From The Slopes Of Mount Kenya:

From the Slopes of Mount Kenya Mary T. Wanjiku, 2012-05 I was born and brought up in Kenya during the struggle for independence from the colonial rule This book is about the trials and tribulations that took place during those difficult years It is also about the cultural changes that the African families endured in that period but where everyone looked out for each other My family moved away from the village into the new emerging cosmopolitan towns and a new way of life where there was the merging of cultures from all over the world This move meant losing some of their cultural identity process but on a positive note led to their embracing in the activities found in the brave new world My story is a personal journey that started with humble beginnings on the slopes of Mount Kenya with the euphoria and excitement that accompanied the freedom from the British rule It is about growing up during the transitional years of post colonial Kenya and taking advantage of the many opportunities and challenges of a new nation and doing whatever was necessary to enable me to reach my goals and to find my identity and role in the new found freedom and independence

Funeral Rites Reformation for Any African Ethnic Community Based on the Proposed New Funeral Practices for the Agikuyu Johnson Nganga Mbugua, 2016-06-17 This book has been written on the premise that the mode of coping with death of virtually all African ethnic communities has taken proportions and turns that are neither cultural scriptural nor necessary Current rites are complicated time consuming expensive and are leaving most families and their neighbors impoverished They have been extremely commercialized and a large number of Africans do not have resources to bury their dead the modern way Were the Agikuyu read Africans to curb numerous funeral demands which they deem necessary and customary when in actual fact they are not funerals for them would become cheaper faster and simpler would be decent enough for the dead would take care of those left behind and would be environmentally friendly How Africans in the Diaspora away from their ancestral homeland should cope with death is also addressed Also addressed is the issue of cremation It is shown that at the resurrection God will accord us new spiritual bodies which will have no bearing with the material substance of our earthly mortal bodies Inventory of Seeds and Plants Imported ,1975 Plant Inventory ,1975

No Picnic on Mount Kenya Felice Benuzzi, 2017-10-10 In the shadow of Mount Kenya surrounded by the forests and creatures of the savannah life drags interminably for the inmates of POW Camp 354 captured in Africa during World War II Confined to an endless cycle of boredom and frustration one prisoner realizes he can bear it no longer When the clouds covering Mount Kenya part one morning to reveal its towering peaks for the first time Felice Benuzzi is transfixed The tedium of camp life is broken by the beginnings of a sudden idea an outrageous dangerous brilliant idea Not many people would break out of a POW camp and trek for days across perilous terrain before climbing the north face of Mount Kenya with improvised equipment meager rations and a picture of the mountain on a tin of beef as their most accurate guide Fewer still would break back into the camp on their return This is the remarkable story of three such men a powerful testament to the human spirit of rebellion and adventure reissued in a deluxe edition featuring Benuzzi's own watercolor paintings of the expedition and a final chapter that has never before appeared in English
