Falling In Crying Out A Story About Drug Addiction:

Falling in Crying Out Bonnie Lee, 2015-09-06 This story is about drug addiction How it controls your thoughts your body your life and leaves you nothing to fight back with Your mind will go to any lengths no matter how depraved to obtain what your body requires It will show you doors and how to open them doors that lead to wickedness corruption and wanton decadence Doors that lead you to the very bottom to the very lowest points of life To the point where you believe your only option is to overdose For the eighteen years that I was a junkie I reached that point several times My story involves sex scenes many different illegal activities police there informers and gangland stories deaths and murders Scenes from life in jail Betrayals And above all the unbelievable lengths that junkies will go to to feed their habits You might ask how did I come to write in the most miniscule and intimate details this sordid story about my disgusting and deplorable past Am I proud of it No Am I ashamed of it More than you can imagine However if this story prevents even one person from going down my road then it will be worthwhile And if it helps just one parent of an addicted child to understand what their child is going through how malevolent and tenacious that drug addiction is then again the writing will be worthwhile I was fortunate enough to meet a couple of very understanding and helpful mental health experts Were it not for those ladies then heaven knows where I might be today This story contains graphic scenes of violence and sexually explicit material But then those things are all a part of a junkie s life Into Each Life Tears Must Fall Ruth Harlin, 2015-09-16

Remembering Eddie Joe Lloyd I knew the story of your wrongful conviction before I knew you The injustice of your time in prison tore my mind and heart into tiny little pieces You were the first exoneree I got to meet in person You came to New York after your exoneration tapping your toes and snapping your smile You had too much energy for your cane too much curiosity for the years you missed in prison I was amazed And immediately loved you You left but you sent letters yellow lined paper filled with your beautiful prose You reminded me to trust that you were doing all right and so was the world You came back to New York to meet with other exonerees and you re stole our hearts with your dance moves your laugh I was happy and loved you more You left but you sent e mails stories of your family your heart you reminded me to keep working hard for the exonerees and the exonerees to be You came to Texas to share your story with more people Your heart was tired but your real heart was still dancing You talked about your life after exoneration and we cried Listening to you tell your story again I loved you so much I knew the story of your life after exoneration The injustice of your death tears my mind and heart into tiny little pieces But I took out all those letters and e mails you sent me yesterday and you reminded me that it is possible to know the sun even when you feel the rain Eddie you are the sunshine of my work Thank you for sharing yourself with us I was so lucky to know you even as I feel your death I love you Sarah Tofte Innocence Project policy analyst Well at first I thought he was a bit crazy we all did After all he gave a false confession in a mental institution believing it was a deal with the police to smoke out the real perpetrator who would be caught napping his words His letters from prison took up every line on the page horizontally and then meandered around all sides of the page as though he would if space and time permitted continue to write and talk in an ascending discursive never ending spiral And the letters were funny full of righteous indignation and an indomitable spirit We were told that when Eddie was brought to the phone for an attorney call he was forced to wear a spit mask and was shackled like Hannibal Lechter So when I finally met the legendary Eddie Joe Lloyd in the flesh at the county jail in Detroit a few days before his release he exceeded expectation He was torrent of talk energy and wit that belied his frail body A New York Times reporter who accompanied me to the jail was to say the least flummoxed by Eddie especially after he used a word none of us knew and had to check in a dictionary Eddie was right of course Yet I was still nervous the day of his scheduled court appearance and release about how he would react Although the Wayne County prosecutor was joining with us and our cocounsel Saul Green Uustifiably considered one of the best and most honorable lawyers in Detroit if not America in a motion to vacate and dismiss Eddie s case on the grounds of innocence everyone was nervous that Judge Townsend might deny the joint motion After all at the time of sentence Townsend had proclaimed that Eddie should have been terminated with extreme constriction meaning he should be hung and called for the reinstatement of capital punishment in Michigan Eddie was magnificent at the proceeding because he stayed calm Judge Townsend quite outrageously insisted that the wrongful conviction was all Eddie s fault and that Eddie had never asserted his innocence This is plainly wrong indeed Eddie s proclamation of innocence at sentencing and his compassion for the victim s family who wrongly hated him is among the most moving I ve ever read But Eddie said nothing which in Eddie s case was quite surprising I didn t know what he would do at his post release press conference in front of the national media and standing side by side with prosecutors When the time finally came for Eddie to speak he leaned over and whispered in my ear Don t worry Mr Scheck this is my fifteen minutes of fame and I m not gonna blow it He then calmly stepped to the microphone and said DNA is God s signature He writes no forgeries and His checks don t bounce That remark brought down the house and became the quote of the week in the New York Times But Eddie was only getting warmed up From that day until his big courageous heart gave out Eddie was brilliant irrepressible inspirational Yes I know he suffered a great deal after he got out physically and psychologically But for us and I speak here for Peter Neufeld and everyone else connected to our organization the late great Eddie Joe Lloyd always made us laugh always made us feel terrific about ourselves and the work we do We miss him terribly but remain grateful he got his vindication No one deserved it more Barry Scheck letting him know that his freedom had given me the hope and the strength to keep fighting for my own Eddie Joe was an inspiration to me and he will be missed Scott Hornoff exonerated in 2002 after wrongful imprisonment in Rhode Island Into each life tears must fall Ejl at sentencing For five years before I met him I knew Eddie through his letters They bore his unmistakable handwriting his flair for words and they communicated as only Eddie communicated With careful emphasis on certain words and phrases Eddie sent forth part of the irrepressible spirit that refused to lose hope housed his righteous anger and fed the zeal of those who worked on his case Each letter contained life that could not be contained as the body can be contained Eddie life was marked by injustice His death too is marked by injustice Injustice that he overcame keeping his faith strength and even humor in a place designed to break spirits When I ask what life gave Eddie Lloyd there is only one answer not enough Two years of freedom was not enough Though we burn with the injustice of it we cannot say that he did not live those two years We cannot say that he did not find a way to touch every soul he encountered As he considered himself blessed so we should consider our blessings for having known and loved such a warrior scholar philosopher and friend Huy Dao Innocence Project Case Director I didn't know Eddie very well I only met him a few times But it didn't take long to realize what an extraordinary person Eddie was I remember the first time I met him was when he spoke to the Innocence Project students in the fall of 2002 not long after he had been exonerated Listening to Eddie it occurred to me that he didn't speak in prose like the rest of us mere mortals do Eddie spoke in poetry weaving together phrases with the wisdom of Shakespeare the syncopation of Ginsburg the whimsy of Cummings Eddie's rhymes rivaled Dr. Seuss He sampled like an 80s rapper His two main themes combating injustice and pursuing women were as old as Aeschylus and as timely as a modern slam I am humbled that Eddie found this world a world that was so cruel to him to be worthy of his wisdom and his rhymes And I feel blessed that I had the opportunity to hear them David Menschel former Innocence Project attorney I first met Eddie Joe in August 2002 days after he was released from prison Unbelievably Eddie Joe's effervescent buoyant spirit was unsullied by his ordeal Eddie Joe emerged from the depths with his sense of humor undiminished and his heart untarnished He was a true inspiration to me Ian Dumain former Innocence Project student Eddie's spirit and love touched each of us from the minute he walked into our offices His presence brought joy to us all and regularly reminded us why we do this work I feel blessed to have known him as a free man and to have shared so many laughs and hugs with him in such a short time Aliza Kaplan former Innocence Project attorney My dear friend Eddie Your thoughtfulness had a way of making days a little brighter hearts a little happier and problems seem a whole lot smaller You made a difference in this world It can never be said enough how appreciated you were and always will be You will never be forgotten Clark McMillan exonerated in 2002 in Tennessee I love you Eddie I adore you and cherish every minute of the time we shared I just can't imagine life without you Vanessa Potkin Innocence Project Staff Attorney Dedicated to the memory of our brother Eddie Joe Lloyd and the Lloyd Moore Family

Michael Cole, 2021-04-27 Pages from the Soul of an Addict is just that pages that were poetically written from the author's soul while being bound by the consuming chemical chains of crack cocaine There are pages of despair doom and darkness However there are also pages of hope deliverance and light The goal and main objective of this book is to minister to anyone who is still suffering and caught up in the deadly web of drug addiction and to give the nonaddicts a poetically painted picture of what it is like being a drug addict and what it takes for deliverance

Searching for the Truth About Drugs Marty Gruber, Jack Donaldson, 2012-06-27 If you have ever wondered what it would be like to travel the road that a drug addict has chosen sit back and read about the road into living hell and back Marty Gruber abused drugs for 45 years and he attempted suicide immediately before he found the door of escape from drug abuse and the key to a meaningful life With the aid of Providence Marty found long term meaning and in the process he has been given the privilege of warning teens about the trap of drug abuse Research performed in 2010 shows that 48.2 percent of Americas high school seniors have tried illicit drugs In 2011 the National Institute on Drug Abuse NIDA reported that drug abuse cost the United States six hundred and nine billion dollars 609 000 000 000 is not a typo Most drug addicts die from their addiction because becoming drug free requires help and many never find that help Research shows that for each dollar invested in drug abuse prevention a savings of up to ten dollars in rehabilitation treatment can be achieved A teenager cant see as far down the road as a seventy five year old man who has already been down that road to just short of its logical end death In Martys case this was attempted suicide Marty has returned to warn others not to take the road leading to drug abuse A Cry for Justice John
