The Aesthetic Cold War Peter J. Kalliney, 2024-12-10 How decolonization and the cold war influenced literature from Africa Asia and the Caribbean How did superpower competition and the cold war affect writers in the decolonizing world In The Aesthetic Cold War Peter Kalliney explores the various ways that rival states used cultural diplomacy and the political police to influence writers In response many writers from Africa Asia and the Caribbean such as Chinua Achebe Mulk Raj Anand Eileen Chang C L R James Alex La Guma Doris Lessing Ng g wa Thiong o and Wole Soyinka carved out a vibrant conceptual space of aesthetic nonalignment imagining a different and freer future for their work Kalliney looks at how the United States and the Soviet Union in an effort to court writers funded international conferences arts centers book and magazine publishing literary prizes and radio programming International spy networks however subjected these same writers to surveillance and intimidation by tracking their movements tapping their phones reading their mail and censoring or banning their work Writers from the global south also suffered travel restrictions deportations imprisonment and even death at the hands of government agents Although conventional wisdom suggests that cold war pressures stunted the development of postcolonial literature Kalliney's extensive archival research shows that evenly balanced superpower competition allowed savvy writers to accept patronage without pledging loyalty to specific political blocs Likewise writers exploited rivalries and the emerging discourse of human rights to contest the attentions of the political police A revisionist account of superpower involvement in literature The Aesthetic Cold War considers how politics shaped literary production in the twentieth century

The Politics of Consolation Christina Simko,2015-07-28 What meaning can be found in calamity and suffering This question is in some sense perennial reverberating through the canons of theology philosophy and literature Today The Politics of Consolation reveals it is also a significant part of American political leadership Faced with uncertainty shock or despair Americans frequently look to political leaders for symbolic and existential guidance for narratives that bring meaning to the confrontation with suffering loss and finitude Politicians in turn increasingly recognize consolation as a cultural expectation and they often work hard to fulfill it The events of September 11 2001 raised these questions of meaning powerfully How were Americans to make sense of the violence that unfolded on that sunny Tuesday morning This book examines how political leaders drew upon a long tradition of consolation discourse in their effort to interpret September 11 arguing that the day s events were mediated through memories of past suffering in decisive ways It then traces how the struggle to define the meaning of September 11 has continued in foreign policy discourse commemorative ceremonies and the contentious redevelopment of the World Trade Center site in lower Manhattan Migrant Revolutions Valerie

Kaussen,2008-01-01 Migrant Revolutions Haitian Literature Globalization and U S Imperialism interprets Haitian literature in a transnational context of anti colonial and anti globalization politics Positing a materialist and historicized account of Haitian literary modernity it traces the themes of slavery labor migration diaspora and revolution in works by Jacques Roumain Marie Chauvet Edwidge Danticat and others Author Valerie Kaussen argues that the sociocultural effects of U S imperialism have renewed and expanded the relevance of the universal political ideals that informed Haiti s eighteenth century slave revolt and war of decolonization Finally Migrant Revolutions defines Haitian literary modernity as located at the forefront of the struggles against transnational empire and global colonialism New World Drama Elizabeth Maddock Dillon,2014-09-01 In New World Drama Elizabeth Maddock Dillon turns to the riotous scene of theatre in the eighteenth century Atlantic world to explore the creation of new publics Moving from England to the Caribbean to the early United States she traces the theatrical emergence of a collective body in the colonized New World one that included indigenous peoples diasporic Africans and diasporic Europeans In the raucous space of the theatre the contradictions of colonialism loomed large Foremost among these was the central paradox of modernity the coexistence of a massive slave economy and a nascent politics of freedom Audiences in London eagerly watched the royal slave Oroonoko tortured on stage while audiences in Charleston and Kingston were forbidden from watching the same scene Audiences in Kingston and New York City exuberantly participated in the slaying of Richard III on stage enacting the rise of the people and Native American leaders were enjoined to watch actors in blackface jump Jim Crow Dillon argues that the theater served as a performative commons staging debates over representation in a political world based on popular sovereignty Her book is a capacious account of performance aesthetics and modernity in the eighteenth century Atlantic world Denmark and the New North Atlantic

Kirsten Thisted, Ann-Sofie N. Gremaud, 2020-10-01 This book investigates how the emergence of the Arctic as a new geopolitical arena affects and reshapes the area known as the North Atlantic Greenland Iceland the Faroe Islands and coastal Norway The relationship between the center of the former Danish empire and its subordinates have rested on varying degrees of asymmetric power relations that are intertwined with political as well as emotional bonds With climate change a whole new reality is emerging in the Arctic and sub Arctic areas Power is moving north and new connections and partnerships are being developed As the North Atlantic countries share a history as being part of a Danish empire some of the hierarchies and mindsets inherited from the past still affect the present This calls for an in depth understanding of the cultural history of the North Atlantic as well as current relations What narratives make up the foundation for contemporary cooperation How are historical relations and narratives being reinterpreted today How do postcolonial relations affect decision making concerning natural resources How do North Atlantic communities envision the future A team of historians literary theorists art historians ethno graphers and culture and communication scholars with profound insight into the histories languages and cultures of the North Atlantic have collaborated on this study of the North Atlantic countries as an emerging new center in the North Foundations that made this publication possible Carlsberg Foundation On Paradox Elizabeth S. Anker, 2022-10-28 In On Paradox literary and legal scholar Elizabeth S Anker contends that faith in the logic of paradox has been the cornerstone of left intellectualism since the second half of the twentieth century She attributes the ubiquity of paradox in the humanities to its appeal as an incisive tool for exposing and dismantling hierarchies Tracing the ascent of paradox in theories of modernity in rights discourse in the history of literary criticism and the linguistic turn and in the transformation of the liberal arts in higher education Anker suggests that paradox not only generates the very exclusions it critiques but also creates a disempowering haze of indecision She shows that reasoning through paradox has become deeply problematic it engrains a startling homogeneity of thought while undercutting the commitment to social justice that remains a guiding imperative of theory Rather than calling for a wholesale abandonment of such reasoning Anker argues for an expanded diversified theory toolkit that can help theorists escape the seductions and traps of paradox The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature offers a comprehensive critically engaging overview of this increasingly significant body of work The volume is divided into six sections that consider the foremost figures of the Anglophone Caribbean literary tradition and a history of literary critical debate textual turning points identifying key moments in both literary and critical history and bringing lesser known works into context fresh perspectives on enduring and contentious critical issues including the canon nation race gender popular culture and migration new directions for literary criticism and theory such as eco criticism psychoanalysis and queer studies the material dissemination of Anglophone Caribbean literature and generic interfaces with film and visual art This volume is an essential text that brings together sixty nine entries from scholars across three generations of Caribbean literary studies ranging from foundational critical voices to emergent scholars in the field The volume's reach of subject and clarity of writing provide an excellent resource and springboard to further research for those working in literature and cultural studies postcolonial and diaspora studies as well as Caribbean studies history and geography

Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-05-24 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power

Modernity David Punter, 2017-09-16 This exciting volume in the Transitions series explores both history and contemporary ideas pushing forward the boundaries of what we understand by modernity This book is distinguished from its competitors by its clear focus on close readings of commonly studied texts and a strict policy on writing for an undergraduate readership

Paradoxes of Hawaiian Sovereignty J. Kehaulani Kauanui, 2018-10-18 J K haulani Kauanui examines contradictions of indigeneity and self determination in U S domestic policy and international law showing how Hawaiian elites approaches to reforming land gender and sexual regulation in the early nineteenth century that paved the way for sovereign recognition of the kingdom complicate contemporary nationalist activism which too often includes disavowing the indigeneity of indigenous Hawaiians

Beyond Coloniality Aaron Kamugisha, 2019-02-01 Against the lethargy and despair of the contemporary Anglophone Caribbean experience Aaron Kamugisha gives a powerful argument for advancing Caribbean radical thought as an answer to the conundrums of the present Beyond Coloniality is an extended meditation on Caribbean thought and freedom at the beginning of the 21st century and a profound rejection of the postindependence social and political organization of the Anglophone Caribbean and its contentment with neocolonial arrangements of power Kamugisha provides a dazzling reading of two towering figures of the Caribbean intellectual tradition C L R James and Sylvia Wynter and their quest for human freedom beyond coloniality Ultimately he urges the Caribbean to recall and reconsider the radicalism of its most distinguished 20th century thinkers in order to imagine a future beyond neocolonialism Postcolonial Modernism and the Picaresque Novel Jens Elze, 2017-09-28 This book is about the contemporary picaresque novel Despite its popularity the picaresque unlike the bildungsroman is still an undertheorized genre especially for the context of postcolonial literatures This study considers the picaresque novel's traditional focus on poverty and deprivation and argues that its postcolonial versions urge us to conceive of as a more wide ranging sense of precarity and precariousness Non linear biography episodic style protean identities unreliable narratives and abject landscapes are the social and formal aspects through which this precarity is thematized and performed A concise analysis of these concepts and phenomena in the picaresque provides the structure for this book What is especially significant in comparison to other forms of postcolonial post modernism is that the picaresque does not offer a general critique of a project of modernity but through its persistent precarity points to the paradoxical logics of capitalism which are especially nuanced under the conditions of neo imperialism and neoliberalism The book features texts by established postcolonial authors such as Salman Rushdie and V S Naipaul but especially focuses on the more recent proliferation of the genre in works by Aravind Adiga Mohsin Hamid and Indra Sinha The New Histories of International Criminal Law Immi Tallgren, Thomas Skouteris, 2019-03-21 The language of international criminal law has considerable traction in global politics and much of its legitimacy is embedded in apparently axiomatic historical truths This innovative edited collection brings together some of the world's leading international lawyers with a very clear mandate in mind to re evaluate retry the dominant historiographical tradition in the field of international criminal law Carefully curated and with contributions by leading scholars The New Histories of International Criminal Law pursues three research objectives to bring to the fore the structure and function of contemporary histories of international criminal law to take issue with the consequences of these histories and to call for their demystification The essays discern several registers on which the received historiographical tradition must be retried tropology inclusions exclusions gender race representations of the victim and the perpetrator history and memory ideology and master narratives international criminal law and hegemonic theories and more This book intervenes critically in the fields of international criminal law and international legal history by bringing in new voices and fresh approaches Taken as a whole it provides a rich account of the dilemmas conundrums and possibilities entailed in writing histories of international criminal law beyond against or in the shadow of the master narrative The Politics of Postsecular Religion Ananda Abeysekara, 2008-05-08 Ananda Abeysekara contends that democracy along with its cherished secular norms is founded on the idea of a promise deferred to the future Rooted in democracy's messianic promise is the belief that religious political identity such as Buddhist Hindu Sinhalese Christian Muslim or Tamil can be critiqued neutralized improved and changed even while remaining inseparable from the genocide of the past This facile belief he argues is precisely what distracts us from challenging the violence inherent in postcolonial political sovereignty At the same time we cannot simply dismiss the democratic concept since it permeates so deeply through our modernist capitalist and humanist selves In The Politics of Postsecular Religion Abeysekara invites us to reconsider our ethical political legacies to look at them not as problems but as aporias in the Derridean sense that is as contradictions or impasses incapable of resolution Disciplinary theorizing in religion and politics he argues is unable to identify the aporias of our postcolonial modernity The aporetic legacies which are like specters that cannot be wished away demand a new kind of thinking It is this thinking that Abeysekara calls mourning and un inheriting Un inheriting is a way of meditating on history that both avoids the simple binary of remembering and forgetting and provides an original perspective on heritage memory and time Abeysekara situates aporias in the settings and cultures of the United States France England Sri Lanka India and Tibet In presenting concrete examples of religion in public life he questions the task of refashioning the aporetic premises of liberalism and secularism Through close readings of Nietzsche Heidegger Arendt Derrida Butler and Agamben as well as Foucault Asad Chakrabarty Balibar and Zizek he offers readers a way to think about the futures of postsecular politics that is both dynamic and creative

Urbane Revolutionary Frank Rosengarten, 2010-06-30 In Urbane Revolutionary C L R James and the Struggle for a New Society Frank Rosengarten traces the intellectual and political development of C L R James 1901 1989 one of the most significant Caribbean intellectuals of the twentieth century In his political and philosophical commentary his histories drama letters memoir and fiction James broke new ground dealing with the fundamental issues of his age colonialism and post colonialism Soviet socialism and western neo liberal capitalism and the uses of race class and gender as tools for analysis The author examines the in depth three facets of James s work his interpretation and use of Marxist Trotskyist and Leninist concepts his approach to Caribbean and African struggles for independence in the 1950s and 1960s and his branching into prose fiction drama and literary criticism Rosengarten analyzes James s previously underexplored relationships with women and with the women s liberation movement The study also scrutinizes James s methods of research and writing Rosengarten explores James s provocative and influential concepts regarding Black liberation in the Caribbean Africa the United States and Great Britain and James s varying responses to revolutionary movements With its extensive use of unpublished letters private correspondence papers books and other documents Urbane Revolutionary provides fresh insights into the work of one of the twentieth century s most important intellectuals and activists

The Moving Word Leslie James, Senior Lecturer in Global History Leslie James, 2025-12-16 In the 1930s and 1940s Caribbean and West African newspapers nurtured anticolonial movements through experimental reporting But as press professionalism became a proxy for a colony s capacity to self govern in the 1950s papers standardized and intellectual debates about racism and colonialism disappeared from their pages

Arabic Thought against the Authoritarian Age Jens Hanssen, Max Weiss, 2018-02-15 In the wake of the Arab uprisings the Middle East descended into a frenzy of political turmoil and unprecedented human tragedy which reinforced regrettable stereotypes about the moribund state of Arab intellectual and cultural life This volume sheds important light on diverse facets of the post war Arab world and its vibrant intellectual literary and political history Cutting edge research is presented on such wide ranging topics as poetry intellectual history political philosophy and religious reform and cultural resilience all across the length and breadth of the Arab world from Morocco to the Gulf States This is an important statement of new directions in Middle East studies that challenges conventional thinking and has added relevance to the study of global intellectual history more broadly
