Enterprising Africa Stephen Dobson, Paul Jones, Daniel Agyapong, Gideon Maas, 2020-12-30 Enterprising Africa explores the future opportunities challenges growth areas and key themes that will shape entrepreneurship in the African continent over the next decade Entrepreneurship can be the key to unlock resilient growth but only if it is driven by both socially productive and growth oriented new businesses The book considers entrepreneurship as an enabler for socio economic growth and development in Africa especially in the context of youth unemployment and increasing youth population for which the traditional and indeed emerging industrial sectors will not be able to produce sufficient jobs to meet demand Organised around three thematic parts Part I covers the notion of inclusive growth and the role that entrepreneurs can play supporting this Part II considers the dynamic between entrepreneurs and the environment since social economic and environmental concerns need to build upon each other rather than vie for recognition Finally Part III offers chapters exploring policy contexts and the wider institutional ecosystems that need to be developed and enhanced to ensure a strong and vibrant environment for the future entrepreneurs of Africa to thrive Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this fascinating text will be of interest to academics as well as students of International Transformational and Social Entrepreneurship and International and African Business Entrepreneurial New Venture Skills David C. Kimball, Robert N. Lussier, 2014-07-17 As business schools expand their entrepreneurship programs and organizations seek people with entrepreneurial skills it has become clear that the skills and mindset of an entrepreneur are highly valued in all business contexts This latest edition of Entrepreneurial New Venture Skills continues to focus on helping students develop entrepreneurial skills whether they seek to become entrepreneurs or employees Focusing on the entrepreneurial start up process the third edition of Entrepreneurial New Venture Skills takes the reader through the steps of selecting planning financing and controlling the new venture The authors cover multiple forms of new ventures as well as ways to utilize entrepreneurial skills in other contexts encouraging students to engage with the material and apply it to their lives in ways that make sense for them Skill development features include Entrepreneurial profiles of small business owners Personal applications for students to apply questions to their new venture or a current business Global and domestic cases Elevator pitch assignments which put students in the venture capitalist position Application exercises and situations covering specific text concepts Business plan prompts to help students construct a business plan over the course of a semester Featuring pedagogical tools like review questions and learning outcomes and a full companion website that expands upon skill development and offers instructor resources the third edition of Entrepreneurial New Venture Skills is the perfect resource for instructors and students of entrepreneurship Digital Entrepreneurship in Africa Nicolas Friederici, Michel

Wahome, Mark Graham, 2020-07-28 The hope and hype about African digital entrepreneurship contrasted with the reality on the ground in local ecosystems In recent years Africa has seen a digital entrepreneurship boom with hundreds of millions of dollars poured into tech cities entrepreneurship trainings coworking spaces innovation prizes and investment funds Politicians and technologists have offered Silicon Valley influenced narratives of boundless opportunity and exponential growth in which internet enabled entrepreneurship allows Africa to leapfrog developmental stages to take a leading role in the digital revolution This book contrasts these aspirations with empirical research about what is actually happening on the ground The authors find that although the digital revolution has empowered local entrepreneurs it does not untether local economies from the continent's structural legacies Drawing on a five year research project the authors show how entrepreneurs creatively and productively adapt digital technologies to local markets rather than dreaming of global dominance achieving sustainable businesses by scaling based on relationships and customizing digital platform business models for African infrastructure challenge The authors examine African entrepreneurial ecosystems show that African digital entrepreneurs have begun to form a new professional class becoming part of a relatively exclusive cultural and economic elite and discuss the impact of Silicon Valley's mythologies and expectations Finally they consider the implications of their findings and offer recommendations to policymakers and others Conceptual Richness and Methodological

Diversity in Entrepreneurship Research Alain Fayolle, Paula Kyrö, Tõnis Mets, Urve Venesaar, 2013-01-01 I can confidently say that I believe the chapters published in this volume are addressing interesting questions that we should care about I can only applaud the series editors for their initiative effort and time in producing yet another exceptional volume Helle Neergaard Aarhus University Denmark This important book identifies the current developments within entrepreneurship that are characterized by conceptual richness and methodological diversity It presents the latest developments of topics such as the entrepreneurial mindset culture and values as well as advances in entrepreneurship education and development The contributors open the field for methodological renewal by introducing the current state of and opportunities for explorative research in entrepreneurship Researchers practitioners and policymakers will find the research in this book both innovative and refreshing which will be particularly useful for those looking to renew their practices It will also provide academics with some new ideas to adopt in their teaching and research in order to help their students to acquire entrepreneurial competences New Technology-Based Firms in the New Millennium Aard Groen, Gary Cook, Peter van der Sijde, 2015-06-16
