The Patristic Understanding of Creation William A. Dembski, Wayne J. Downs, Fr. Justin B. A. Frederick, 2019-11-14 The Patristic Understanding of Creation encapsulates what the Church Fathers had to say in their own words on the topic of creation Going back to Roman and Byzantine times the writings of the Church Fathers are basic to Christian theology and provide a benchmark for how Christians have traditionally understood creation This understanding of creation however faces tremendous challenges in our day especially in discussions at the intersection of science and religion Process theology and other efforts to reconceptualize creation have explicitly opposed key elements of the Christian doctrine of creation creation ex nihilo the transcendence and immanence of God in creation the absolute creatureliness and non self sufficiency of the world to use a phrase of Fr Georges Florovsky the goodness of creation and the openness of the world to divine action All of these the Church Fathers not only held but also ably defended This anthology is therefore not merely of academic or historical interest In reasserting a theologically sound understanding of creation this anthology fills a need that is both practical and urgent
