Research Handbook on Fundamental Concepts of Environmental Law Douglas Fisher, 2016-11-25 The quality and the strength of an environmental legal system is a reflection of the conceptual foundations upon which it is constructed The Research Handbook on Fundamental Concepts of Environmental Law illuminates key aspects of environmental governance through the lens of their underlying dimensions for example the form structure and language of international regional and national instruments the function of norms objectives and standards and the relevance of economic analysis and of integrated policy formulation     Nature's Trust Mary Christina Wood, 2014 This book exposes the dysfunction of environmental law and offers a transformative approach based on the public trust doctrine An ancient and enduring principle the public trust doctrine empowers citizens to protect their inalienable property rights to crucial resources This book shows how a trust principle can apply from the local to global level to protect the planet     Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 7 Nicholas Hopkins, 2013-07-31 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the ninth biennial Modern Studies in Property Law conference held at the University of Southampton in March 2012 It is the 7th volume to be published under the name of the conference The conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects both the breadth of modern research in property law and its international dimensions Incorporating a keynote address by Lord Walker of Gestingthorpe retired Justice of the Supreme Court on The Saga of Strasbourg and Social Housing a number of chapters reveal the burgeoning influence of human rights in property law Other contributions illustrate an enduring need to question and explore fundamental concepts of the subject alongside new and emerging areas of study Collectively the chapters demonstrate the importance and relevance of property research in addressing a wide range of contemporary issues

Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 1 Elizabeth Cooke, 2001-03-12 This book comprises a collection of papers given at the third biennial conference of the Centre for Property Law at the University of Reading held in March 2000 and is the first in the series Modern Studies in Property Law The Reading conference is becoming well known as a unique opportunity for property lawyers to meet and confer both formally and informally this volume marks a new development being a refereed and revised selection of the papers given there Speakers from around the world focus on issues of immediate importance ranging from human rights to electronic conveyancing as well as timeless but ever relevant subjects such as trusts mortgages and the numerus clausus of property rights As ever a range of international topics are discussed this time including land registration in the Nordic countries and the re privatisation of land in Eastern Europe

Fundamentals of Modern Property Law - CasebookPlus Edward Rabin, Roberta Kwall, Jeffrey Kwall, Craig Arnold, 2017-03-17 CasebookPlus Hardbound New hardbound print book includes lifetime digital access to an eBook with the ability to highlight and take notes and 12 month access to a digital Learning Library that includes self assessment quizzes tied to this book leading study aids an outline starter and Gilbert Law Dictionary     Cases, Materials and Text on

Property Law Sjef van Erp, Bram Akkermans, 2012-07-23 This casebook presents a deep comparative analysis of property law systems in Europe ie the law of immovables movables and claims offering signposts and stepping stones for the reader wishing to explore this fascinating area The subject matter is explained with careful attention given to its history foundations thought patterns underlying principles and basic concepts The casebook focuses on uncovering differences and similarities between Europe s major legal systems French German Dutch and English law are examined while Austrian and Belgian law are also touched upon The book combines excerpts from primary source materials case law and legislation and from doctrine and soft law In doing so it presents a faithful picture of the systems concerned Separate chapters deal with the various types of property rights their creation transfer and destruction with security rights such as mortgages pledges retention of title as well as with harmonising and unifying efforts at the EU and global level Through the functional approach taken by the Ius Commune Casebooks this volume clearly demonstrates that traditional comparative insights no longer hold The law of property used to be regarded as a product of historical developments and political ideology which were considered to be almost set in stone and assumed to render any substantial form of harmonisation or approximation very unlikely Even experienced comparative lawyers considered the divide between common law and civil law to be so deep that no common ground so it was thought could be found However economic integration in particular integration of financial markets and freedom of establishment has led to the integration of particular areas of property law such as mortgage law and enforceable security instruments eg retention of title This pressure towards integration has led comparative lawyers to refocus their interest from contract tort and unjustified enrichment to property law and delve beneath its surface This book reveals that today property law systems are closer to one another than previously assumed that common ground can be found and that differences can be analysed in a new light to enable comparison and further the development of property law in Europe

Fundamentals of Modern Real Property Law to Edwin H. Rabin, Roberta Rosenthal Kwall, 1996-05 Modern Intellectual Property Law Jonathan Galloway, Daithí Mac Síthigh, Andrew Griffiths, Aisling McMahon, 2010-07-12 Modern Intellectual Property Law combines coverage of each intellectual property right granted for creations of the mind into a thoughtful unified textbook Deconstructing the fundamental topics into short clear sections separated by subheadings throughout Colston and Galloway's text is the ideal student companion to this intriguing area of the law This new edition has been completely revised to bring it up to date with the latest debate and changes to the law All significant recent developments are covered including the continuing controversy over patents for computer implemented inventions and biotechnological inventions the House of Lords developments of patent law the ECJ jurisprudence relating to trade mark dilution and comparative advertising as well as the database right and international efforts to reconcile copyright with peer to peer file sharing This text also discusses the ongoing effort to achieve an appropriate balance between intellectual property and competition law in order to protect market competition while retaining key incentives to drive the process of innovation Written for students this accessible and comprehensive textbook provides the perfect starting point for anyone studying intellectual property law in the UK Modern Studies in Property Law, Volume 10 Ben McFarlane, Sinéad Agnew, 2019-05-30 This book contains a collection of papers presented at the Twelfth Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at University College London in April 2018 The conference and its published proceedings are an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase the latest research This collection includes a keynote address by Dame Elizabeth Gloster former Vice President of the Court of Appeal Civil Division on technology in property law It also includes plenary addresses by Professor Henry Smith on the architecture of property law and the challenge of compiling the American Law Institute's Fourth Restatement of Property and by Her Honour Judge Karen Walden Smith on the role of the first instance judge in property cases Sixteen further chapters address a wide range of issues including the theory and taxonomy of land law the re evaluation of land obligations the nature and operation of equitable property rights and shares the role of property in commerce comparative approaches to leases and trusts and contemporary issues in land registration Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy diversity and importance of property law and of current research in the subject Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 9 Heather Conway, Robin Hickey, 2017-07-27

This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the Eleventh Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at Queen's University Belfast in April 2016 It is the ninth volume to be published under the name of the Conference The Conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects the diversity and contemporary relevance of modern research in property law Following a foreword from the keynote speaker at the Conference Queen's alumnus Lord Kerr of Tonaghmore the chapters address a range of issues from the nature of land law and property rights through claims to the home and digital assets to the growing debate on the nature of public property Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy and importance of property law in dealing with modern concerns across the common law world Environmental Law and Contrasting Ideas of Nature Keith H. Hirokawa, 2014-07-17 Law's ideas of nature appear in different doctrinal and institutional settings historical periods and political dialogues Nature underlies every behavior contract or form of wealth and in this broad sense influences every instance of market transaction or governmental intervention Recognizing that law has embedded discrete constructions of nature helps in understanding how humans value their relationship with nature This book offers a scholarly examination of the manner in which nature is constructed through law both in the hard sense of directly regulating human activities that impact nature and in the soft manner in which law's ideas of nature influence and are influenced by behaviors values and priorities Traditional accounts of the intersection between law and nature generally focus on environmental laws that protect wilderness This book will build on the constructivist observation that when considered as a culturally contingent concept nature is a self perpetuating and self reinforcing social creation Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 8 Warren Barr, 2015-08-27 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the Tenth Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at the University of Liverpool in April 2014 It is the eighth volume to be published under the name of the Conference The Conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects the diversity and contemporary relevance of modern research in property law Incorporating a keynote address by Sir John Mummery retired Lord Justice of Appeal on Property in the Information Age a number of chapters consider the contribution of property law to issues central to the human condition the home health and death Other papers illustrate an enduring need to question and explore fundamental concepts of the subject as well as to consider the challenges of reforming the law Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy and importance of property law in dealing with modern concerns across the common law world      Modern Studies in

Property Law, Volume 11 Sue Farran,Russell Hewitson,Adam Ramshaw,2021-07-29 What are the contemporary challenges faced by property law as we enter the 2nd decade of the 21st century This collection brings together the research and perspectives of an international body of academics and practitioners to consider these challenges and how even familiar topics must develop to meet new demands and developments As with previous books in the Modern Studies in Property Law series this volume adopts a broad approach to topics encompassed by property law in the firm belief that the boundaries that divide are shadowy at best and constantly moving in the endeavour to keep up with what is modern This collection looks at 5 themes Comparative perspectives including a chapter on grazing and cropping rights in Northern Ireland and analysis of the anomalies of the English trust law as seen from a civil law perspective Taking and alienating property including a chapter on bankruptcy and the family home Modern dilemmas including chapters on trusts in virtual currency and on smart homes Old chestnuts new challenges including analysis of the mortgage law reform in Scotland and a chapter on the ouster principle in common law jurisdictions and Wills death and other morbid topics with chapters on English succession law and the role of knowledge and approval in retrospective assessments of capacity Unfortunately the COVID 19 pandemic prevented the 13th biennial conference being held in 2020 as planned but despite this the authors and co editors persevered to produce this interesting and diverse collection      Property Rights and Sustainability David Grinlinton,Prue Taylor,2011-04-11 This book offers a unique and thought provoking exploration of how property concepts can be substantially reshaped to meet ecological challenges It takes the discussion beyond its traditional parameters and offers new insights into conceptualizing and justifying property systems in an age of ecological consequences      Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 3

Elizabeth Cooke,2005-06-29 This book comprises a collection of papers given at the fifth biennial conference of the Centre for Property Law at the University of Reading held in March 2004 and is the third in the series Modern Studies in Property Law The Reading conference has become well known as a unique opportunity for property lawyers to meet and confer both formally and informally This volume includes a refereed and revised selection of the papers given there The papers thus cover a broad range of topics of immediate importance including land registration leasehold and commonhold prescription and law and equity A growing and popular aspect of the series is its coverage of property law matters worldwide this volume includes essays on property law in developing countries in South Africa Canada and Eastern Europe      State and Society in Early Modern Scotland Julian Goodare,1999-09-23 This is the first full scholarly study of state formation and the exercise of state power in Scotland It sets the Scottish state in a British and European context revealing that Scotland like larger and better known states developed a more integrated governmental system in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries This study provides an invaluable new contribution to the history of Scotland Julian Goodare shows how the magnates ceased to exercise autonomous local power and instead managed the new administrative structure through client networks The state no longer drew its main revenues from land but developed new taxes its fighting forces were modernized and detached from landed power With the Reformation powerful church institutions were created and were gradually integrated into the state The states territorial integrity increased giving it a closer and more troubled relationship with the Highlands Scotland remained a sovereign state even after the union of crowns in 1603 but it was finally absorbed by England in 1707 and Dr Goodare examines the long term context of this development
