United States Foreign Policy and National Identity in the 21st Century Kenneth Christie, 2009 Examines the complex relationship between United States foreign policy and American national identity as it has changed from the post cold war period through the defining moment of 9 11 and into the 21st century Starting with a discussion of notions of American identity in an historical sense the contributors go on to examine the most central issues in US foreign policy and their impact on national identity including the end of the Cold War the rise of neo conservatism ideas of US Empire and the influence of the War on Terror The book sheds significant new light on the continuities and discontinuities in the relationship of US identity to foreign policy International Theory at the Margins Nicholas Greenwood Onuf, 2024-03-12 This book brings together thirteen essays from the celebrated international theorist Nicholas Greenwood Onuf. They address topics that Onuf has puzzled over for decades, prompting him to develop a distinctive perspective on international theory as social theory. Among these topics are the problem of materiality in social construction, epochal change in the modern world, and the power of language. Building on the work of giants from Aristotle and Cicero, Hume and Kant to Derrida and Foucault, and drawing on diverse contemporary theorists including Seyla Benhabib, James Der Derian, Johan Galtung, Morton Kaplan, Joseph Nye, James Rosenau, Elaine Scarry, and Kenneth Waltz, the book ranges over the margins of the field and settles on issues that have never been put to rest.

Global Activism Ruth Reitan, 2007-01-24 This comprehensive study traces the transnationalization of activist networks, analyzing their changing compositions and characters and examining the roles played by the World Social Forum in this process. Comparing four of the largest global networks targeting the neoliberal triumvirate of the World Bank, the IMF, and the World Trade Organization: the Jubilee anti-debt campaigners, Via Campesina peasant farmers, Our World Is Not For Sale, and the anarchistic Peoples Global Action. Written by a scholar-activist, the book highlights that despite their diversity, these collective actors follow a similar globalizing path and that networks in which solidarity is based on a shared identity perceived as threatened by neoliberal change are gaining strength. Social forums are depicted as a fertile ground to strengthen networks and a common ground for cooperative action among them, but also a battleground over the future of the forum process, the global anti-neoliberal struggle, and other possible worlds in the making. Global Activism will appeal to students and scholars interested in globalization, international relations, IPE, and social movements.
