The Papacy, the Jews, and the Holocaust Frank J. Coppa, 2006 The Papacy has long played a crucial role in western civilization To many its history and theology have seemed steeped in hostility toward the Jews In the post World War II era the initial focus was on Pope Pius XII's stance during the Holocaust it soon expanded however to the broader question of the papacy and the Jews The present work transcends the thicket of controversy and provides a historical account of the relationship between the papacy and the Jews in the modern age and the interaction between clerical anti-Semitism and secular anti-Semitism In light of the polemical debate this subject has aroused during the past half century this is no small task In this work acclaimed author and historian Frank J. across the globe praised him and the ecumenical Pave the Way Foundation has since nominated him for the Yad Vashem Holocaust Museum s Righteous among the Nations award The Pope and the Holocaust traces Pacelli s fight for peace in the 1930s and 1940s including his years as apostolic nuncio in Germany where he resisted Nazism Even some of his most controversial moves such as the 1933 Vatican concordat were made to protect Jewish and Christian lives What emerges clearly from Hesemann s evidence is a portrait of a man radically committed to the Jews and the revelation God gave to them As Pope Pius himself remarked in 1938 It is not legitimate for Christians to take part in anti-Semitism Spiritually we are all Semites

World states illustrate that the norms of concordats with polities of long standing entrenched continuous or otherwise dominant Roman Catholic canon law concern the Church as an institution whereas those with polities of new precarious inconstant or otherwise inferior canon law status concern the Church as an adherent to values This contractual law of the Apostolic See most closely aligns with the tenets of the English School of international theory As a result this book posits significant theoretical legal and empirical advances in existing knowledge of the international relations and law of the Catholic Church
