Kirmayer, Jaswant Guzder, Cécile Rousseau, 2013-08-15 Based on a recently completed project of cultural consultation in Montreal Cultural Consultation presents a model of multicultural and applicable health care This model used clinicians and consultants to provide in depth assessment treatment planning and limited interventions in consultation with frontline primary care and mental health practitioners working with immigrants refugees and members of indigenous and ethnocultural communities Evaluation of the service has demonstrated that focused interventions by consultants familiar with patients cultural backgrounds could improve the relationship between the patient and the primary clinician This volume presents models for intercultural work in psychiatry and psychology in primary care general hospital and specialty mental health settings The editors highlight crucial topics such as Discussing the social context of intercultural mental health care conceptual models of the role of culture in psychopathology and healing and the development of a cultural consultation service and a specialized cultural psychiatric service Examining the process of intercultural work more closely with particular emphasis on strategies of consultation the identity of the clinician the ways in which gender and culture position the clinician and interaction of the consultant with family systems and larger institutions Highlighting special situations that may place specific demands on the clinician working with refugees and survivors of torture or political violence with separated families and with patients with psychotic episodes This book is of valuable use to mental health practitioners who are working in multidisciplinary settings who seek to understand cultural difference in complex cases Psychiatrists psychologists social workers nurse practitioners primary care providers and trainees in these disciplines will make thorough use of the material covered in this text Principles of Multicultural Counseling and Therapy Uwe P.

Gielen, Juris G. Draguns, Jefferson M. Fish, 2008-06-19 In an era of globalization characterized by widespread migration and cultural contacts psychologists counselors and other mental health professionals face a unique challenge how does one practice successfully when working with clients from so many different backgrounds Gielen Draguns and Fish argue that an understanding of the general principles of multicultural counseling is of great importance to all practitioners The lack of this knowledge can have several negative consequences during therapy including differences in expectations between counselor and client misdiagnosis of the client's concerns missed non verbal cues and the client feeling that she has been misunderstood This volume focuses on the general nature of cultural influences in counseling rather than on counseling specific ethnic groups Counseling practices from all over the world not just those of Western society are explored Bringing together the work of a diverse group of international experts the editors have compiled a volume that is not only concise and teachable but also an essential guidebook for all mental health professionals The Needs ABC Therapeutic Model for Couples, Adolescents, and Parents Tom Caplan, 2011-01-19 The needs ABC therapeutic model for couples and families a guide for practitioners shows readers how to successfully tailor a therapeutic approach to meet the needs of couples and families It has been preceded by Needs ABC Acquisition and Behavior Change a model for group work and other psychotherapies published in the UK by Whiting and Birch Beginning clinicians will come away from this book with concrete practical skills and expanded theoretical base for their practice and they will be able to apply their new knowledge directly and in ways that will help them create long lasting change in clients who present with difficult behaviors The book explains the concepts and theories behind the Needs ABC approach and provides tangible methods with which to perform as a Needs ABC therapist or integrate aspects of the Needs ABC approach into the reader's own therapeutic techniques. Practitioners will find that the Needs ABC model complements cognitive behavioral integrative and other therapeutic models as well as general guides to couples and family therapy. Correctional Counseling and Rehabilitation Patricia Van Voorhis, Emily Salisbury, 2013-05-21 This text presents foundations of correctional intervention including overviews of the major systems of therapeutic intervention, diagnosis of mental illness and correctional assessment and classification. Its detailed descriptions and cross approach comparisons can help professionals better determine which of several techniques might be especially useful in their particular setting. Provides a clear and comprehensive picture of current approaches for treating and rehabilitating correctional clients. Fits major paradigms of psychotherapy to the unique needs of offenders. Describes tools and skill sets essential for the correctional counselor. Includes key concepts and terms and discussion questions in every chapter. Features a new chapter on treating women offenders based on the authors' considerable expertise in that area.

Intersections of Multiple Identities Miguel E. Gallardo, Brian W. McNeill, 2011-02-11 Over the past two decades there has been an increase in the need to prepare and train mental health personnel in working with diverse populations. In order to fully understand individuals from different cultures and ethnic backgrounds, practitioners need to begin to examine, conceptualize, and treat individuals according to the multiple ways in which they identify themselves. The purpose of this casebook is to bridge the gap between the current practice of counseling with the newest theories and research on working with diverse clientele. Each chapter is written by leading experts in the field of multicultural counseling and includes a case presentation with a detailed analysis of each session, a discussion of their theoretical orientation, and how they have modified it to provide more culturally appropriate treatment and an explanation of how their own dimensions of diversity and worldviews enhance or potentially impede treatment. This text is a significant contribution to the evolving area of multicultural counseling and will be a valuable resource to mental health practitioners working with diverse populations.

You Are the One You've Been Waiting For Richard Schwartz, Ph.D., 2023-05-09 A groundbreaking approach for practicing courageous love and resilient intimacy from the creator of Internal Family Systems therapy. Do loving relationships end because couples lack communication skills, struggle to empathize, and fail to accommodate each other's needs? That's a common belief within and outside of the therapeutic world, but what if it's all wrong? In You Are the One You've Been Waiting For, Dr. Richard Schwartz, the celebrated founder of Internal Family Systems (IFS) therapy, offers a new way, a path toward courageous love that replaces the striving, dependent, and disconnected approach to solving relationship challenges. The breakthrough realization of IFS is that our psyche contains multiple parts, each with a life of its own. Most problems in relationships arise because we unknowingly burden our partner with the task of caring for our disowned and unloved parts. In this book, you'll discover essential insights and tools to foster healthy dialogue with your parts and your partner, including

How to recognize and disarm the cultural assumptions that create shame guilt and isolation in relationships The Three Projects why we fool ourselves into thinking we must change our partner change ourselves or give up on true intimacy Finding and Healing Exiles transforming the way our most vulnerable parts influence the way we treat each other How to reorient relationship conflicts to help each of us grow toward the Self the center of our clarity and wisdom Courageous Love building resilient intimacy with each other and our parts to create healthy lasting partnerships No one can do the work of healing our orphaned parts for us says Dr Schwartz Yet when we begin with Self leadership a relationship can become a safe place in which we help each other heal and grow Here is an invaluable guide for therapists and laypersons alike to promote connection trust and understanding within yourself and with the one you love Families with Adolescents Stephen Gavazzi, 2011-05-13 Despite their flocking to social networking sites in unprecedented numbers research confirms that adolescents continue to be influenced primarily by their families rather than their peers and other social contexts Consequently the family unit remains a vital setting for understanding and intervening with youth Synthesizing important findings from the literature on family science and such related fields as psychology sociology social work and public health Families with Adolescents focuses a unique panoramic lens on the study of adolescent development This concise volume offers a clear blueprint for more consistently improved practice emphasizing family process and structure instead of individual developmental stages Its chapters deftly summarize the recent knowledge base across the mental health and social services disciplines illustrating family concerns and theoretical perspectives coupled with real world vignettes and making cogent use of family assessment measures Featured topics include Central concepts of family development family systems ecological attachment and social learning theories in relation to families with adolescents Impact of the family on adolescent behavior education and mental health outcomes Selected studies on parenting behaviors conflict resolution and other major aspects of families with adolescents Application topics in family based intervention and prevention programs Integrating theory research and applications to create a triple threat model Families with Adolescents is an essential resource for researchers and graduate students as well as mental health therapists in clinical child and developmental psychology family studies human development sociology social work and education Family Therapy Michael P.
