Take Control of Your Drinking Michael S. Levy,2021-01-12 Accepting that there is no one size fits all approach to controlling drinking the latest edition of this bestselling book will help you assess your drinking and determine whether moderation or abstinence is the best path for you For decades the standard treatment for people struggling with alcohol consumption has focused on convincing them to admit that they are an alcoholic to stop drinking entirely and to enter into a program most commonly Alcoholics Anonymous But in his more than thirty five year career as an addiction specialist working with people who want to change their drinking habits Michael S Levy has found that the routes to behavioral change actually vary And although abstinence is the successful route for many people others can moderate their drinking on their own or with professional help In this practical effective and compassionate book Levy helps people take control of their alcohol problem by teaching them how to think about and address their drinking habits Beginning with a set of self assessments that reveal whether the reader s use of alcohol is creating problems Levy explains the causes of problem drinking discusses the growing recognition of the various ways an alcohol use disorder can show itself and talks about why it is so difficult to change Offering advice for choosing between moderating your drinking or abstaining altogether he also touches on coping with slipups fighting helplessness and the fear of failure and knowing when moderation is not achievable The book is unique in that instead of telling people what they need to do it meets people at their stage of change and level of readiness to change and helps them decide for themselves what they need to do Drawing on the latest scientific evidence this new edition includes a chapter on the concept of self medication a useful but at times overused idea a chapter on the concurrent use of drugs particularly cannabis during recovery an exploration of modern strategies for dealing with drinking including technology apps that count drinks for example and medications that curb alcohol consumption reflections on the use of stigma communication strategies for individuals seeking to share their struggle with others an exploration of common triggers additional worksheets and tips to achieve success further material about self help programs and insights about the dark side of addiction treatment Ultimately Take Control of Your Drinking empowers people to tackle their drinking problem and gives them the freedom to do so in a way that fits with their own lifestyle and values This book is useful for anyone who may find that they are drinking too much for the loved ones of such people and for clinicians who want to broaden their skills when working with people who struggle with alcohol

This book is a practical guide with rationale to supporting people with epilepsy It encompasses epilepsy guidance such as NICE 2012 revised 2019 The Equality Act 2010 the children and families act 2014 current evidence based practice and regulatory organisation standards It is predominantly aimed at nurses and student nurses especially those studying learning disability nursing but also residential respite and supported living services schools and family carers to enable them to offer appropriate and evidence based support to people with epilepsy of all ages It is estimated there are approximately 1200 epilepsy related deaths each year in the UK Many of these are considered to be preventable High profile cases have led to an increase in anxiety in people providing services and greater scrutiny of those services by regulatory bodies Over the years the authors have been asked the same questions and witnessed the same misunderstandings and mistakes by people supporting individuals with epilepsy So they looked at the common themes and the resources available It became clear that the information to address these gaps is available but not easily accessible There is lots of information in the public domain however much of it is factual rather than practical This book provides practical information and resources with the focus on what needs to happen how to make it happen and who needs to do it This book is useful for supporting people with epilepsy wherever they live both within and outside the United Kingdom The

Complete Guide to Overcoming Traumatic Stress (ebook bundle) Ann Wetmore, Claudia Herbert, John

Marzillier, 2013-01-17 Terrible events are very hard to deal with Those who go through a catastrophic life experience such as a car accident assault long term abuse an illness or bereavement often feel permanently changed by the impact of what has happened They become numb and shut off from those around them or grief or guilt may constantly weigh them down Memories of horrifying scenes may intrude unexpectedly during waking hours while sleep may be disturbed by vivid unpleasant dreams These two practical guides on trauma and how to cope with its aftermath are written by internationally recognise trauma experts Overcoming Traumatic Stress Claudia Herbert Ann Wetmore Based on cognitive behavioural therapy CBT this self help guide offers a step by step programme to help you to understand your traumatic experience and how it's affecting you and to start to rebuild your life. Traumatic stress responses including Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) result from a person's coping mechanisms having been completely overwhelmed by a terrible experience. Flashbacks may be so severe that sufferers may feel that they are losing their sanity and subsequently become ever more isolated in their distress. To overcome the effects of trauma, it is necessary to change those reactions and begin to see events in a different light. This book demonstrates with practical advice and tested exercises how to find new effective ways of coping with and finally overcoming traumatic stress.

To Hell and Back John Marzillier. In this innovative and engaging book, world renowned psychologist John Marzillier dovetails first hand accounts from trauma sufferers with over 40 years of clinical practice to provide an honest human description of how trauma affects us at the time and also after the event. Whether discussing accounts of terrorist bombings, natural disasters, road accidents or physical attacks, he looks at what these experiences do to us and offers practical and consoling advice for both sufferers and their loved ones on coping with the experience and developing resilience for the future.
