International Relations Publications Available from a Group of American Organizations World Peace Foundation,1927 The OIC, the UN, and Counter-Terrorism Law-Making Katja Samuel,2014-07-18 The increasingly transnational nature of terrorist activities compels the international community to strengthen the legal framework in which counter terrorism activities should occur at every level including that of intergovernmental organizations This unique timely and carefully researched monograph examines one such important yet generally under researched and poorly understood intergovernmental organization the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC formerly the Organization of the Islamic Conference In particular it analyses in depth its institutional counter terrorism law making practice and the relationship between resultant OIC law and comparable UN norms in furtherance of UN Global Counter Terrorism Strategy goals Furthermore it explores two common mis assumptions regarding the OIC namely whether its internal institutional weaknesses mean that its law making practice is inconsequential at the intergovernmental level and whether its self declared Islamic objectives and nature are irrelevant to its institutional practice or are instead reflected within OIC law Where significant normative tensions are discerned between OIC law and UN law the monograph explores not only whether these may be explicable at least in part by the OIC s Islamic nature and objectives but also whether their corresponding institutional legal orders are conflicting or cooperative in nature and the resultant implications of these findings for international counter terrorism law and policy making This monograph is expected to appeal especially to national and intergovernmental counter terrorism practitioners and policy makers as well as to scholars concerned with the interaction between international and Islamic law norms From the Foreword by Professor Ben Saul The University of Sydney Dr Samuels book must be commended as an original and insightful contribution to international legal scholarship on the OIC Islamic law international law and counter terrorism It fills significant gaps in legal knowledge about the vast investment of international and regional effort that has gone into the global counter terrorism enterprise over many decades and which accelerated markedly after 9 11 The scope of the book is ambitious its subject matter is complex and its sources are many and diverse Dr Samuel has deployed an appropriate theoretical and empirical methodology harnessed an intricate knowledge of the field and brought a balanced judgement to bear to bring these issues to life University of California Union Catalog of

Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System). Institute of Library Research,University of California, Berkeley,1972 Quantum International Relations James Der Derian,Alexander Wendt,2022 The contributors to this volume are motivated by a common apprehension and a common hope The apprehension was first voiced by Einstein who lamented the inability of humanity at the individual and social level to keep up with the increased speed of technological change brought about by the quantum revolution As quantum science and technology fast forward into the 21st century the social sciences remain stuck in classical 19th century ways of thinking

Can such a mechanistic model of the mind and society possibly help us manage the fully realized technological potential of the quantum That s where the hope appears that perhaps quantum is not just a physical science but a human science too In Quantum International Relations James Der Derian and Alexander Wendt gather rising scholars and leading experts to make the case for quantum approaches to world politics As a fundamental theory of reality and enabler of new technologies quantum now touches everything with the potential to revolutionize how we conduct diplomacy wage war and make wealth Contributors present the core principles of quantum mechanics entanglement uncertainty superposition and the wave function as significant catalysts and superior heuristics for an accelerating quantum future Facing a reality which no longer corresponds to an outdated Newtonian worldview of states as billiard balls individuals as rational actors or power as objective interest Der Derian and Wendt issue an urgent call for a new human science of quantum International Relations At the centenary of the first quantum thought experiment in the 1920s this book offers a diversity of explorations speculations and approaches for understanding geopolitics in the 21st century Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index,1975 Stalin's Captive Nikolaus Riehl,Frederick Seitz,1996 After World War II German scientist Nikolaus Riehl and his family were held captive in the Soviet Union from 1945 to 1955 His story is uniquely interesting in part because of its historical content in part because he was bilingual in German and Russian having grown up in St Petersburg as the son of a German father and a Russian mother and as a result of his warm human interest in the Russian people He tells his story in Ten Years in a Golden Cage Frederick Seitz has written a detailed introduction that provides a historical context for his translation from German of Riehl s book Red Chamber, World Dream Jing Sun,2021-03-04 Chinese president Xi Jinping is most famously associated with his Chinese Dream campaign envisioning a great rejuvenation of the nation Many observers though view China s pursuit of this dream as alarming They see a global power ready to abandon its low profile diplomacy and eager to throw its weight around Red Chamber World Dream represents an interdisciplinary effort of deciphering the Chinese Dream and its global impact Jing Sun employs methods from political science and journalism and concepts from literature sociology psychology and drama studies to offer a multilevel analysis of various actors roles in Chinese foreign policy making the leaders the bureaucrats and its increasingly diversified public This book rejects a simple dichotomy of an omnipotent authoritarian state versus a suppressed society Instead it examines how Chinese foreign policy is constantly being forged and contested by interactions among its leaders bureaucrats and people The competition for shaping China s foreign policy also happens on multiple arenas intraparty fighting inter ministerial feuding social media TV dramas and movies among others This book presents vast amounts of historical detail many unearthed the first time in the English language Meanwhile it also examines China s diplomatic responses to ongoing issues like the Covid 19 crisis The result is a study multidisciplinary in nature rich in historical nuance and timely in contemporary significance The Theory of Self-Determination Fernando R. Tesón,2016-04-07 When can a group legitimately form its own state Under international law some groups can but others cannot But the standard is unclear and traditional legal analysis has failed to elucidate it In The Theory of Self Determination leading scholars chart new territory in our theoretical conception of self determination Drawing from diverse scholarship in international law philosophy and political science they attempt to move beyond the prevailing nationalist conceptions of group definition At issue are such universal questions as when does a group qualify as a people Does history matter Or is it a question of ethnic status Are these matters properly solved by popular vote Anchored in modern analytical political philosophy but with implications for a wide range of scholarship this volume will prove essential for scholars and practitioners of international law global justice and international relations Academic Libraries Dr. R.K. Bhatt, Garima Gaur srivastava & Sanjeev Kumar Sharma, 2021-08-09 contents Foreword ix Acknowledgement xi Preface xiii Chapter 1 15 Higher Education and Libraries Chapter 2 31 History of the Academic Libraries Chapter 3 43 Organizational Structure Chapter 4 55 Library Budget and Budgeting Chapter 5 73 Library Services in Electronic Environment Chapter 6 91 Resource Sharing and Library Networks Chapter 7 103 INFLIBNET and UGC Infonet Digital Library Consortium Chapter 8 111 Library Consortia Chapter 9 137 ICT and University Libraries Chapter 10 153 Marketing the Library Chapter 11 177 Management Consultancy Bibliography Index Asian Classics on the Victorian Bookshelf Alexander Bubb, 2023 The interest among Victorian readers in classical literature from Asia has been greatly underestimated and Asian Classics on the Victorian Bookshelf explains the process whereby popular translations were written published distributed to bookshops and libraries and ultimately consumed by readers The Political Economy of the Investment Treaty Regime Jonathan Bonnitcha, Lauge N. Skovgaard Poulsen, Michael Waibel, 2017 Investment treaties are some of the most controversial but least understood instruments of global economic governance Public interest in international investment arbitration is growing and some developed and developing countries are beginning to revisit their investment treaty policies The Political Economy of the Investment Treaty Regime synthesises and advances the growing literature on this subject by integrating legal economic and political perspectives Based on an analysis of the substantive and procedural rights conferred by investment treaties it asks four basic questions What are the costs and benefits of investment treaties for investors states and other stakeholders Why did developed and developing countries sign the treaties Why should private arbitrators be allowed to review public regulations passed by states And what is the relationship between the investment treaty regime and the broader regime complex that governs international investment Through a concise but comprehensive analysis this book fills in some of the many blind spots of academics from different disciplines and is the first port of call for lawyers investors policy makers and stakeholders trying to make sense of these critical instruments governing investor state relations Annual Report Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1912 Ibsen in the Decolonised South Asian Theatre Sabiha Huq, Srideep Mukherjee, 2023-11-10 This book maps South Asian theatre productions that have contextualised Ibsen's plays to underscore the emergent challenges of postcolonial nation formation The concerns addressed in this collection include politico cultural engagements with human rights economic and environmental issues and globalisation all of which have evolved through colonial times and thereafter This book contemplates why and how these Ibsen texts were repeatedly adapted for the stage and consequently reflects upon the political intent of this appropriative journey of the foreign playwright This book tracks the unmapped agency that South Asian theatre has acquired through aesthetic appropriation of Ibsen and thereby contributes to his global reception This collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre and performance studies

Digitized Statecraft of Four Asian Regionalisms Takashi Inoguchi, Lien Thi Quynh Le, 2023-01-01 This book attempts to develop a novel way of conceptualizing regionalism under hyper globalization Until recently regionalism has been often framed in terms of economic interdependence and security connectivity in which sovereign states are the key navigators within the liberal world order Under hyper globalization in the third millennium hyper globalization forces us to capture global politics at two more levels of measurement at the state level and both there below and there above First how 29 Asian sovereign states join multilateral treaty participation to develop their global quasi legislative types and how citizens satisfaction with quality of life in 29 civil societies shapes their societal types Second relating these two features above and below sovereign states the book attempts to measure the features and speculate on the futures of four Asian regionalisms Central Asia South Asia Southeast Asia and East Asia and their prospect of the demographically largest continent called Asia in the twenty first century Regionalism is measured by the proclivity of 600 multilateral treaty participation in terms of speed cautious versus agile angle global commons versus individual interests and strategy aspirational bonding versus mutual binding whereas quality of life is measured by citizens satisfaction with 16 domains aspects and styles of individual daily life in terms of survival or materialism social relations post materialism and public policy preponderance The book opens an innovative vista to better understand tumultuous global politics This ambitious volume leverages original survey data on citizen satisfaction and country level data on treaty accessions to characterize the trajectories of countries in four regions of Asia as they adapt or fail to adapt to the challenges of globalization in the 21st century and beyond Readers will learn much about politics from the basic level of the individual citizen to the most comprehensive level of the global system and about the interactions of politics at all levels Andrew J Nathan Class of 1919 Professor of Political Science Columbia University A wonderful attempt to link a country s domestic development and its adaptation to the global politics It is truly eye opening and the findings are likely to significantly shape our understanding of life and global politics Zhengxu Wang Ph D Distinguished Professor Department of Political Science Fudan University Manufacturing David O. Whitten, Bessie E. Whitten, 1990-09-27 Overall this first volume in the series should render business research in manufacturing a good deal easier by bringing together insightful industry histories and detailed critical bibliographies This series has much to recommend it Future volumes will be eagerly awaited Reference Books Bulletin This historical and bibliographical reference work is the first volume of Greenwood Press s Handbook of American Business History a series intended to supplement current bibliographic materials pertaining to business history Devoted to manufacturing this work uses the Enterprise Standard Industrial Classification ESIC to divide the subject into distinct segments from which contributors have developed histories and bibliographies of the different types of manufacturing Though authors were given sets of guidelines to follow they were also allowed the flexibility to work in a format that best suited the material Each contribution in this volume contains three important elements a concise history of the manufacturing sector a bibliographic essay and a bibliography Some contributions appear in three distinct parts while others are combined into one or two segments all build on currently available material for students and scholars doing research on business and industry The contributors who include business economic and social historians as well as engineers and lawyers have covered such topics as bakery products industrial chemicals and synthetics engines and turbines and household appliances Also included are an introductory essay that covers general works and a comprehensive index This book should be a useful tool for courses in business and industry and a valuable resource for college university and public libraries

Bion Nicola Abel-Hirsch, 2019-01-25 This is a book of 365 quotes from the work of the psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion Something of an enigma Bion often doesn't write in the way one would expect of a psychoanalyst but is being read ever increasingly around the world in and outside the psychoanalytic community Certain of his comments are often quoted whilst swathes of his work lie almost untouched How to make some of the detail of this work available What he writes is often dense in the way the structure of a poem can be and the book has the format of a poem a day collection providing a way into his complete work one quote at a time Alongside commentaries by Abel Hirsch are thoughts on Bion's work drawn from papers by other analysts from the UK the Americas and Europe The book is structured in a way that will inform and interest the general reader as well as giving something new to psychoanalysts and others who already know his work well

Introducing Psychoanalysis Susan Budd, Richard Rusbridger, 2005 Introducing Psychoanalysis brings together leading analysts to explain what psychoanalysis is and how it has developed providing a fascinating overview of the wide variety of psychoanalytic ideas that are current in Britain today
