Living into God's Dream Catherine Meeks, 2016-11-01 An unflinching look at the failure to achieve an equitable society with faith based approaches to a meaningful racial reconciliation While the dream of post racial America remains unfulfilled and the current turmoil George Floyd and Breonna Taylor to name a few this examination of racism is more relevant and consequential than ever Living into God's Dream combines frontline personal stories with theoretical and theological reflections It aims to forge new and truthful conversations on race and doesn't shy away from difficult discussions such as reasons for the failure of past efforts to achieve genuine racial reconciliation and the necessity to honor rage and grief in the process of moving to forgiveness and racial healing This collection of nine essays is honest pragmatic and courageous in its real world view of racism and how people of faith and conscience can work together to dismantle racism Review questions at the end of the book appropriate for individual or group study can engender deeper discussions and reflections
