The one where we tackle the customer satisfaction myth

It is Friday afternoon, 2 PM in the library. The "All Elvis, All the time" Internet radio channel is playing and I am wearing my Elvis '68 comeback special suit. Yes, I have a different interpretation of the Hades' casual dress code... but I rock in this outfit!

Earlier this month my boss went on a management retreat with other mid level managers. As usual, every time he goes away to meet with other managers, he comes back all energized and wants to start all kinds of initiatives. I have learned how to deal with them – give my boss what he wants, but with the minimum amount of work involved and get something out of it for the library.

So this week we had the following conversation:

How do we measure customer satisfaction now?

Well, we have the library steering committee. We invite them once a year to the VIP meeting room, offer them the best lunch available, smuggle
