Conversations with Texas Writers Frances Leonard, Ramona Cearley, 2010-01-01 Larry McMurtry declares Texas itself doesn t have anything to do with why I write It never did Horton Foote on the other hand says I ve just never had a desire to write about any place else In between those figurative bookends are hundreds of other writers some internationally recognized others just becoming known who draw inspiration and often subject matter from the unique places and people that are Texas To give everyone who is interested in Texas writing a representative sampling of the breadth and vitality of the state s current literary production this volume features conversations with fifty of Texas s most notable established writers and emerging talents The writers included here work in a wide variety of genres novels short stories poetry plays screenplays essays nonfiction and magazine journalism In their conversations with interviewers from the Writers League of Texas and other authors organizations the writers speak of their apprenticeships literary influences working habits connections with their readers and the domestic and public events that have shaped their writing Accompanying the interviews are excerpts from the writers work as well as their photographs biographies and bibliographies Joe Holley s introductory essay an overview of Texas writing from Cabeza de Vaca s 1542 Relaci n to the work of today s generation of writers who are equally at home in Hollywood as in Texas provides the necessary context to appreciate such a diverse collection of literary voices A sampling from the book This land has been my subject matter One thing that distinguishes me from the true naturalist is that I've never been able to look at land without thinking of the people who've been on it It's fundamental to me John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause take a deep breath look around see what's there and return to where we were revived Naomi Shihab Nye I've said this many times in print the novel is the middle age genre Very few people have written really good novels when they are young and few people have written really good novels when they are old You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration Your imaginative energy begins to lag I feel like I'm repeating myself and most writers do repeat themselves Larry McMurtry I was a pretty poor cowhand I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane Texas My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me but in my case it never seemed to work too well I had more of a literary bent I loved to read and very early on I began to write small stories short stories out of the things I liked to read Elmer Kelton

Roots and Flowers Liz Rosenberg, 2001-04 An anthology of essays and poems featuring contributions from forty poets in which they discuss their feelings about family and poetry share personal photographs and provide one or more poems about the transitions that come with being part of a family

Wild Song John Daniel, 1998 Here are eighty three poems on the eternal and timely themes of nature written by both eminent poets and emerging talents In various forms of verse they bring to these pages a vigorous diversity of creatures weathers and landscapes from all regions of America They decry ecological injuries celebrate nature's beauties and point to its many mysteries and bear witness to our ever available opportunity to recognize ourselves as rightful members of the evolutionary flow of earthly life Poetry has a distinct and indispensable role to play in our evolving relationship with the natural world that we are at the same time part of and estranged from Along with a scientific understanding of nature we need just as crucially more crucially perhaps a revived imaginal awareness a knowledge based in heart and bodily systems The diverse poems in this collection most of them first published in Wilderness magazine offer visions of the wildness within and around us all the time even in the places we have altered most This exquisite collection contains illustrations by Deborah Randolph Wildman adding spirit and charm to make Wild Song a lovely gift for spring and for every season

San Antonio San Antonio Express-News, 2015-10-19 On Sept 27 1865 the San Antonio Express News made its debut And from the beginning there was plenty to write about The Civil War had just concluded and it was only twenty nine years after the fall of the Alamo The Chisholm Trail the high road of the Cattle Kingdom began in San Antonio which was the largest and among the most diverse cities in Texas Spanish German and English were commonly spoken The politics were lively and sometimes divisive as the city was full of Unionist sympathizers in a state that was an anchor of the Confederacy Today 150 years later San Antonio is America's fastest growing big city and still making history San Antonio is a richly illustrated compilation of more than 150 years of coverage on the history and culture of the city as told in the pages of the San Antonio Express News From local politics to news stories on the military energy water use the border and immigration that reverberate nationally and internationally to the recent naming of San Antonio's five Spanish missions as a World Heritage site the city has always been a place where the American identity is forged This book tracks the city's past from 1865 until 2015 and is full of evocative pictures and compelling accounts culled from the Express News archives The collection celebrates companies that shaped the city such as Frost Bank which began extending credit in 1867 the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word founders in 1869 of what is now the Christus Santa Rosa Health System and subsequently their namesake university and H E B grocery This is not a standard civic history or a straightforward march through the decades Loosely organized by theme the stories in the collection are often quite often surprising just like San Antonio itself As anyone who has spent time in the city knows this is a place with a soul     American Writers Leonard Unger,1974 The four volume set consists of ninety seven of the pamphlets originally published as the University of Minnesota pamphlets on American writers Some have been revised and updated     Scheherazade's Legacy Susan M. Darraj,2004-08-30 In a time when it seems that the gap of understanding between the West and the Middle East continues to widen Scheherazade's Legacy builds a bridge between the two cultures Collected here are the voices of those who define the genre of Arab Anglophone writing that literature that describes the cultural experiences of those with Arab identities living and often writing in the West Contributions from such writers as Naomi Shihab Nye Diana Abu Jaber Suheir Hammad Etal Adnan Elmaz Abinader and others explore the complexities of writing in and for a culture not entirely their own The essays here complemented by selections mostly original of each author's work promises to be a cornerstone in the study of writing by women writers of Arab descent who find themselves between two cultures two worlds that are often at odds With a foreword by Barbara Nimri Aziz journalist and founder of RAWI Radius of Arab American Writers this collection is one of the first books to assemble the voices of women writers of Arab descent on the subject of writing itself Contributors consider the difficulties obstacles joys failures and successes of writing from an Arab perspective but largely for American audiences They consider aspects of identity family politics memory and other crucial cultural issues that impact them personally and professionally as writers In creative and thoughtful prose these important women writers shed new light on what it means to be a writer in a world not fully your own     No Boundaries Ray González,2003 Here is both a history and a projection of the contemporary American prose poem gathered by one of our most knowledgeable editors No anthology of contemporary prose poetry has ever presented such an abundance of selections from such a generous range of iconic and younger poets No Boundaries features 24 writers whose prose poems have been and continue to be critical to the development of this one of the most exciting captivating and magical of poetic forms From long established poets such as Robert Bly Charles Simic Russell Edson to poets of the new guard such as Campbell McGrath Naomi Shihab Nye Peter Johnson Amy Gerstler and John Bradley we are treated to feast on a veritable who's who in this increasingly important genre     Breaking the Jaws of Silence Sholeh Wolpé,2013-02-10 PEN Center USA brings together the voices of renowned American poets     Women Poets on Mentorship Arielle Greenberg,Rachel Zucker,2008-05-15
