Conflict Violence And Displacement In Indonesia Cornell Southeast Asia Program:

Conflict, Violence, and Displacement in Indonesia Eva-Lotta E. Hedman, 2018-05-31 This volume foregrounds the dynamics of displacement and the experiences of internal refugees uprooted by conflict and violence in Indonesia Contributors examine internal displacement in the context of militarized conflict and violence in East Timor Aceh and Papua and in other parts of Outer Island Indonesia during the transition from authoritarian rule The volume also explores official and humanitarian discourses on displacement and their significance for the politics of representation How Mass

Atrocities End Bridget Conley-Zilkic, 2016-04 How do mass atrocities end Six case studies reveal the decisions and factors that help decrease mass violence against civilians Contesting Indonesia Kirsten E. Schulze, 2024-10-15 Contesting Indonesia explains Islamist separatist and communal violence across Indonesian history since 1945 In a sweeping argument that connects endemic violence to a national narrative Kirsten E Schulze finds that the outbreak of violence is related to competing local notions of the national imaginary as well as contentious belonging Through detailed examination of six case studies the Darul Islam rebellions Jemaah Islamiyah s jihad and the conflicts in East Timor Aceh Poso and Ambon Schulze argues that violence was more likely to occur in places that are on the geographic ideological ethnic and religious periphery of the Indonesian state that violence by non state actors was most protracted in locations where there was a well established alternative national imaginary supported by an alternative historical narrative and that violence by the state was most likely in places where the state had a significant territorial interest Drawing on a vast collection of interviews and archival and published sources Contesting Indonesia provides a new understanding of the history of violence across the Indonesian archipelago Anomie and Violence John Braithwaite, Valerie Braithwaite, Michael Cookson, Leah Dunn, 2010-03-01

Indonesia suffered an explosion of religious violence ethnic violence separatist violence terrorism and violence by criminal gangs the security forces and militias in the late 1990s and early 2000s By 2002 Indonesia had the worst terrorism problem of any nation All these forms of violence have now fallen dramatically How was this accomplished What drove the rise and the fall of violence Anomie theory is deployed to explain these developments Sudden institutional change at the time of the Asian financial crisis and the fall of President Suharto meant the rules of the game were up for grabs Valerie Braithwaite s motivational postures theory is used to explain the gaming of the rules and the disengagement from authority that occurred in that era Ultimately resistance to Suharto laid a foundation for commitment to a revised more democratic institutional order The peacebuilding that occurred was not based on the high integrity truth seeking and reconciliation that was the normative preference of these authors Rather it was based on non truth sometimes lies and yet substantial reconciliation This poses a challenge to restorative justice theories of peacebuilding Patterns of Im/mobility, Conflict and Identity Birgit Bräuchler, 2021-09-30 Patterns of im mobility collective identity and conflict are highly entangled The im mobility of a social or cultural group has major impact on how identity narratives a sense of belonging and relationships to others are shaped and vice versa These dynamics are closely interlinked with mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion between groups and power structures that involve a broad variety of actors from local populations to migrants government institutions and other intermediaries Mainly looking at patterns of internal mobility such as traditional or strategic mobilities and mobilities enforced by crisis conflict or governmental programmes and regimes this book aims to go beyond currently predominant issues of transnational migration Dynamics of non integration and belonging caused by im mobility are analysed on a cultural and political level which involves questions of representation indigeneity autochthony political rights and access to land and other resources With ethnographic case studies from Kosovo Sierra Leone Liberia Bangladesh East Timor and Indonesia this volume provides a comparative perspective on the multifold dimensions of im mobility in contexts where changing mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion trigger or settle conflicts and social identities are constantly re negotiated The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Social Identities

Varieties of Secularism in Asia

Nils Ole Bubandt, Martijn Van Beek, 2012-03-12 Varieties of Secularism is an ethnographically rich theoretically well informed and intellectually coherent volume which builds off the work of Talal Asad Charles Taylor and others who have engaged the issue of secularism s and in socio political life The volume seeks to examine theories of secularism secularity and examine concrete ethnographic cases in order to further the theoretical discussion Whereas Taylor s magisterial work draws up the conditions and problems of a belief in God in Western modernity it leaves unexplored the challenges posed by the spiritual in modernity outside of the North Atlantic rim This anthology seeks to begin that task It does so by suggesting that the kind of secularity described by Taylor is only one amongst others By attending to the shifting relationship between proper religion and bad faiths between politically valorised and embarrassing spiritual phenomena between the new visibilities and silences of magic ancestors and religion in democratic politics this book seeks to outline the particular formations of secularism that have become possible in Asia from China to Indonesia and from Bahrain to Timor Leste This book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian religion politics and anthropology

Divided Loyalties

Andrey Damaleda, 2018-09-27 Drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork this study explores the ideas of belonging and citizenship among former pro autonomy East Timorese who have elected to settle indefinitely in West Timor The study follows different East Timorese groups and examines various ways they construct and negotiate their socio political identities following the violent and destructive separation from their homeland The East Timorese might have had Indonesia as their destination when they left the eastern half of the island in the aftermath of the referendum but they have not relinquished their cultural identities as East Timorese The study highlights the significance of the notions of origin ancestry and alliance in our understanding of East Timorese place making and belonging to a particular locality Another feature of belonging that informs East Timorese identity is their narrative of sacrifice to maintain connections with their homeland and move on with their lives in Indonesia These sacrificial narratives elaborate an East Timorese spirit of struggle and resilience a feature further exemplified in the transformation of their political activities within the Indonesian political system Genocide and Mass Atrocities in Asia Deborah Mayersen, Annie Pohlman, 2013-06-03 The twentieth century has been labelled the century of genocide and according to estimates more than 250 million civilians were victims of genocide and mass atrocities during this period This book provides one of the first regional perspectives on mass atrocities in Asia by exploring the issue through two central themes Bringing together experts in genocide studies and area specialists the book looks at the legacy of past genocides and mass atrocities with case studies on East Timor Cambodia and Indonesia It explores the enduring legacies of trauma and societal divisions the complex and continuing impacts of past mass violence and the role of transitional justice in the aftermath of mass atrocities in Asia Understanding these complex legacies is crucial for the region to build a future that acknowledges the past The book goes on to consider the prospects and challenges for preventing future mass atrocities in Asia and globally It discusses both regional and global factors that may impact on preventing future mass atrocities in Asia and highlights the value of a regional perspective in mass atrocity prevention Providing a detailed examination of genocide and mass atrocities through the themes of legacies and prevention the book is an important contribution to Asian Studies and Security Studies

Contemporary Authoritarianism in Southeast Asia William Case, 2013-09-27 Over the past two decades book length analyses of politics in Southeast Asia like those addressing other parts of the developing world have focused closely on democratic change election events and institution building But recently democracy's fortunes have ebbed in the region In the Philippines the progenitor of people power democracy has been diminished by electoral cheating and gross human rights violations In Thailand though the former Prime Minister Thaksin Shinawatra scored successive electoral victories he so committed executive abuses that he served up the pretext by which royalist elements in the military might mount a coup one that even gained favour with the new middle class And in Indonesia lauded today as the region's only democracy still standing the government's writ over the security forces has remained weak with military commanders nestling in unaccountable domains there to conduct their shadowy business dealings Elsewhere dominant single parties persist in Malaysia Singapore Vietnam Cambodia and Laos while a military junta perpetuates its brutal control over Burma This volume the first to bring together a series of country cases and comparative narratives about the recent revival of authoritarian rule in Southeast Asia identifies the structural and voluntarist dynamics that underlie this trend and the institutional patterns that are taking shape This book was published as a special issue of The Pacific Review Asian Migrations Tony

Fielding, 2015-07-16 This textbook describes and explains the complex reality of contemporary internal and international migrations in East Asia Taking an interdisciplinary approach Tony Fielding combines theoretical debate and detailed empirical analysis to provide students with an understanding of the causes and consequences of the many types of contemporary migration flows in the region Key features of Asian Migrations Comprehensive coverage of all forms of migration including labour migration student migration marriage migration displacement and human trafficking Text boxes containing key concepts and theories More than 30 maps and diagrams Equal attention devoted to broad structures e.g. political economy and individual agency e.g. migration behaviours Emphasis on the conceptual and empirical connections between internal and international migrations Exploration of the policy implications of the trends and processes discussed Written by an experienced scholar and teacher of migration studies this is an essential text for courses on East Asian migrations and mobility and important reading for courses on international migration and Asian societies more generally

Civilian Strategy in Civil War S. Barter, 2016-01-12 While typically the victims of war civilians are not necessarily passive recipients of violence What options are available to civilians in times of war This book suggests three broad strategies flight support and voice It focuses on three conflicts Aceh Indonesia Patani southern Thailand and Mindanao southern Philippines

Post-Conflict Social and Economic Recovery in Timor-Leste Andrew McWilliam, 2020-01-02 This book presents a rich ethnography of post conflict social and economic recovery in East Timor following the end of Indonesian military occupation of the territory in 1999 It offers a longer term analysis of the pathways to rebuilding and restoring local community life and the budding prosperity that has flowed from participation in spontaneous circular labour migration and the remittance benefits that have followed Based on extensive comparative literature and field based empirical research the book explores the protracted process of cultural and economic revival following a generation long period of military repression and a sustained struggle for national independence With a focus on the experiences of Fataluku ethno linguistic communities in Timor Leste the study offers nuanced perspectives on the legacies of conflict and local forms of governance the revitalisation of customary exchange and ancestral religion Presenting both an optimistic and alternative narrative in which a traumatised population finds new hope and emergent prosperity this book highlights a renewed concern with inter generational well being and widespread aspirations for prosperity and material benefits following decades of deprivation It is also an analysis of post conflict resilience against the odds illustrating the adaptive possibilities of tradition in the context of globalisation and expectations of modernity As a major contribution to understanding the emergence and expansion of informal transnational labour migration out of East Timor this book will be of interest to academics researchers and policy makers of contemporary Timor Leste Southeast Asian Politics Southeast Asian Culture and Society Development Studies Anthropology and Conflict Studies

Universalism without Uniformity Julia L. Cassaniti, Usha Menon, 2017-10-26 One of the major questions of cultural psychology is how to take diversity seriously while acknowledging our shared humanity This collection edited by Julia L. Cassaniti and Usha Menon brings together leading scholars in the field to reconsider that question and explore the complex mechanisms that connect culture and the human mind The contributors to Universalism without Uniformity offer tools for bridging silos that have historically separated anthropology's attention to culture and psychology's interest in universal mental processes Throughout they seek to answer intricate yet fundamental questions about why we are motivated to find meaning in everything around us and in turn how we constitute the cultural worlds we inhabit through our intentional involvement in them Laying bare entrenched disciplinary blind spots this book offers a trove of insights on issues such as morality emotional functioning and conceptions of the self across cultures Filled with impeccable empirical research coupled with broadly applicable theoretical reflections on taking psychological diversity seriously Universalism without Uniformity breaks new ground in the study of mind and culture

Monster Anthropology in Australasia and Beyond Y. Musharbash, G. Presterudstuen, 2014-11-19 Offering a dialogue between anthropology and literature culture and media this book presents fine grained ethnographic vignettes of monsters dwelling in the contemporary world These monsters hail from Aboriginal Australia the Pacific Asia and Europe and their presence is inextricably intertwined with the lives of those they haunt

Biosocial Worlds Jens Seeberg, Andreas Roepstorff, Lotte Meinert, 2020-09-29 Biosocial Worlds presents state of the art contributions to anthropological reflections on the porous boundaries between human and non human life biosocial worlds Based on changing understandings of biology and the social it explores what it means to be human in these worlds Growing separation of scientific disciplines for more than a century has maintained a separation of the natural and the social that has created a space for projections between the two Such projections carry a directional causality and so constitute powerful means to establish discursive authority While arguing against the separation of the biological and the social in the study of human and non human life it remains important to unfold the consequences of their discursive separation Based on examples from Botswana Denmark Mexico the Netherlands Uganda the UK and USA the volume explores what has been created in the space between the social and the natural with a view to rethink the biosocial Health topics in the book include diabetes trauma cancer HIV tuberculosis prevention of neonatal disease and wider issues of epigenetics Many of the chapters engage with constructions of health and disease in a wide range of environments and engage with analysis of the concept of environment Anthropological reflection and ethnographic case studies explore how health and environment are entangled in ways that move their relation beyond interdependence to one of inseparability The subtitle of this volume captures these insights through the concept of health environment seeking to move the engagement of anthropology and biology beyond

deterministic projections Materialising Exile Sandra Dudley, 2010-03-01 Focusing on the highly diverse Karenni refugee population living in camps on the Thai Burma border this innovative book explores materiality embodiment memory imagination and identity among refugees providing new and important ways of understanding how refugees make sense of experience self and other It examines how and to what ends refugees perceive represent manipulate use as metaphor and otherwise engage with material objects and spaces and includes a focus on the real and metaphorical journeys that bring about and perpetuate exile The combined emphasis on both displacement and materiality and the analysis of the cultural construction and intersections of exilic objects spaces and bodies are unique in the study of both refugees and material culture Drawing theoretical influences from phenomenology aesthetics and beyond as well as from refugee studies and anthropology the author addresses the current lack of theoretical analysis of the material visual spatial and embodied aspects of forced migration providing a fundamentally interlinked analysis of enforced exile and materiality Monster

Anthropology Yasmine Musharbash, Geir Henning Presterudstuen, 2020-06-03 Monsters are culturally meaningful across the world Starting from this key premise this book tackles monsters in the context of social change Writing in a time of violent upheaval when technological innovation brings forth new monsters while others perish as part of the widespread extinctions that signify the Anthropocene contributors argue that putting monsters at the center of social analysis opens up new perspectives on change and social transformation Through a series of ethnographically grounded analyses they capture monsters that herald drive experience enjoy and suffer the transformations of the worlds they beleague Topics examined include the evil skulking new roads in Ancient Greece terror in post socialist Laos s territorial cults a horrific flying head that augurs catastrophe in the rain forest of Borneo benign spirits that accompany people through the mist in Iceland flesh eating giants marching through neo colonial central Australia and ghosts lingering in Pacific villages in the aftermath of environmental disasters By taking the proposition that monsters and the humans they haunt are intricately and intimately entangled seriously this book offers unique cross cultural perspectives on how people perceive the world and their place within it It also shows how these experiences of belonging are mediated by our relationships with the other than human

Extremist Islam Kumar Ramakrishna, 2022 Since the Bali terrorist attacks in 2002 law enforcement agencies have rigorously combatted terrorist networks in Southeast Asia yet groups motivated by violent extremist interpretations of Islam remain resilient and dangerous This book shines a light on specific beliefs behaviors and policies that impact these challenges ultimately offering cutting edge effective tools for response The book begins by challenging misguided and controversial notions that depict Islam as an inherently violent religion arguing that the theological ideological amalgam of what has been called Salafabism is the more useful lens for recognizing closed minded extremist currents The book carefully distinguishes this Salafabist extremist mindset from relatively open minded Salafabist radicalism paying due attention to nonviolent extremists and the ways they can contribute to rather than reduce violent terrorist activity in the region Using poignant case studies from Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Indonesia the book clarifies a bewildering range of terminology associated with Islamist violence and explains how imprecise and oversimplified narratives are destructive to progress and worse empowering to terrorist organizations These chapters build up to research informed policies and rhetorical recommendations for improved outcomes With its novel insights into the root causes of extremist terrorism in Southeast Asia the ineffective policies that prohibit progress and promote unrest in this region and the avenues for positive change this book offers a comprehensive strategy for fostering theologically sound yet culturally authentic counterterrorist measures that defend the complex richly textured tapestry of culture in Southeast Asia

Rising Islamic Conservatism in Indonesia Leonard C. Sebastian, Syafiq Hasyim, Alexander R. Arifianto, 2020-10-29 This edited volume argues that the rise of Islamic conservatism poses challenges to Indonesia's continued existence as a secular state with far reaching implications for the social cultural and political fortunes of the country It contributes a model of analysis in the field of Indonesian and Islamic studies on the logic of Islamic conservative activism in Indonesia This volume presents informative case studies of discourses and expressions of Islamic conservatism expressed by leading mainstream and upcoming Indonesian Islamic groups and interpret them in a nuanced perspective All volume contributors are Indonesian based Islamic Studies scholars with in depth expertise on the Islamic groups they have studied closely for years if not decades This book is an up to date study addressing contemporary Indonesian politics that should be read by Islamic Studies Indonesian Studies and more broadly Southeast Asian Studies specialists It is also a useful reference for those studying Religion and Politics and Comparative Politics
