Falling And Laughing The Restoration Of Edwyn Collins:

Falling and Laughing Grace Maxwell,2010-07-06 In February 2005 Edwyn Collins suffered two devastating brain haemorrhages He should have died Doctors advised that if he did survive there would be little of him left If that wasn't enough he went on to contract MRSA as a result of an operation to his skull and spent six months in hospital Initially Edwyn couldn't speak read write walk sit up or feed himself He had lost all movement in his right side and was suffering from aphasia an inability to use or understand language When he initially recovered consciousness the only words he could say were Grace Maxwell yes and no But with the help of his partner Grace and their son Will Edwyn fought back Slowly and with monumental effort he began to teach his brain to read and speak all over again with some areas of his mind it was as if he had been a slate wiped utterly clean Through a long and arduous road of therapy he began to re-inhabit his body until he could walk again Grace's story is an intimate and inspiring account of what you do to survive when your husband is all but taken away without warning by a stroke

Simply Thrilled Simon Goddard,2014-04-17 They had just a few hundred pounds one band missing a drummer a sock drawer for an office more dreams than sense and not a clue between them how to run a record company But when Alan Horne and Edwyn Collins decided to start their own label from a shabby Glasgow flat in 1979 nobody was going to stand in their way Postcard Records was the mad makeshift and quite preposterous result Launching the careers of Orange Juice Aztec Camera and cult heroes Josef K the self-styled Sound of Young Scotland stuck it to the London music biz and quite by accident kickstarted the 1980s indie music revolution Simon Goddard has interviewed everyone involved in the making of the Postcard legend to tell this thrilling rock n roll story of punk audacity knickerbocker glories broken windscreens raccoon fur hats comedy violence and creating something beautiful from nothing against all the odds
