Constructing Panic The Discourse Of Agoraphobia:

Constructing Panic Lisa Capps,Elinor Ochs,1995 Offering a novel analysis of a patient s experience of agoraphobia this collaboration between a clinical psychologist and a linguist proposes a view of agoraphobia as a communicative disorder It opens up potential for linguistic and narrative analysis by revealing the roots of panic and by establishing a framework for therapeutic intervention Everyday Languageing Lian Malai Madsen,Martha Sif Karrebæk,Janus Spindler

Møller,2015-11-13 This book contributes to current theory building within applied linguistics and sociolinguistics by looking at the role of language in the lives realities and understandings of real children and youth in an urban setting Collectively the studies amount to a comprehensive account of how urban children and youth construct reactivate negotiate contest and navigate between different linguistic and sociocultural norms and resources The Grammar of Autobiography Jean

Quigley,2000-05-01 This is the first book to bring together four distinct literatures functional linguistics child language narrative development and discursive psychology It is an outgrowth of the historical relationship between psychology and linguistics especially the post Wittgensteinian turn to language Relevant issues are situated at that interface in a way that should prove accessible to both linguists with little or no psychological knowledge and to psychologists with no linguistics background are addressed Previously there have been volumes on the theses of discursive psychology and social constructionism and volumes on the workings and theories of functional linguistics but none have attempted to link the two as natural bedfellows in this way While clearly situated within the spirit of the Berkeley school it goes beyond it by virtue of linking functional linguistics and discursive psychology and by doing this ontogenetically Overall this book is an investigation of the psycholinguistic thesis of the social construction of selfhood and the psychology of everyday life Featuring the only book length studies of the use of grammatical analysis as a research strategy in psychology it integrates issues of human development and child language in a new way It deals in careful linguistic analyses examining the role of grammatical forms in constituting context which involves an examination of their functions that are then used to highlight fundamental aspects of development The linguistic analyses are treated as a testing ground for the ideas and claims made in discursive psychology The discussion deals with many of the current issues in psychology and related disciplines including narrative morality agency and responsibility in order to show the central role of language in human functioning The Handbook of

Narrative Analysis Anna De Fina,Alexandra Georgakopoulou,2019-02-12 Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field The Handbook of Narrative Analysis is the first comprehensive collection of sociolinguistic scholarship on narrative analysis to be published Organized thematically to provide an accessible guide for how to engage with narrative without prescribing a rigid analytic framework Represents established modes of narrative analysis juxtaposed with innovative new methods for conducting narrative research Includes coverage of the latest advances in narrative analysis from work on social media to small stories research Introduces and exemplifies a practice based approach to narrative analysis that separates narrative from text so as to broaden the field beyond the printed page

The SAGE Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, Amir B. Marvasti, Karyn D. McKinney, 2012-02-14 The new edition of this landmark volume emphasizes the dynamic interactional and reflexive dimensions of the research interview Contributors highlight the myriad dimensions of complexity that are emerging as researchers increasingly frame the interview as a communicative opportunity as much as a data gathering format The book begins with the history and conceptual transformations of the interview which is followed by chapters that discuss the main components of interview practice Taken together the contributions to The SAGE Handbook of Interview Research The Complexity of the Craft encourage readers simultaneously to learn the frameworks and technologies of interviewing and to reflect on the epistemological foundations of the interview craft

Topophobia Dylan Trigg, 2016-12-15 Topophobia A Phenomenology of Anxiety is a vivid second person inquiry into how anxiety plays a formative part in the constitution of subjectivity While anxiety has assumed a central role in the history of philosophy and phenomenology in particular until now there has been no sustained study of how it shapes our sense of self and being in the world This book seeks to address that lacuna Calling upon the author s own experience of being agoraphobic it asks a series of critical questions How is our experience of the world affected by our bodily experience of others What role do moods play in shaping our experience of the world How can we understand the role of conditions such as agoraphobia in relation to our normative understanding of the body and the environment What is the relation between anxiety and home The reader will gain an insight into the strange experience of being unable to cross a bridge get on a bus and enter a supermarket without tremendous anxiety At the same time they will discover aspects of their own bodily experience that are common to both agoraphobes and non agoraphobes alike Integrating phenomenological inquiry with current issues in the philosophy of mind Trigg arrives at a renewed understanding of identity which arranges self other and world as a unified whole Written with a sense of vividness often lacking in academic discourse this is living philosophy
