Peter FitzSimons,2022-10-26 From the bestselling author of Kokoda and Gallipoli comes the epic story of Australia s deadliest Vietnam War battle 4 31 pm Enemy on left flank Could be serious 5 01 pm Enemy penetrating both flanks and to north and south 5 02 Running short of ammo Require drop through trees It was the afternoon of 18 August 1966 hot humid with grey monsoonal skies D Company 6RAR were four kilometres east of their Nui Dat base on patrol in a rubber plantation not far from the abandoned village of Long Tan A day after their base had suffered a mortar strike they were looking for Viet Cong soldiers Then just when they were least expecting they found them Under withering fire some Diggers perished some were grievously wounded the rest fought on as they remained under sustained attack For hours these men fought for their lives against the enemy onslaught The skies opened and the rain fell as ferocious mortar and automatic fire pinned them down Snipers shot at close quarters from the trees that surrounded them The Aussie Kiwi and Yankee artillery batteries knew it was up to them but outnumbered and running out of ammunition they fired loaded fired as Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Army forces just kept coming And coming Their only hope was if Armoured Personnel Carriers APCs could reach them before they were wiped out The APCs did their best but low cloud and thunderstorms meant air support was stalled A daring helicopter resupply mission was suggested but who would want to fly that The odds against this small force were monumental By far the deadliest battle for Australian forces in Vietnam the Battle of Long Tan has a proud place in the annals of Australian military history and every ANZAC who fought there could hold his head high Peter FitzSimons Australia's greatest storyteller tells the real story of this classic battle He reveals the horror the bravery the wins and the losses that faced our soldiers He brings to life the personal stories of the men who fought the events leading up to that memorable battle and the long war that followed and the political decisions made in the halls of power that sealed their fates The Battle of Long Tan is an engrossing and powerful history that shows the costs of war never end Teaching Through the Ill Body Marla Morris, 2008-01-01 This book raises questions around pedagogy and illness Morris explores two large issues that run through the text What does the ill body teach What does the teacher do through the ill body The body has something to teach while teaching through the ill body This book is theoretically framed by connections between spirituality and aesthetics As the great spiritual traditions teach our responsibility as teachers is to help others especially those who are marginalized What is lacking in our educational discourse is a discussion of the responsibility we all have to help those who get sick and not marginalize them More specifically pedagogical and curricular questions are fleshed out through working in the area of curriculum studies depth psychology and the medical humanities These three disciplines have something in common autobiography But in the field of curriculum studies autobiographies pathographies of sickness are few and far between This book is meant to fill that gap in the educational literature This pathography is a study that explores the mysteries of suffering storytelling memory and poesis Compassion woundedness vulnerability testimony and authenticity are all issues Morris raises here Teachers scholars depth psychologists and medical educators might be particularly interested in this intensely felt narrative about what it is like for teachers to teach while suffering from chronic illness 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton, Judith Ryan, 2024-10-15 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia's brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country Long before Britain's invasion of Australia in 1788 First Peoples cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations Their art shaped the continent as we know it today and the societies that thrived here but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s In this publication twenty five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise
