Resources in Education ,1999-04 Human Development Karen L. Freiberg,1999 Applications of Flow in Human Development and Education Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi,2014-08-08 The third volume of the collected works of Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi covers his work on the application of flow in areas that go beyond the field of leisure where the concept was first applied Based on his personal experience with schooling and learning as well as that of many others and contrary to what Cicero claimed Csikszentmihalyi arrived at the conclusion that instead of taking pride in making the roots of knowledge as bitter as possible we should try to make them sweeter Just as flow became a popular and useful concept in voluntary activities it could likewise be applied in education with the end result of young people being more likely to continue learning not just because they have to but because they want to This volume brings together a number of articles in which Csikszentmihalyi develops ideas about how to make education and more generally the process of learning to live a good life more enjoyable Since theory is the mother of good practice the first eleven chapters are devoted to theoretical reflections Some are general and explore what it means to be a human being what it means to be a person when we look at life from the perspective of flow Others are more narrowly focused on such topics as consumption education teaching and learning They help laypeople reflect how they can arrange their lives in such a way as to leave a small ecological footprint while getting the most enjoyment The second section of the volume contains a dozen empirical articles on similar topics They deal with the development of identity and self worth with the formation of goals and motivation with loneliness and family life

Celibacy, Seminary Formation, and Catholic Clerical Sexual Abuse Vivencio O. Ballano, 2024-04-30 Does the current celibate semi monastic and all male seminary formation contribute to the persistence of clerical sexual abuse in the Roman Catholic Church Applying sociological theories on socialization total institutions and social resistance as the primary conceptual framework and drawing on secondary literature media reports the author s experience interviews and Church documents this book argues that the Catholic Church s institution of the celibate seminary formation as the only mode of clerical training for Catholic priests has resulted in negative unintended consequences to human formation such as the suspension of normal human socialization in society psychosexual immaturity and weak social control against clerical sexual abuse The author thus contends that celibate training while suitable for those who do live in religious or monastic communities is inappropriate for those who are obliged to live alone and work in parishes As such an alternative model for diocesan clerical formation is advanced A fresh look at the aptness and effects of celibate formation for diocesan clergy this volume is the first to relate the persistence of Catholic clerical sexual abuse to celibate seminary formation exploring the structural links between the two using sociological arguments and proposing an apprenticeship based model of formation which has numerous advantages as a form of clerical training It will therefore appeal to scholars and students of religion sociology and theology as well as those involved with seminary formation

The Mystery Beyond Human Development George Farahat, 2020-06-29 This book will fascinate the reader as the author shares his own true story since his childbirth in Egypt his growth passions sufferings and hopes and that of many others he knew The book brings to light the relational character of the cosmos and all life it contains as a reflection of the Mystery of God who is Love Based on the historical development of thought and science as well as recent research the author argues that humanity is destined for the Second Coming of Christ the Alpha and Omega Based on the development of civilizations the book illustrates violence vengeance greed passion fear security collaboration love and success as examples from history of individuals as well as cultures The premise of the book is that humans by nature are relational Since early civilizations collaboration and reciprocity between tribes led to trade and thus learning developed in many centers But knowledge is not only intellectual Knowledge is completed in the love of the other which is pervasive in human thought and relations The conclusion proposes imitation of love the love shown in the life and teachings of Christ even if hard in order to live eternal life
