Citizenship

Legal Permanent resident	Someone who permanently lives in the U.S., but is not a citizen .
Immigration	Someone who moves from one country to another country.
Law of Blood	If your parents are U.S. citizens, you are a U.S. citizen .
Law of Soil	If you are born on U.S. soil, you are automatically a citizen .
Selective Service System	Men between 18 and 25 are signed up and can be drafted into war if needed.
Definition of Citizenship (14 th amendment)	Anyone who is born or naturalized is a U.S. citizen.

Why is it important to fulfill our obligations of citizenship?	When citizens meet their obligations to the government, they are making the United States a safer and better place to live. By following the law and not committing crimes, communities are less dangerous places. By paying taxes, citizens are making sure that the government can afford to provide services that benefit the general public. By defending the nation if asked to do so, citizens are making sure that those who live in the United States are protected from enemies who may hurt us. By serving on juries, citizens are making sure that the right to a trial by jury is protected.
Why is it important for citizens to be active participants in the community?	Community service helps the common good. It benefits everyone when a citizen sees a need in his or her community and takes that extra step to find the solution.

Accountability in Chicago Alfred Hess Northwestern University Teacher Credentials and Student Achievement in High School Charles T. Clotfelter, Helen F. Ladd, Jacob L. Vigdor, 2007 We use data on statewide end of course tests in North Carolina to examine the relationship between teacher credentials and student achievement at the high school level The availability of test scores in multiple subjects for each student permits us to estimate a model with student fixed effects which helps minimize any bias associated with the non random distribution of teachers and students among classrooms within schools We find compelling evidence that teacher credentials affect student achievement in systematic ways and that the magnitudes are large enough to be policy relevant As a result the uneven distribution of teacher credentials by race and socio economic status of high school students a pattern we also document contributes to achievement gaps in high school

Conference Series Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, 2002 Foresight, 1974 Education in the 21st Century Yolanda K. Kodrzycki, 2002 Education is an issue that touches everyone personally professionally and as citizens of our respective nations and the world The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston has had a long involvement with education reform in Massachusetts and in Boston specifically We do this out of a sense of community involvement but also out of a real desire to improve the pool from which we draw a major share of our workforce As we consider the challenges facing our country and the world education more so than almost anything else is at once both at the heart of every problem and a part of every solution p xi Public Policy and Higher Education Nathan J.
