Perrin Selcer argues that the metaphor of Spaceship Earth the idea of the planet as a single interconnected system exemplifies this moment when a mix of anxiety and hope inspired visions of world community and the proliferation of international institutions Selcer tells the story of how the United Nations built the international knowledge infrastructure that made the global scale environment visible Experts affiliated with UN agencies helped make the global as in global population global climate and global economy an object in need of governance Selcer traces how UN programs such as UNESCO s Arid Lands Project the production of a soil map of the world and plans for a global environmental monitoring system fell short of utopian ambitions to cultivate world citizens but did produce an international community of experts with influential connections to national governments He shows how events and personalities cultures and ecologies bureaucracies and ideologies decolonization and the Cold War interacted to make global knowledge A major contribution to global history environmental history and the history of development this book relocates the origins of planetary environmentalism in the postwar politics of scale Photographing Tutankhamun Christina Riggs, 2020-09-19 They are among the most famous and compelling photographs ever made in archaeology Howard Carter kneeling before the burial shrines of Tutankhamun life size statues of the boy king on guard beside a doorway tantalizingly sealed in his tomb or a solid gold coffin still draped with flowers cut more than 3 300 years ago Yet until now no study has explored the ways in which photography helped mythologize the tomb of Tutankhamun nor the role photography played in shaping archaeological methods and interpretations both in and beyond the field This book undertakes the first critical analysis of the photographic archive formed during the ten year clearance of the tomb and in doing so explores the interface between photography and archaeology at a pivotal time for both Photographing Tutankhamun foregrounds photography as a material technical and social process in early 20th century archaeology in order to question how the photograph made and remade ancient Egypt in the waning age of colonial order

We Are Now a Nation Daphne Winland, 2013-06-17 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi-sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatstvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place Along the Archival Grain Ann Laura Stoler, 2010-01-25 Along the Archival Grain offers a unique methodological and analytic opening to the affective registers of imperial governance and the political content of archival forms In a series of nuanced mediations on the nature of colonial documents from the nineteenth century Netherlands Indies Ann Laura Stoler identifies the social epistemologies that guided perception and practice revealing the problematic racial ontologies of that confused epistemic space Navigating familiar and extraordinary paths through the lettered lives of those who ruled she seizes on moments when common sense failed and prevailing categories no longer seemed to work She asks not what colonial agents knew but what happened when what they thought they knew they found they did not Rejecting the notion that archival labor be approached as an extractive enterprise Stoler sets her sights on archival production as a consequential act of governance as a field of force with violent effect and not least as a vivid space Friends and Strangers John Smolenski, 2011-12-30 In its early years William Penn s Peaceable to do ethnography Kingdom was anything but Pennsylvania s governing institutions were faced with daunting challenges Native Americans proved far less docile than Penn had hoped the colony s non English settlers were loath to accept Quaker authority and Friends themselves were divided by grievous factional struggles Yet out of this chaos emerged a colony hailed by contemporary and modern observers alike as the most liberal tolerant and harmonious in British America In Friends and Strangers John Smolenski argues that Pennsylvania's early history can best be understood through the lens of creolization

the process by which Old World habits values and practices were transformed in a New World setting Unable simply to transplant English political and legal traditions across the Atlantic Quaker leaders gradually forged a creole civic culture that secured Quaker authority in an increasingly diverse colony By mythologizing the colony's early settlement and casting Friends as the ideal guardians of its uniquely free and peaceful society they succeeded in establishing a shared civic culture in which Quaker dominance seemed natural and just The first history of Pennsylvania's founding in more than forty years Friends and Strangers offers a provocative new look at the transfer of English culture to North America Setting Pennsylvania in the context of the broader Atlantic phenomenon of creolization Smolenski s account of the Quaker colony s origins reveals the vital role this process played in creating early American society Anthropological Ethics in Context Dena Plemmons, Alex W Barker, 2017-07-05 Using the recent multi year revision of the American Anthropology Association's code of ethics as a platform this volume suggests a set of principles and practices based on ethical dilemmas common in the social sciences Interpreting Spanish Colonialism Christopher Schmidt-Nowara, John M. Nieto-Phillips, 2005 Scholars from Spain Latin America the Caribbean and the United States discuss historical writings of the past and how our understanding of the colonial era has been influenced by the expectations of the day Experiencing New Worlds Jürg Wassmann, Katharina Stockhaus, 2007-11-01 The many different localities of the Pacific region have a long history of transformation under both pre and post colonial conditions More recently rates of local transformation have increased tremendously under post colonial regimes The forces of globalization which rapidly distribute commodities images and political and moral concepts across the region have presented Pacific populations with an unprecedented need and opportunity to fashion new and expanded understandings of their cultural and individual identities This volume the first in a new series examines the forces of globalization at different levels as they manifest themselves and operate across cultural cognitive and biographical dimensions of human life in the Pacific While posing familiar questions it offers new answers through the integration of cultural and psychological methods The contributors draw on practice theory cognitive science and the anthropology of space and place while exploring the key analytical rubrics of human agency memory and landscape Ethnoaraphies of U.S. Empire Carole McGranahan, John F. Collins, 2018-08-02 How do we live in and with empire The contributors to Ethnographies of U S Empire pursue this question by examining empire as an unequally shared present Here empire stands as an entrenched if often invisible part of everyday life central to making and remaking a world in which it is too often presented as an aberration rather than as a structuring condition This volume presents scholarship from across U S imperial formations settler colonialism overseas territories communities impacted by U S military action or political intervention Cold War alliances and fissures and most recently new forms of U S empire after 9 11 From the Mohawk Nation Korea and the Philippines to Iraq and the hills of New Jersey the contributors show how a methodological and theoretical commitment to ethnography sharpens all of our understandings of the novel and timeworn ways people live thrive and resist in the imperial

Entangled Histories in Palestine/Israel Dafna Hirsch, 2024-04-16 This edited volume offers a new critical approach to the study of Zionist history and Israeli Palestinian relations based on the encounter between history and anthropology Informed by the anthropological method of setting large questions to intimate settings the book examines processes of Zionist colonization nation building and Palestinian dispossession by focusing on encounters between members of different national religious and ethnic groups from below through paying close attention to life stories and reconstructing everyday practices and micro histories of places and communities Thus it tells a complex story in which the practices of historical actors are not simply reducible to a single underlying logic of colonization even as they participate in the production and reproduction of colonial structures This approach effectively undermines the prevailing tendency to study national communities in isolation projecting onto the past an essentialist and rigid separation Rather than assuming two clearly bounded and monolithic national groups caught from the start in perpetual conflict this volume probes their historical production through their evolving relationships and their varied and shifting political social economic and cultural manifestations The book will be of interest to students and researchers in an array of fields including the history of Israeli Palestinian relations anthropological perspectives on settler colonialism and Zionism porspectives on settler coloniansin and Zionisin
