Self-transformation is not just about changing yourself. It means shifting yourself to a completely new dimension of experience and perception.

Let's Talk Sex and Money Luz Maria Villanueva, M.A., PhD, Samantha V. Torres, CFPTM, 2024-11-25 Two Latina women with different worldviews a baby boomer Luz Maria first generation Mexican American born and Samantha Torres a millennial and first generation immigrant offer a refreshingly candid exploration of two taboo topics drawing from their personal and professional experiences our collective cultural forces and history Let s Talk Sex and Money has a unique way of quilting two topics in one book a hundred years of history of sex and money with pertinent information that will lead to questions for the reader to sit down to explore debate and communicate so that together we can come to an understanding and develop partnerships Luz and Samantha remove the walls from their professional practices and experiences and guide readers through the different struggles in their intimate and financial lives through the core issues of relationship problems Let s Talk Sex and Money breaks down barriers to conversations focusing on complex systems theory helping readers look beyond their lack of sexual and financial satisfaction and begin recognizing the bigger influences that make up their intimate lives This rarely heard dialogue opens up a vital conversation that s not only empowering but also serves as a beacon of hope for women of all generations striving to take full agency over their finances bodies and sexual health Ordinary Life Kathlyn Conway,2025-06-25 This book is a striking departure from the literature of illness as well as a remarkable literary work in its own right The stories we typically hear about people coping with serious illness are set up as heroic tales that emphasize the victim s triumph over adversity or even portray the experience of illness as a transformative event that makes the survivor a better person In this compelling account written from within an illness Kathlyn Conway gives us a deeply honest description of her own struggle with breast cancer and its many reverberations through her everyday life bringing us to the heart of the experience of illness without preachiness or sentimentality Conway did not experience breast cancer as a means for reevaluating her life but rather as a terrible threat to her future and that of her family Making difficult choices among treatment possibilities dealing with nurses doctors and lab technicians undergoing a mastectomy and enduring chemotherapy Conway discovered that although she wanted to play the part of the brave long suffering patient she could not Angry and upset much of the time overwhelmed by her situation she found it difficult to cope even with the support her family and friends provided In her willingness to share this story of herself as a frightened sometimes selfish often despairing human being Kathlyn Conway gives us not only an unsettling portrait of our everyday mortality but a renewed appreciation of life itself Self-Transformations Cressida J. Heyes,2007-08-16 The subject of normalization and its relationship with sex gender is a major one in feminist theory and Heyes book takes a theoretical approach to Foucault s work in this area
