First Contributions to Psycho-analysis Sandor Ferenczi, 2018-05-08 This book is a collection of Ferenczi's early papers which secured him in an amazingly short time his prominent position among Freud's followers. Included here are several of the papers that now belong to the classics of psychoanalysis such as Introjection and Transference, On Obscene Words, On Onanism, Stages in Development of the Sense of Reality, and The Ontogenesis of the Interest in Money. In addition, it contains Ferenczi's pioneer papers on impotence, homosexuality, paranoia, and symbolism. Peter Shabad examines in detail how self-shaming and passivity are intertwined with the fatalism of self-pity, envy, resentment, and ultimately regret for not seizing the vital moments in life. From birth on, children attempt to contribute to the human endeavor through their innate passion. Parental receptivity enables a child to plant seeds of belonging, inspiring the generative passion necessary for furthering development. Exposed vulnerability due to the lack of receptivity leads to feelings of shame and self-consciousness. As human beings, we interpret our misfortunes and limitations as punishments and reverse our passion into an inhibited passivity. Shabad envisions psychotherapy as a pathway through which individuals learn to inclusively accept all aspects of their inner lives in order to embark on their journey of self-acceptance. He emphasizes the need for therapists to view patients as active agents in this process. This book is a must-read for psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and anyone interested in developing a deeper understanding of the dynamics of shame and passion in our lives. National Union Catalog, 1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases

Weekly Record, 1980 Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10 What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe? And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God? How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society? And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins, both of society and within our own complex selves? Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care, counseling, and psychotherapy. This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper-White, whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Catalog of the Research Library of the Reiss-Davis Child Study Center, Los Angeles, California: A-K Reiss-Davis Child Study Center.
