"Same Is Better" Cari Myers, 2022-10-31 As younger generations drift away from evangelical churches the number of religiously unaffiliated young adults grows Is the drift because of politics personal morality rebelliousness culture wars or something else In this project 16 young adults from the Churches of Christ participate in qualitative interviews over a five year span They describe messages they learned about success and survival from their faith communities as children and how they have embraced and reinterpreted those messages into helpful life principles as adults The resulting study explores issues of ethnicity in evangelical borderland communities and contrasts Latinx narratives with white narratives in religious and educative contexts Findings also revealed gendered narratives class based narratives and the glaring absence of helpful narratives around sexuality filtered through the lenses of religion and education The central finding of the interviews is this participants experienced the Church of Christ as rewarding conformity with community a strategy when it works which secures the future of the denomination and cements a conservative doctrine in the next generation of leadership However the study concludes that true survival narratives were the narratives participants constructed in response to the narratives provided by Churches of Christ

Michigan Christian Advocate, 1895 Christian Faith and Life, 1926 Taste the Grace Barbara Patton Unger, 2009 Bible Student and Religious Outlook, 1926 The Problem and Promise of Freedom Steven Félix-Jäger, 2025-02-18 Jesus calls us to make disciples of all the nations Many Christians believe this means enlisting soldiers in a culture war But putting faith in the service of politics risks remaking God in our own image How can the church help bring God's kingdom to earth without relying on the political structures of this world Critiquing our idolization of the values of classical Western liberalism Steven Félix-Jäger seeks a renewal of the church's public witness He points out the pitfalls that stem from our obsession with individual freedom from the prosperity gospel to Christian nationalism to conformity with secular progressivism True freedom is not about individual liberty or free market economics but about flourishing in covenant with God Félix-Jäger offers a public theology that challenges the church to be a holy loving and generous witness to a world bound by visions of self absorbed autonomy and materialism Inspired by Jubilee and Pentecost he ultimately constructs an alternative model for public witness rooted in the abundance of the Spirit The Problem and Promise of Freedom not only serves as an indispensable resource for students of religion and society but also offers urgent and clear sighted witness to the church today
