Cry of the West: Hallie: Book 1 in Finding Home Series Verna Clay, 2013-01-04

Challenge Daisy Recently widowed Hallie Wells is facing hard times. The sudden demise of her husband after selling their farm and just about everything they owned to travel west on the Oregon Trail has left her stranded with an eight-year-old son. Dare she ask Cooper Jerome, recently returned from the War of the States, if he would put his life on hold for say five months to drive her wagon and that doesn't include his return trip? At this point, she's out of options. Cooper Jerome's life has been anything but easy. Guilt from his part in the War of the States and failures from his life before the war plague his conscience. When Mrs. Wells asks him to drive her oxen to Oregon, his first inclination is to decline. However, one look at her boy, who reminds him of another boy, pulls on his heart string until his only option is to help the widow make the several months crossing. Will this journey become his catalyst for change?

Rescue on the Rio: Lilah: Book 2 in Finding Home Series Verna Clay, 2013-05-27

The sisters parted ways twenty years earlier and Hallie longs to be reunited with her only sibling. Lilah Parker yearns for her family but in her infrequent letters to her sister Hallie, she has lied about her occupation. Her sister believes her to be a seamstress when in truth she is a wealthy man's mistress. Lilah's shame and fear that she will be disowned by her loved ones causes her to reject Rush's offer of escort to Oregon. However, fate has other plans for these mismatched lovers as they travel from New Orleans to the Willamette Valley in Oregon. Oh, and along the way, Lilah gets kidnapped by bandits. The book can be read as a standalone.

The Last Train: Night Shift Symphony, A Love Story About Finding Home in Unexpected Places Andrea Febrian, 2024-10-29

In a Tokyo train station where schedules rule and order reigns supreme, two souls on opposite tracks are about to discover that the heart follows no timetable. When the last train of the night becomes a missed connection, it sets in motion an unexpected journey that will challenge everything they believe about love, duty, and the paths they've chosen. Hana lives her life by the clock, finding comfort in the precise rhythms of her midnight shift as a station operations manager. The daughter of a former conductor, she takes pride in her responsibility to keep the trains and her life running exactly on schedule. But her carefully ordered world is disrupted when Leo, a free-spirited musician with a worn guitar case and infectious smile, misses the last train. What begins as a simple inconvenience evolves into a series of late-night conversations that slowly chip away at the walls they've both built around their hearts. As their midnight encounters continue, Hana finds herself drawn to Leo's passionate pursuit of music and his ability to find beauty in life's unplanned moments. For Leo, Hana's dedication and quiet strength become an unexpected anchor in his wandering world. Yet just as their connection deepens, fate presents them with heart-wrenching choices. Hana receives the promotion she's always dreamed of, one that would end her midnight shifts forever, while Leo's music career calls him back to Europe for a career-defining tour. With an ocean of distance threatening to separate them, they must decide if their love is worth risking everything they've worked for. In this delicate dance between duty and desire, Hana and Leo discover that sometimes the most beautiful melodies are played off-beat and the most meaningful connections happen when we least expect them. Their story unfolds against the backdrop of flickering station lights and the hollow echo of distant trains, where the space between hello and goodbye holds both the promise of love and the fear of letting go. They're faced with impossible choices: Does Hana dare to step off her carefully planned track for a chance at something extraordinary? Can Leo find a way to harmonize his dreams of musical success with the longing for a place and person to call home? The Last Train is a lyrical exploration of how love transforms us when we open our hearts to life's unscheduled stops. It speaks to anyone who has ever stood at the crossroads between following their dreams and following their heart, asking the age-old question: When the last train is pulling away from the platform, do you stay safely on the ground or take a leap of faith into the unknown? Perfect for readers who loved the quiet intensity of Before Sunrise, the cultural confluence of Norwegian Wood, and the bittersweet romance of One Day, this novel reminds us that sometimes the most meaningful journeys aren't found on any train schedule. It's a story about how love, like music, doesn't always follow the sheet music and how the most beautiful symphonies often come from the spaces between the notes. Will Hana and Leo find a way to bridge the distance between their worlds, or will their connection become just another echo in an empty station? In this enchanting tale of love, duty, and the courage to choose one's own path, readers will discover that sometimes the last train of the night is just the beginning of the journey.
