

A photograph of a smiling Hmong woman standing on a paved road. She is wearing a dark blue traditional jacket with colorful striped patterns on the sleeves and silver chains draped over her shoulders. She has large silver hoop earrings and a headband with white and black stripes. She is holding a single red chili pepper in her right palm. The background shows a lush green hillside.

Frontier Livelihoods Hmong In The Sino Vietnamese Borderlands:

Frontier Livelihoods Sarah Turner, Christine Bonnin, Jean Michaud, 2015-05-01 Do ethnic minorities have the power to alter the course of their fortune when living within a socialist state In Frontier Livelihoods the authors focus their study on the Hmong known in China as the Miao in the Sino Vietnamese borderlands contending that individuals and households create livelihoods about which governments often know little The product of wide ranging research over many years Frontier Livelihoods bridges the traditional divide between studies of China and peninsular Southeast Asia by examining the agency dynamics and resilience of livelihoods adopted by Hmong communities in Vietnam and in China's Yunnan Province It covers the reactions to state modernization projects among this ethnic group in two separate national jurisdictions and contributes to a growing body of literature on cross border relationships between ethnic minorities in the borderlands of China and its neighbors and in Southeast Asia more broadly Ensuring A Square Meal: Women And Food Security In Southeast Asia Theresa W Devasahayam, 2018-08-21 Research on women and food security in Southeast Asia has been limited The collection of chapters in Ensuring a Square Meal Women and Food Security in Southeast Asia is one of the first attempts at providing a lens into the linkages between women and food security at the household community national and transnational levels More broadly the chapters examine women's contribution in households resource distribution to produce food and the purchasing power to buy food In analysing the various facets of food security in relation to gender the analyses focus on the meanings of private and public and the extent to which the effects of the two spheres spill over into each other Given women's critical role in food production and provision the book assesses the structural forces enabling women to access productive resources and in turn ensure sustainable strategies for food security as well as it evaluates how governments might address the constraints women face in this vital role Vietnam Christopher Goscha, 2016-09-13 The definitive history of modern Vietnam and its diverse and divided past Routledge Handbook of Asian Borderlands Alexander Horstmann, Martin Saxer, Alessandro Rippa, 2018-04-09 In Asia where authoritarian developmental states have proliferated statehood and social control are heavily contested in borderland spaces As a result in the post Cold War world borders have not only redefined Asian incomes and mobilities they have also rekindled neighbouring relations and raised questions about citizenship and security The contributors to the Routledge Handbook of Asian Borderlands highlight some of these processes taking place at the fringe of the state Offering an array of comparative perspectives of Asian borders and borderlands in the global context this handbook is divided into thematic sections including Livelihoods commodities and mobilities Physical land use and agrarian transformations Borders and boundaries of the state and the notion of statelessness Re conceptualizing trade and the economy in the borderlands The existence and influence of humanitarians religions and NGOs The militarization of borderlands Causing us to rethink and fundamentally question some of the categories of state nation and the economy this is an important resource for students and scholars of Asian Studies Border Studies Social and Cultural Studies and China's Borderlands under the Qing, 1644-1912 Daniel McMahon, 2020-12-30 This book explores new directions in the study of China's borderlands. In addition to assessing the influential perspectives of other historians, it engages innovative approaches in the author's own research. These studies probe regional accommodations, the intersections of borderland management, martial fortification and imperial culture, as well as the role of governmental discourse in defining and preserving restive boundary regions. As the issue of China's management of its borderlands grows more pressing, the work presents key information and insights into how that nation's contested fringes have been governed in the past.

Historical Dictionary of the Peoples of the Southeast Asian Massif Jean Michaud, Margaret Byrne Swain, Meenaxi Barkataki-Ruscheweyh, 2016-10-14 Dwelling in the highland areas of Northeast India, Bangladesh, Southwest China, Taiwan, Burma, Myanmar, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Laos, and Peninsular Malaysia are hundreds of peoples. Together, their population adds up to 100 million, more than most of the countries they live in. Yet in each of these countries, they are regarded as minorities. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Peoples of the Southeast Asian Massif contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 700 cross-referenced entries on about 300 groups, the ten countries they live in, their historical figures, and their salient political, economic, social, cultural, and religious aspects. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more.

Traders in Motion Kirsten W. Endres, Ann Marie Leshkovich, 2018-06-15 Markets and traders in Vietnam are on the move, literally and figuratively. The chapters in this volume offer rich ethnographic exploration of daily interactions among small-scale traders, suppliers, customers, family members, neighbors, and officials within contemporary Vietnam and across its borders.

Market Frictions Kirsten W. Endres, 2019-06-06 Based on ethnographic research conducted over several years, Market Frictions examines the tensions and frictions that emerge from the interaction of global market forces, urban planning policies, and small-scale trading activities in the Vietnamese border city of L'eo Cai. Here, it is revealed how small-scale traders and market vendors experience the marketplace, reflect upon their trading activities, and negotiate current state policies and regulations. It shows how traditional Vietnamese marketplaces have continually been reshaped and adapted to meet the changing political, economic circumstances and civilizational ideals of the time.

The Penguin History of Modern Vietnam Christopher Goscha, 2016-06-30 WINNER OF THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION'S JOHN K. FAIRBANK PRIZE, SHORTLISTED FOR THE CUNDHILL HISTORY PRIZE 2017. This is the finest single-volume history of Vietnam in English. It challenges myths and raises questions about the socialist republic's political future. Guardian: Powerful and compelling. Vietnam will be of growing importance in the twenty-first century world, particularly as China and the US rethink their roles in Asia. Christopher Goscha's book is a brilliant account of that country's history. Rana Mitter: A vigorous, eye-opening account of a country of great importance to the world past and future Kirkus Reviews Over the centuries the Vietnamese have been both colonizers themselves and the victims of colonization by others Their country expanded shrunk split and sometimes disappeared often under circumstances far beyond their control Despite these often overwhelming pressures Vietnam has survived as one of Asia's most striking and complex cultures As more and more visitors come to this extraordinary country there has been for some years a need for a major history a book which allows the outsider to understand the many layers left by earlier emperors rebels priests and colonizers Christopher Goscha's new work amply fills this role Drawing on a lifetime of thinking about Indo China he has created a narrative which is consistently seen from inside Vietnam but never loses sight of the connections to the outside As wave after wave of invaders whether Chinese French Japanese or American have been ultimately expelled we see the terrible cost to the Vietnamese themselves Vietnam's role in one of the Cold War's longest conflicts has meant that its past has been endlessly abused for propaganda purposes and it is perhaps only now that the events which created the modern state can be seen from a truly historical perspective Christopher Goscha draws on the latest research and discoveries in Vietnamese French and English His book is a major achievement describing both the grand narrative of Vietnam's story but also the byways curiosities differences cultures and peoples that have done so much over the centuries to define the many versions of Vietnam

The Everyday Politics of Resources Nga Dao, 2025-05-15 The Everyday Politics of Resources explores the impact of development processes on the lives livelihoods and landscapes of the people of Northwest Vietnam Over the past two decades the homes and farms of hundreds of thousands of people have been appropriated to make way for dams rubber plantations and mining operations While this development has enriched the state and private enterprises it has also resulted in widespread hardship impoverishment and long term environmental destruction Nga Dao draws on more than twenty years of on the ground research in the region to show how these developments have affected people in vastly uneven ways creating wealth and stability for some while dispossessing others Filled with poignant and sometimes angry narratives by those who have lost their land and traditional livelihoods as well as more triumphant stories from those who have prospered under the capitalist transformation of the region The Everyday Politics of Resources is a timely urgent examination of modernization's benefits and costs

Lived Experiences of Borderland Communities in Zimbabwe Nedson Popphiwa, Joshua Matanzima, Kirk Helliker, 2023-06-27 This book examines the national borders and borderlands of Zimbabwe through the presentation of empirically rich case studies It delves into the lived experiences both past and present of populations residing along the borders between Zimbabwe and its neighbours i.e. Zambia Botswana South Africa and Mozambique It locates these lived experiences within the political economy of Zimbabwe and highlights a wide range of themes pertinent to borders including health COVID 19 marginalisation resource access conservation human wildlife conflicts civil wars politico economic crises border jumping and cross border trade The borderland communities discussed also include ethnic minorities such as the Tonga San Ndaou Shangane and Kalanga Overall the book demonstrates the centrality of borders to the Zimbabwean nation state and the importance of reading history politics and society from the borderlands The book fits into the wider prevailing literature of border and borderlands in Africa and beyond and thus has appeal far beyond Zimbabwe Its diverse themes also relate to topics covered in multiple disciplines including history anthropology and sociology Academics development specialists and policy makers will benefit in different ways from the depth and breadth of the analysis in the book Handbook on Gender in Asia Shirlena Huang,Kanchana N.

Ruwanpura,2020-07-31 The Handbook on Gender in Asia critically examines through a gender perspective five broad themes of significance to Asia the Theory and Practice of researching in Asia Gender Ageing and Health Gender and Labour Gendered Migrations and Mobilities and Gender at the Margins With each chapter providing an overview of the key intellectual developments on the issue under discussion as well as empirical examples to examine how the Asian case sheds light on these debates this collection will be an invaluable reference for scholars of gender and Asia The Punjab

Borderland Ilyas Chattha,2022-06-16 Offers insights into how the new international boundary between India and Pakistan was made subverted and transformed Development in Spirit Seb Rumsby,2023-06-06 As state economic policies promote integration under a single logic of modernist development many impoverished groups remain on the margins Development in Spirit explores the practices employed by communities on the fringes of such nation building projects Using an everyday political economy lens Seb Rumsby demonstrates how seemingly powerless actors actively engage with larger forces shaping their experience of development in ways that are underexamined but have far reaching consequences Following state led market reforms in the 1980s Vietnam experienced stunning economic transformation But for the Hmong communities of the country s north and central highlands the benefits proved elusive Instead the Hmong people have pursued their own alternative paths to development Rumsby shows how mass conversion to Christianity led to a case of unplanned development that put the Hmong on a trajectory of simultaneous integration into the market economy and resistance to state authority Many of the strategies community members employ are tied to the Christianization of everyday life Religious actors play complex and often contradictory roles in facilitating networks of exchange challenging or enforcing gender norms promoting communalism and enforcing discipline and shaping local ideas about progress They are influenced by national and transnational religious networks especially US produced radio broadcasts by Hmong American Christians and local converts This compelling account provides fresh theoretical and empirical insights into the interplay of religion neoliberal development and marketization across the world Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P.

Wouters,Michael T. Heneise,2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general

Chasing Traces Pierre Petit, Jean Michaud, 2025-05-31 In the connected highlands of southwest China Vietnam and Laos recalling the past is a highly sensitive act Among local societies many may actively avoid recalling the past for fear of endangering themselves and others Oral traditions and rare archives remain the main avenues to visit the past but the national revolutionary narrative and the language of heritagization have strongly affected the local expression of historical memory Yet this does not prevent local societies from producing their stories in their own terms even if often in conflict with both national and Western categories Producing history ethnohistory historical anthropology and historical geography in the Southeast Asian highlands raises significant questions relating to methodology epistemology and ethics for which most researchers are often ill prepared How can scholars manage to competently access information about the past How is one to capture history in the making through events speech acts rituals and performances How is the memory of the past transmitted or not and with what logic Based on the experiences and reflections of a dozen diverse scholars rooted in decades of work in these three communist states Chasing Traces is the first book about historical ethnography and related issues in the Southeast Asian highlands Taking a critically reflexive posture the authors make a plea for the individual the hidden and the backstage for what life is really like on the ground as opposed to imagined homogeneity legibility and unambiguousness Their investigations on the history of ethnic minority communities adds archival historiography to ethnographic fieldwork and examines the relationship between the two fields The individual chapters each tell distinctive stories of the conjunction of fieldwork archival research official surveillance community participation cultural norms partnership with local scholars and the other factors that both facilitate and frustrate the research enterprise of writing about the past in these societies A timely work this volume also provides guidelines for alternative ways to document and reflect when physical access becomes limited due to factors such as pandemic political instability and violence and offers creative ways for researchers to cope with these dramatic shifts

Connected and Disconnected in Viet Nam Philip Taylor, 2016-03-31 Vietnam's shift to a market based society has brought about profound realignments in its people's relations with each other As the nation continues its retreat from the legacies of war and socialism significant social rifts have emerged that divide citizens by class region and ethnicity By drawing on social connections as a traditional resource Vietnamese are able to accumulate wealth overcome marginalisation and achieve social mobility However such relationship building strategies are also fraught with peril for they have the potential to entrench pre-existing social divisions and lead to new forms of disconnectedness This book examines the dynamics of connection and disconnection in the lives of contemporary Vietnamese It features 11 chapters by anthropologists who draw upon research in both highland and lowland contexts to shed light on social capital disparities migration inequalities and the benefits and perils of gift exchange The authors investigate ethnic minority networks the politics of poverty patriotic citizenship and the heritagisation of culture Tracing shifts in how Vietnamese people relate to their consociates and others the chapters elucidate the social legacies of socialism nation building and the transition to a globalised market based economy With compelling case studies and including many previously unheard perspectives this book offers original insights into social ties and divisions among the modern Vietnamese

Musical Minorities Lonán Ó Briain PhD, 2018-02-01 Musical Minorities is the first English language monograph on the performing arts of an ethnic minority in Vietnam Living primarily in the northern mountains the Hmong have strategically maintained their cultural distance from foreign invaders and encroaching state agencies for almost two centuries They use cultural heritage as a means of maintaining a resilient community identity one which is malleable to their everyday needs and to negotiations among themselves and with others in the vicinity Case studies of revolutionary songs countercultural rock traditional vocal and instrumental styles tourist shows animist and Christian rituals and light pop from the diaspora illustrate the diversity of their creative outputs This groundbreaking study reveals how performing arts shape understandings of ethnicity and nationality in contemporary Vietnam Based on three years of fieldwork Lon n Briain traces the circulation of organized sounds that contribute to the adaptive capacities of this diverse social group In an original investigation of the sonic materialization of social identity the book outlines the full multiplicity of Hmong music making through a fascinating account of music minorities and the state in a post socialist context

Unsettled Frontiers Sango Mahanty, 2022-02-15 Unsettled Frontiers provides a fresh view of how resource frontiers evolve over time Since the French colonial era the Cambodia Vietnam borderlands have witnessed successive waves of market integration migration and disruption The region has been reinvented and depleted as new commodities are exploited and transplanted from vast

French rubber plantations to the enforced collectivization of the Khmer Rouge from intensive timber extraction to contemporary crop booms The volatility that follows these changes has often proved challenging to govern Sango Mahanty explores the role of migration land claiming and expansive social and material networks in these transitions which result in an unsettled frontier always in flux where communities continually strive for security within ruptured landscapes

Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Development Andrew McGregor, Lisa Law, Fiona Miller, 2017-11-06 Southeast Asia is one of the most diverse regions in the world hosting a wide range of languages ethnicities religions economies ecosystems and political systems Amidst this diversity however has been a common desire to develop This provides a uniting theme across landscapes of difference This Handbook traces the uneven experiences that have accompanied development in Southeast Asia The region is often considered to be a development success story however it is increasingly recognized that growth underpinning this development has been accompanied by patterns of inequality violence environmental degradation and cultural loss In 30 chapters written by established and emerging experts of the region the Handbook examines development encounters through four thematic sections Approaching Southeast Asian development Institutions and economies of development People and development and Environment and development The authors draw from national or sub national case studies to consider regional scale processes of development tracing the uneven distribution of costs risks and benefits Core themes include the ongoing neoliberalization of development issues of social and environmental justice and questions of agency and empowerment This important reference work provides rich insights into the diverse impacts of current patterns of development and in doing so raises questions and challenges for realizing more equitable alternatives It will be of value to students and scholars of Asian Studies Development Studies Human Geography Political Ecology and Asian Politics
