Con esta primera encíclica el papa Francisco quiere recuperar el carácter de luz propio de la fe que posee la capacidad de iluminar y transformar toda la existencia del ser humano y nos señala a todos a María Madre de Dios como imagen perfecta de la fe. Papal Teaching in the Age of Infallibility, 1870 to the Present Kevin T. Keating, 2018-06-29 Kevin Keating examines the major writings of the Roman Pontiffs from Pius IX in the last half of the nineteenth century to the most recent writings of Francis. He explores the shift in papal focus from internal church matters and attacks on modern thought to concern for matters affecting all of humanity not just spiritually but socially politically and economically as well. Looming over all of these teachings is the specter of the doctrine of infallibility. First defined in 1870 to cover only papal infallibility it would be expanded in the 1960s to include the exercise of infallibility by the worldwide college of bishops. Keating discusses the most significant themes dealt with by popes during this period: the Bible, religious freedom, church-state relations, social doctrine, human sexuality, ecumenism and interreligious dialogue. He describes how papal teaching has changed, developed and even been contradicted by later popes although they have failed to expressly acknowledge departures from prior teaching. He details how the doctrine of infallibility far from serving to bolster the credibility of papal teaching often has served to undermine it.

Beyond Dogmatism and Innocence Bradford E. Hinze, Anthony J. Godzieba, 2017-02-01 Behind every important development in Catholic doctrine and practice since the beginning of the modern period have been debates about the interpretation of Christianity's classic texts and traditions and their ideological and practical implications. Over the past century there have been breakthroughs in retrieving the origins of beliefs and practices, recovering the rich, myriad and multifaceted literary forms and recognizing the ways these venerable traditions have been received, applied and negotiated in the lives of reading audiences with their contrasting worldviews. The essays in this volume by leading figures in Catholic theology suggest what might be called a third narrative that blends deeply contextual interpretations with a critical theological analysis of the roles of power and grace in church and society. The abilities and skills to grapple with basic issues in hermeneutics and critical theory remain necessary and fundamental for Catholic theology. At stake is nothing less than how the good news of God's salvation can be grasped and lived today. This volume provides a trustworthy map and compass for negotiating these debates and options. Contributors include Sandra M. Schneiders, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, Robert J. Schreiter, John E. Thiel, Dominic Doyle, Fernando F. Segovia, Andrew Prevot, Ormond Rush, Judith Gruber, Susan Abraham, Anthony J. Godzieba and Bradford E. Hinze. The Experiment of Faith Ramage, 2020-04-17 Pope Benedict XVI memorably remarked that the Christian faith is a lot like a Gothic cathedral with its stained glass windows. From the outside the Church can appear dark, dreary and worn with age, the crumbling relic of an institution that no longer speaks to men and women.

living in our modern world Indeed for many people today Christian morality with all of its commandments appears to be a source not of life and joy but instead of suffering and oppression Even within the Church many wonder why should I submit to ancient doctrines and outdated practices that restrict my freedom and impede my happiness In this timely and original book his third exploring the riches of Benedict XVI s vast corpus theologian Matthew Ramage sets out to meet this challenge with an in depth study of the emeritus pontiff s wisdom on how to live Christian discipleship in today s increasingly secularized world Taking as his starting point Benedict s conviction that the truth of Christianity like the beauty of a cathedral s glorious windows can be grasped only from the inside Ramage draws on Benedict s insights to show how all Christians can make the experiment of faith by living the theological virtues of faith hope and charity in daily life Along the way he shares his personal reflections on how Benedict s wisdom has helped him to navigate difficulties in embracing the faith and provides a way forward to those struggling to live as disciples in a way that is intellectually serious without remaining merely intellectual In so doing he also presents a highly nuanced yet accessible approach to defending the truth of the gospel in a world where life in Jesus Christ tends to be seen as unfulfilling irrelevant or just one lifestyle choice among others

Karl Rahner, Culture and Evangelization Anthony Mellor, 2019-05-15 The situation of religious institutional diminishment in many Western countries requires new approaches to the proclamation of Christian faith As a response to these complexities Karl Rahner suggested a mystagogic approach as a future pathway for theology A mystagogical approach seeks modes of spiritual and theological conversation which engage the religious imagination and draws upon personal experiences of transcendence and religious sensibility In Karl Rahner Culture and Evangelization New Approaches in an Australian Setting Anthony Mellor develops a reflective process of contemporary mystagogia describing how different fields of engagement require different patterns of mystagogical conversation While focussing on the Australian setting these differentiate arenas of engagement are also applicable to other cultural settings and offer fresh perspectives for evangelization today

The Benedict Proposal Joshua Brumfield, 2020-05-06 How ought the church respond to the rise of a post Christian secular age Should it retreat What is the mission of the church in this context Joseph Ratzinger s eucharistic ecclesiology provides a model for living the relation between communion and mission a model that provides a sound image for conceiving of and imagining the church s engagement with modernity and the embodiment of missionary communion Ratzinger s vision deeply influenced by St Benedict s and St Augustine s responses to the problems of their day offers a theologically and liturgically grounded vision of missionary communion that transcends politics In light of our creation by from and for the triune God authentic responses to the present dis integration of reason and community require the witness and invitation of the church as a community for the world Ratzinger argues that right worship can and does habituate Christians and equip churches to respond to the existential questions confronting modern persons many of whom seem partially paralyzed by the anxieties of life without truth and communion Might the witness of communion for mission lived by the new ecclesial movements especially the Focolare offer an example of how Ratzinger's creative minorities can successfully evangelize this secular age
