Secured Transactions ,2024 Secured Transactions, 2020 ,2020 Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae,Edward Bander,Francis Doyle,Joel Fishman,Paul Richert,2021-12-13 Secured Transactions Law Reform Louise Gullifer,Orkun Akseli,2016-10-20

Secured transactions law has been subjected to a close scrutiny over the last two decades One of the main reasons for this is the importance of availability of credit and the consequent need to reform collateral laws in order to improve access to finance The ability to give security effectively influences not only the cost of credit but also in some cases whether credit will be available at all This requires rules that are transparent and readily accessible to non lawyers as well as rules that recognise the needs of small and medium sized enterprises This book critically engages with the challenges posed by inefficient secured credit laws It offers a comparative analysis of the reasons and the needs for a secured transactions law reform as well as discussion of the steps taken in many common law civil law and mixed law jurisdictions The book written under the auspices of the Secured Transactions Law Reform Project informs the debate about reform and advances novel arguments written by world renowned experts that will build upon the existing literature and as such will be of interest to academics legal practitioners and the judiciary involved in secured transactions law around the world The text considers reform initiatives that have taken place up to the end of April 2016 It has not been possible to incorporate events since then into the discussion However notable developments include the banks decree passed by the Italian Government on 29th June 2016 and the adoption of the Model Law on Secured Transactions by UNCITRAL on 1st July 2016

The Future of Commercial Law Orkun Akseli,John Linarelli,2020-04-16 The reform of commercial law through harmonisation unification codification and other means remains one of the most important projects in developing the institutional architecture for the global economy This edited collection engages with the challenges and contributes to a greater understanding of the problems faced by states international organisations and private sector actors in this ongoing reform project for commercial law The volume takes stock of the project to date and looks towards a restructuring of the agenda to deal with new challenges The primary aim of the collection is to understand the future of commercial law reform in a way that offers ideas and strategies for innovation as well as in methodologies for project selection and evaluation In so doing the collection informs the debate on the global reform of commercial law and will be of interest not only to academics but also to those involved in the reform of commercial law around the world The volume collects papers presented at the UK Society of Legal Scholars Annual Seminar 2017 International Secured Transactions Law Orkun Akseli,2011-03-17

This book focuses on international harmonisation and the law of secured transactions by distilling and analysing the unifying principles of various significant international conventions and instruments such as the UN Convention on the Assignment of Receivables the Unidroit Convention on International Factoring the EBRD Model Law on Secured Transactions the Unidroit Convention on the International Interests in Mobile Equipment and the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions International secured transactions conventions and instruments facilitate credit and promote economic activity through the creation of harmonised rules Therefore given the increasing globalisation of markets international reform efforts for the harmonised modernisation of secured transactions law have gained pace over recent years International Secured Transactions Law draws on experiences in both English and US laws in order to identify and illustrate the existing problems that need to be addressed as well as identify potential solutions International Secured Transactions Law will be of interest to scholars students interested in international commercial law corporate law or comparative secured transactions and practitioners involved in international commercial transactions International and Comparative Secured

Transactions Law Spyridon V Bazinas,Orkun Akseli,2017-10-19 The law of secured transactions has seen dramatic changes in the last decade International organisations particularly the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law UNCITRAL have been working towards the creation of international legal standards aimed at the modernisation and harmonisation of secured financing laws eg the United Nations Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions and its Intellectual Property Supplement the UNCITRAL Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Secured Transactions The overall theme of this book is international or cross border secured transactions law It assembles contributions from some of the most authoritative academic voices on secured financing law This publication will be of interest to those involved in secured transactions around the world including policy makers practitioners judges arbitrators and academics Federal Register ,2013 Business Law Barron's Educational Series,Robert W. Secured Credit in Europe Teemu Juutilainen, 2018-03-22

Winner of the 2016 2018 KG Idman Prize This monograph seeks the optimal way to promote compatibility between systems of proprietary security rights in Europe focusing on security rights over tangible movables and receivables Based on comparative research it proposes how best to tackle cross border problems impeding trade and finance notably uncertainty of enforceability and unexpected loss of security rights It offers an extensive analysis of the academic literature of more recent years that has appeared in English German the Scandinavian languages and Finnish The author organises the concrete means of promoting compatibility into a centralised substantive approach a centralised conflicts approach a local conflicts approach and a local substantive approach The centralised approaches develop EU law and the local approaches Member State laws The substantive approaches unify or harmonise substantive law while the conflicts approaches rely on private international law The author proposes determining the optimal way to promote compatibility by objective based division of labour between the four approaches The objectives developed for that purpose are derived from the economic functions of security rights the conditions for legal evolution and a transnational conception of justice This book is an important contribution to the future of secured transactions law in Europe and more widely It will be of interest to academics policymakers and legal practitioners involved in this field

Understanding Secured Transactions William H.

Lawrence, William H. Henning, R. Wilson Freyermuth, 1997 Secured Transactions Guide Commerce Clearing House, 1969

Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa Marek Dubovec, Louise Gullifer, 2019-10-31 Over the last few decades many countries have reformed their secured transactions law One of the main reasons has been the clear link between reform and the availability of credit and the drive to improve access to finance particularly for micro small and medium sized enterprises This book focuses particularly on developing economies in Africa which have legal frameworks influenced by English French Belgian Roman Dutch and other laws Reform in this area of law across African countries has taken a number of forms which are explored and discussed in this book Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa is a mixture of a critical description of the pre reform law and practice and the reform process itself It also includes a comparative analysis of the legal provisions and an examination of the early results of the reforms The book sets out a road map for the future of secured transactions reform primarily in Africa but also in other countries that have undertaken or are contemplating similar reforms This book is the second in a series of books about Secured Transactions Law in countries around the world and its reform both on a national and an international scale The first book Secured Transactions Law Reform Principles Policies and Practice was published in 2016

The Future of Secured Credit in Europe Horst Eidenmüller, Eva-Maria Kieninger, 2012-07-12 This volume contains the reports and discussions presented at the conference The Future of Secured Credit in Europe in Munich from July 12th to July 14th 2007 It aims at taking the debate to a new stage by exploring the need and possible avenues for creating a European law of security interests The first part examines from an economic and a community law perspective the case for European lawmaking on secured credit and the legislative approach to be taken The intention in the second and third part is to look in more detail at the choices European lawmakers will have to make in devising a European law of secured credit The second part focuses on secured transactions involving corporeal movables tangibles whereas the third part considers categories of collateral that may require special rules International Sale of Goods United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations,1984 Principles of Secured Transactions James J. White,Robert S. Summers,2007 This book offers a comprehensive and accessible introduction to Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code It covers secured transactions from A to Z with examples and answers that will enable students to test their knowledge and find the answers to the many conundrums in Article 9
