Dying and Rising with Christ Robert C. Tannehill, 2020-05-18 No detailed description available for Dying and Rising with Christ

The Theology of Paul the Apostle James D. G. Dunn, 2006-05-17 Using Paul's letter to the Romans as the foundation for his monumental study of Paul's theology James D. G. Dunn describes Paul's teaching on God sin humankind Christology salvation the church and the nature of the Christian life

Paul and the Rhetoric of Reversal in 1 Corinthians Matthew R. Malcolm, 2013-07-25 This book examines why Paul waits until the end of his letter to the Corinthians before mentioning the important theme of resurrection

The Oxford Handbook of Pauline Studies Matthew V. Novenson, R. Barry Matlock, 2022 Covers the historical Paul the letters authentic and pseudonymous and the acts canonical and noncanonical Considers traditional approaches alongside more recent approaches including gender race and ethnicity and material culture Written by a diverse international group of experts Assesses the field as it stands and pushes forward into new possibilities for Pauline Studies Book jacket

The Morality of Paul's Converts Edwin D. Freed, 2014-12-05 A careful analysis of Paul's letters shows that in every church there were two main groups of converts those who were baptized and those being instructed for baptism Such analysis also makes it possible to determine which parts of each letter were directed towards which group Baptism was the rite by which converts were forgiven their past sins and became members of a renewed community of God from which any who continued to sin were expelled The Morality of Paul's Converts argues that Paul was always more concerned with how converts behaved than with what they believed about Christ Paul remained a Jew even after he accepted Jesus as the Messiah Paul eventually developed beliefs about Jesus as the Son of God in order to win Gentile converts to faithfulness but this careful analysis of his writings reveals that his primary concern was always the morality of converts His message always remained focused on faithfulness toward God and moral probity

A Theology of Paul the Apostle, Part One G. Roger Greene, 2023-07-21 The legacy of Paul looms large in all Christian theology While the study of Paul is not a simple task proper interpretation should be sustainable on the basis of a thorough examination of Paul's letters within their historical matrix The work Theology of Paul the Apostle is presented in two parts Part One Paul's Eschatological Gospel addresses matters relevant for Paul's appreciation of the gospel of God in the establishment of the eschatological community in Christ Paul's Judaism informs his apocalyptic description as he expresses his thought with consistent convictions within the varied contingent contexts of his communities within a Greco Roman world Part Two Cross and Atonement examines a perennial storm center within Paul's theology from both an exegetical and developmentally historical perspective Paul was embraced by the gospel of God in Christ the resurrection being the turning point of the ages While Paul's theology and the understandings of Paul must be established point by point Paul's theology has continuing relevance within the very different matrix of a postmodern world 'The Sufferings of Christ Are Abundant In Us' Kar Yong Lim,2009-08-11 Investigates the centrality of suffering to Paul's argument in 2 Corinthians

Cruciformity Michael J. Gorman,2021-07-27 When it was first published in 2001 Cruciformity broke new ground with a vision of Pauline spirituality that illuminated what it meant to be a person or community in Christ Beginning with Paul's express desire to know nothing but Christ crucified Gorman showed how true spirituality is telling the story in both life and words of God's self-revelation in Jesus so that we might practice cruciformity the impossible possibility of conformity to the crucified Christ Two decades later Gorman's seminal work is still a powerful model for combining biblical studies and theological reflection to make Paul's letters more immediately relevant to contemporary Christian life This twentieth anniversary edition includes a new foreword by Nijay Gupta a next generation Pauline scholar heavily influenced by Gorman as well as an afterword by the author in which he reflects on the legacy of Cruciformity in the church and the academy including his own subsequent work in Pauline theology A Ricoeurian Analysis of Identity Formation in Philippians Scott Ying Lam Yip,2023-06-01 Winner of the Outstanding Theological Research Book Award 2024 Scott Ying Lam Yip presents the first specialized narrative study devoted to the identity formation processes in Philippians based on Paul Ricoeur's narrative theory Yip demonstrates that the Christian identity of the Philippian community is shaped amidst competing narratives with divergent comprehensions and suggests that it is within an intra-Jewish contestation of testimonies that Paul updates his understanding of God and contends with a group of Jewish Christian leaders regarding the meaning of his suffering Yip argues that Paul faces a double contestation of narrative in which both the political authorities and a group of Jewish Christian leaders see his imprisonment as futile and unnecessary alerting him to an emerging crisis in which the Philippian community's conviction in suffering with him has begun to decline It is thus essential for Paul to synthesise and install a new paradigmatic story of Christ so that his suffering can be discerned as the defining mark of God's renewed manifestation in an era of Christ's eschatological Lordship Yip explores the means by which Paul in a contestation of authority for the re-appropriation of God's past work contrasts the future-oriented temporality of his testimony with the past-oriented one of the Jewish Christian leaders He concludes that Paul affirms the value of his present suffering in truthfulness and installs his testimony to be the exemplary story for the Philippian community Radical Martyrdom and Cosmic Conflict in Early Christianity Paul Middleton,2006-06-30 Several views of martyrdom co-existed in the early Church The orthodox position generally accepted by scholars was that a Christian should choose martyrdom rather than deny the Faith but should not on any account court death Although it has been recognised that some in the early Church did seek a glorified death by giving themselves over to arrest most scholars have dismissed such acts as differing from the accepted attitude to martyrdom in the early Church Therefore instances of volitional or radical martyrdom have been largely overlooked or sidelined in scholarly investigations into the theology and origins of Christian martyrdom Paul Middleton argues that far from being a deviant strand of early Christianity radical martyrdom was a significant and widely held idealised form of devotion in the late first to early third centuries Christian martyrdom is placed within the heritage of Jewish War tradition with each martyr making an important contribution to the cosmic conflict between Satan and God Radical Martyrdom re examines the presentation theology and origins of Christian martyrdom up to the beginning of the Decian persecutions in the light of new perspectives on the subject "The Law of the Spirit" John Anthony Bertone, 2005 Paul's explication of the relationship between the Spirit and Law in Romans 8 has been the subject of protracted scholarly debate In Romans 7 6 Spirit and Law are set in opposition to each other However in Romans 8 4 they appear conjoined operating in a more harmonious manner With the use of cognitive dissonance theory this book proposes that Paul perceived a state of dissonance between covenantal nomism and his post Damascus cognitions on the Spirit As a result he attempts to reduce the qualitative distinction between these two clusters of cognitions by establishing cognitive overlap between them and by striving to achieve social validation for his cognitions within his own fictive family of Roman believers with whom he shared the experience of the Spirit

Romans Thomas R. Schreiner, 1998-12 A fresh analysis of the Book of Romans for scholars pastors and students that blends scholarly depth with readability Transformation in Christ David A. Ackerman, 2019-06-06 Although Paul used language similar to the religions and cultures of his time he had a unique understanding of the mystery of God The once hidden plan of God was revealed and fulfilled in the person of Jesus of Nazareth Saul of Tarsus experienced a fundamental change when he encountered the risen Jesus on the road to Damascus This vision gave him new direction and purpose and profoundly changed his understanding of God's plan for humanity Paul often uses the phrase in Christ or its variations to describe this plan Being in Christ results in transformation into Christ's likeness of holiness and love through the indwelling Holy Spirit Those in Christ form a new community that crosses ethnic barriers is bound together in fellowship with the Triune God and fulfills its purpose of holiness before him Paul's answer to the struggles people face is simple when one is united with Christ by dying to the old self and committing to his supremacy one will find victory over any force opposed to us in this world This book explores one of the most profound claims in the New Testament that demands a response of its readers

Paul's Letter to the Romans Arland J. Hultgren, 2011-05-16 Building on his own translation from the Greek Hultgren walks readers through Romans verse by verse illuminating the text with helpful comments probing into major puzzles and highlighting the letter's most inspiring features He also demonstrates the forward looking missional character of Paul's epistle written as Hultgren suggests to introduce Roman Christians to the major themes of Paul's theology and to inspire in them both confidence in the soundness of his teaching and support for his planned missionary efforts in Spain Paul on the Cross David A. Brondos, Even as theologians and others have become more critical of classic theories of atonement Brondos maintains biblical scholars have continued to understand Paul's soteriology based on the language and categories of a thousand years later In this vital volume he draws the theological consequences of the new perspective on Paul for our understanding of the meaning and efficacy of Jesus death Paul says Brondos understood Jesus death primarily as the consequence of his mission of serving as God s instrument to bring about the awaited redemption of Israel in which Gentiles throughout the world would also be included For Paul Jesus death is salvific not because it satisfies some necessary condition for human salvation as most doctrines of the atonement have traditionally maintained nor because it effects some change in the situation of human beings or the world in general but because God responded to Jesus faithfulness unto death by raising him ensuring that all the divine promises of salvation would be fulfilled through him Jesus death forms part of an overarching story culminating in the redemption of Israel and the world it is this story and in particular what precedes and follows Jesus death on the cross which makes that death redemptive for Paul The Shape of the Gospel Robert C.

Tannehill,2007-02-20 Most of the following essays reveal my interest in the significance of literary forms both the short literary forms in the Gospels such as pronouncement stories and an entire Gospel as a formed narrative I am interested in the significance of these forms not just in literary classification systems I am interested in literary form as a clue to how the text may engage hearers and readers impact their thought and life if they are sensitive respondents The Gospel stories have been shaped in ways that give them particular potentials for significant engagement Study of literary form can help us recognize these potentials from the Introduction Contents Part I Gospel Sayings and Stories 1 Tension in Synoptic Sayings and Stories 2 The Pronouncement Story and Its Types 3 Varieties of Synoptic Pronouncement Stories 4 Types and Functions of Apophthegms in the Synoptic Gospels 5 The Gospels and Narrative Literature 6 You Shall Be Complete If Your Love Includes All Matthew 5 48 Part II The Gospel of Mark 7 The Disciples in Mark The Function of a Narrative Role 8 The Gospel of Mark as Narrative Christology 9 Reading It Whole The Function of Mark 8 34 35 in Mark s Story Part III Paul s Gospel 10 Paul as Liberator and Oppressor Evaluating Diverse Views of 1 Corinthians 11 Participation in Christ A Central Theme in Pauline Soteriology Abject Joy Ryan S. Schellenberg,2021-07-19 No extant text gives so vivid a glimpse into the experience of an ancient prisoner as Paul s letter to the Philippians As a letter from prison however it is not what one would expect For although it is true that Paul like some other ancient prisoners speaks in Philippians of his yearning for death what he expresses most conspicuously is contentment and even joy Setting aside pious banalities that contrast true joy with happiness and leaving behind too heroic depictions that take their cue from Acts Abject Joy offers a reading of Paul s letter as both a means and an artifact of his provisional attempt to make do By outlining the uses of punitive custody in the administration of Rome s eastern provinces and describing the prison s complex place in the social and moral imagination of the Greek and Roman world Ryan Schellenberg provides a richly drawn account of Paul s nonelite social context where bodies and their affects were shaped by acute contingency and habitual susceptibility to violent subjugation Informed by recent work in the history of emotions and with comparison to modern prison writing and ethnography provoking new questions and insights Schellenberg describes Paul s letter as an affective technology wielded at once on Paul himself and on his addressees that works to strengthen his grasp on the very joy he names Abject Joy Paul Prison and the Art of Making Do by Ryan S Schellenberg is a social history of prison in the Greek and Roman world that takes Paul's letter to the Philippians as its focal instance or to put it the other way around a study of Paul's letter to the Philippians that takes the reality of prison as its starting point Examining ancient perceptions of confinement and placing this ancient evidence in dialogue with modern prison writing and ethnography it describes Paul's urgent and unexpectedly joyful letter as a witness to the perplexing art of survival under constraint

A Theology of Paul the Apostle, Part Two G. Roger Greene, 2023-07-12 The legacy of Paul looms large in all Christian theology The New Testament and the Christian world itself would be a very different place apart from the impact of the apostle Paul The work Theology of Paul the Apostle is presented in two parts Attention is given in each volume to the foreground matrix of the place of Paul within historical Christian interpretation Part One Paul's Eschatological Gospel addresses matters relevant for Paul's appreciation of the gospel of God in the establishment of the eschatological community in Christ Part Two Cross and Atonement addresses the more specific and particular issues within Paul's gospel that have been a storm center within theological discussion The present writer finds Paul to be one who embraces the gospel of God in Christ the resurrection being the turning point of the ages that calls for a cruciform imperative of Christian identity and living in an eschatological age of fulfillment Paul's theology and cross imperative has continuing relevance within the very different matrix of a postmodern world
