Ex Machina Creating Patrick Caux:

Robert Lepage / Ex Machina James Reynolds, 2019-02-07 Robert Lepage Ex Machina Revolutions in Theatrical Space provides an ideal introduction to one of our most innovative companies and a much needed and timely reappraisal of Lepage's oeuvre International interdisciplinary and intercultural to the core Ex Machina have negotiated some of the most complex creative and cultural challenges of our time This book maps the story of that journey by analysing the full spectrum of their richly varied work Through a comprehensive historiography of productions since 1994 Robert Lepage Ex Machina offers a detailed picture of the relationship between director and company while connecting Ex Machina to culturally specific features of Quebec and its theatre This book reveals for the first time how overlooked aspects of creativity and culture shaped the company's early work while installing a dynamic interplay between director and company that would spark a unique and ongoing evolution of praxis Central to this re-evaluation of practice is the book's identification of an architectural aesthetic at the heart of Ex Machina's work an aesthetic which provides its artistic and political centres of gravity Moreover this architectural aesthetic powers the emergence of concrete narrative as a new and distinctive mode of theatrical storytelling uniting story and space body and technology content and form and demanding that we discover the politics of these performances in the energetic gestures of theatre design and space itself Drawing on extensive interviews with Lepage Ex Machina personnel and collaborative partners Robert Lepage Ex Machina calls upon us to revise both our creative and critical perceptions of this vital and distinctive practice

Robert Lepage's Scenographic Dramaturgy Melissa Poll, 2018-07-10 This book theorizes auteur Robert Lepage's scenography based approach to adapting canonical texts Lepage's technique is defined here as scenographic dramaturgy a process and product that de-privileges dramatic text and relies instead on evocative visual performance and intercultural collaboration to re-envision extant plays and operas Following a detailed analysis of Lepage's adaptive process and its place in the continuum of scenic writing and auteur theatre this book features four case studies charting the role of Lepage's scenographic

dramaturgy in re writing extant texts including Shakespeare's Tempest on Huron Wendat territory Stravinsky's Nightingale in a twenty seven ton pool and Wagner's Ring cycle via the infamous sixteen million dollar Metropolitan Opera production The final case study offers the first interrogation of Lepage's twenty first century auto adaptations of his own seminal texts The Dragons Trilogy and Needles Opium Though aimed at academic readers this book will also appeal to practitioners given its focus on performance making adaptation and intercultural collaboration

The Greatest Shows on Earth Professor of Psychology John Freeman, 2011-11-01 What makes a particular performance great The Greatest Shows on Earth offers an address that focuses sharply on theatre as performance as an event that can stir the blood the spirit and the brain like nothing else The result is a book about fourteen outstanding theatre events from a dozen countries In discrete production focused chapters work from Peter Brook's King Lear through to the Sydney Olympics Opening Event is approached by a team of international scholars and practitioners each describing in print that which existed in time and space and most significantly within specific contexts What binds these chapters together is the conviction that whilst liveness disappears in a moment spectatorship can translate into documentation that adds something to a work's value even as so much else can never be captured in words In wrestling with ephemerality and memory The Greatest Shows on Earth does more than make a case for what makes certain theatre great it foregrounds analysis with emotion and writing with the type of first person engagement that is usually edited out rather than invited in John Freeman lectures in Performance Studies at Curtin University Perth Western Australia He has written extensively on theatre art pedagogy and research for numerous international journals newspapers magazines books government and funding agencies galleries festivals and consultancy panels The Greatest Shows on Earth is his fifth book
