LEON DĂNĂILĂ Functional Neuroanatomy of the Brain

"I have faith that God helps the sick through me. God gave me a brain, He gave me hands, He gave me reason and I have to use them for the good of mankind. For the sick, poor things, I did everything for them..."

LEON DĂNĂILĂ

Also called the "Brain sculptor", appearing alongside Einstein among the 500 geniuses of the 20th century and one of the top 500 personalities of the world, Academician Professor Doctor Leon Dănilă is a famous neurosurgeon, considered the best in Europe, renowned and recognized at international level. Living as an ascetic and learning as a perpetual student, he gives lives and asks nothing in return. The professional activity of Professor Leon Dănilă can be also translated in figures, many figures. For about half a century, his hand has performed over 40,000 surgeries in the country and abroad, rendering his fellow men new chance at life, rebuilding their body but also their soul. Convinced that "Talk moves the others" and "Your mission is to discover God's creation", Prof. Leon Dănilă describes himself the legend of his life is a prayer-poem that defines his existence:

"I have asked the Lord to give me strength / He gave me hardships that have made me stronger / I asked for wisdom / And He gave me problems that I had to solve / I asked for a rise / And He gave me a thoughtful brain and physical power to work / I asked for courage / And God gave me dangers that I had to face / I failed to be able to love / And the Good Lord gave me people in pain that I could help / He gave me nothing of what I asked for / But He gave me everything I needed / My prayer has been heard".
